RECEIVER'S MOTION TO DISMISS FOR WANT OF JURISDICTION

TO THE HONORABLE FIRST COURT OF APPEALS:

The Receiver, Mr. Seth Kretzer, respectfully requests dismissal of this successor appeal for want of jurisdiction.

"The Settlement Agreement evidences a business deal among the Parties, ending multiple contentious and expensive litigation proceedings . . . which all carry substantial business risk. . . . thereby ending years' long disputes . . . ."

— Counsel for Appellee, Princeton, in the Princeton Motion to Approve Settlement, at 11 (Aug. 27, 2022) (No. 21-31121-mvl11).

"Princeton has been satisfied . . . ."

 Counsel for Appellants, Appellants' Post-Hearing Submission at 7 (Mar. 10, 2023) (No. 2019-18855).

I. INTRODUCTION

This is a successor appeal by corporate shells owned and controlled by Nate Paul.

There is no jurisdiction:

- Ground for Dismissal 1: The Appellants (Great Value Storage, LLC and World Class Capital Group, LLC) and Appellee (Princeton Capital Corporation) settled in 2022. The money has been paid, reported to the SEC, and distributed to shareholders. All claims against Appellee are therefore moot. There is no viable "appellee" in this appeal to assert a case-in-controversy. The Texas Constitution bars appellate courts from issuing advisory opinions.
- Ground for Dismissal 2: The Appellants (Great Value Storage, LLC and World Class Capital Group, LLC) are actually attempting an impermissible successor motion for rehearing of this Court's April 20, 2023 Panel Opinion, and July 27, 2023 order denying rehearing, in the Related Appeal: No. 01-21-00284-CV, Great Value Storage, et al., v. Princeton Capital Corp. This Court is without jurisdiction to grant rehearing of a decision through a separate appeal by the losing appellants.
- Ground for Dismissal 3: Eight other Paul shell companies filed post-judgment "pleas in intervention" in the same appealed and decided district court case, 2019-18855, launching collateral attacks on the District Court's receivership order and Receiver's duties, after this Court remanded September 22, 2022 in related 01-21-00284-CV to effectuate the Parties' settlement agreement. Having affirmed the receivership order April 20, 2023, and denied rehearing July 27, the doctrines of law of the case, res judicata, and collateral attack bar jurisdiction to any relief or jurisdiction to these shell companies, who assert claims derivative from the 165th District Court Final Judgment, and therefore barred by the Settlement Agreement.
- Ground for Dismissal 4: The two other Paul Shell Company Appellants (WC 4th and Rio Grande LP and WC 4th and Colorado, LP) filed post-judgment "pleas in intervention" in the same appealed and decided District Court case, 2019-18855, launching collateral attacks on the district court's receivership order and Receiver's duties, after this Court remanded September 22, 2022 in 01-21-00284-CV to effectuate the Parties' settlement agreement. Having affirmed the receivership order April 20, 2023, and denied rehearing July 27, the doctrines of law of the case, res judicata, and collateral attack bar jurisdiction to any relief or jurisdiction to these shell companies, who assert claims derivative from the 165th District Court Final Judgment, and therefore barred by the Settlement Agreement.

The Court should dismiss this appeal for want of jurisdiction.

II. PROCEDURAL HISTORY.

Identification of Parties

World Class Capital Group, LLC ("WCCG") and Great Value Storage, LLC

("GVS") (hereinafter "Appellants") are empty corporate shells owned by Nate Paul

("Paul").1 Paul stripped them of assets and accounts years ago.2 They are Appellants in the related appeal, 01-21-00284-CV (hereinafter "Related Appeal").

WC 4th and Rio Grande LP and WC 4th & Colorado LP (hereinafter "Paul Shell

Princeton Capital Corporation ("Princeton") was the unsecured creditor plaintiff below, and Appellee in the Related Appeal. Princeton settled all claims with Appellants in 2022, was paid in full, reported to the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), and distributed to shareholders last year.<sup>9</sup> It is no longer involved in this appeal or the Related Appeal. ### Judgment and Receivership in the District Court

On March 4, 2021, the 165 District Court, Hon. Judge Ursula Hall, rendered a $9.7 final judgment in favor of Princeton.<sup>11</sup> At Princeton's request, Judge Hall appointed Mr. Kretzer as Receiver for the two parent judgment debtors and Appellants, WCCG and GVS. <sup>12</sup> Appellants appealed.<sup>13</sup>

Proceedings in First Court of Appeals

As the Receiver began to search for documents from third parties and to seize transferred assets, Appellants filed in this Court a series of emergency motions and a mandamus action against the receivership order.<sup>14</sup> Appellants did not supersede the judgment.<sup>15</sup> Appellants did, however, file affidavits by Paul and a bookkeeper, Barbie Lee, claiming the companies have no equity at all.<sup>16</sup> They posted a $100 deposit for each company with the clerk, asserting these constituted adequate supersedeas bonds for the two companies and their missing tens of millions of cash and real estate.<sup>17</sup> In one of their first such motions, October 5, 2021, Appellants admitted Paul had fraudulently misappropriated $96,000, mere days after Judge Hall signed the receivership order.<sup>18</sup>

On December 23, 2021, this Court, for the second time, ordered Appellants to return to Judge Hall to determine the supersedeas bond.<sup>19</sup> Appellants did not do so, refusing to comply with an order to produce corporate asset records to Princeton for the requisite hearing.<sup>20</sup>

This Court conducted oral argument June 1, 2022. Princeton advocated strongly for the necessity and effectiveness of the receivership.<sup>21</sup>

On September 22, 2022, informed of Appellants' Settlement Agreement with

Princeton, this Court remanded with instructions to effectuate the settlement agreement, if possible.<sup>22</sup>

On March 30, 2023, this Court, formed that Princeton had been fully paid and reported distribution to the SEC, ordered the Parties to show cause whether the appeal should be dismissed for want of jurisdiction as moot.<sup>23</sup> On April 10, 2023, Appellants contended the appeal was not moot.<sup>24</sup> Princeton, having settled, took no position.<sup>25</sup>

This Court's April 2023 Opinion

On April 20, 2023, this Court entered its unanimous opinion in the Related Appeal. The Court ruled:

- Sufficient evidence supported the summary judgment;
- Sufficient evidence and justification supported the District Court's receivership order;
- Appellants' other challenges to the receivership order were procedurally defaulted;<sup>26</sup> and
- Appellants and their lawyers engaged in litigation misconduct.<sup>27</sup>

This Court denied rehearing July 27, 2023. Appellants have filed a motion for extension of time to file their petition for review in the Supreme Court.<sup>28</sup>

Multitude of "Pleas in Intervention"

Following this Court's September 22, 2022 remand order to effectuate the Settlement Agreement, <sup>29</sup> Paul ordered his lawyers to file pleas in intervention into 2019-18855 case on behalf of eight shell companies.<sup>30</sup> They argue they were completely independent companies when Receiver seized their bank accounts to claw back money embezzled by Paul. These shell companies intervened, they assert, to get their money back from improper Receiver duties, ultra vires from the receivership order.

Next, Paul ordered for two other corporate shells, WC 4th and Rio Grande, LP, and WC 4th and Colorado, LP, to file post-judgment pleas in interventions in the same case, 2019-18855, on the theory that Receiver improperly settled litigation involving these shells nearly two years ago, resulting in two secured creditors recovering two of Paul's commercial real estate properties.<sup>31</sup> Several Travis County District Court's approved Receiver's settlements. The appeals of these two shell companies are currently before the Third,<sup>32</sup> Eighth,<sup>33</sup> and Fourteenth<sup>34</sup> Courts of Appeals. In the present appeal, these two shell companies seek to bring before this Court the same collateral attacks on the receivership order they have pressed in three sister appellate courts.<sup>35</sup>

Additional Notices of Appeal

Following this Court's July 27, 2023 rehearing denial of the Related Appeal, on August 2, 2023, the District Court: (1) approved Receiver's report of his work recovering fraudulently transferred assets; (2) commended the success of the Receiver's efforts, leading to full payment of a judgement creditor, Princeton; (3) authorized payment of Receiver's fees from funds held by U.S. Bankruptcy Court, Northern District of Texas, Dallas Division; and (4) denied all post-judgment, post-remand claims against Receiver by Paul Shell Company Appellants.<sup>36</sup>

&lt;sup>35</sup> Receiver's investigation revealed there are two reasons Paul files serial, repetitive lawsuits and appeals. First is to bar issuance of title policies. As long as he can keep litigation and appeals going, a title company will not issue title coverage for any of the commercial properties he lost for default to unpaid secured creditors. Consequently, the secured creditors cannot sell the properties to new investors who wish to develop them. Second, Paul uses the court system as a tool to punish perceived enemies with expensive, consuming lawsuits and appeals. See Receiver's Report at 21, 24, 25, 91 (Exhibit 7).

On August 21, 2023, Appellants and Paul Shell Company Appellants filed three notices of appeal in district court cause 2019-18855—the same cause affirmed by this Court's on April 20, 2023. These three notices of appeal are now assigned to the present cause number, 01-23-00618-CV.

III. CONTROLLING JURISDICTIONAL JURISPRUDENCE

A. An appellate court determines its jurisdiction.

"[B]efore we can reach the merits of the trial court's challenged rulings, we first must determine whether we have jurisdiction to do so."<sup>37</sup> "In determining whether an appellant has standing, a party's status in the trial court is not controlling. The 'ultimate inquiry is whether the appellant possesses a justiciable interest in obtaining relief from the lower court's judgment."<sup>38</sup>

Appellate jurisdiction requires legal standing. This Court most fully explained standing on appeal in the case of Nephrology Leaders & Assocs. v. Am. Renal Assocs. LLC:<sup>39</sup>

In determining whether an appellant has standing, a party's status in the trial court is not controlling. The 'ultimate inquiry is whether the appellant possesses a justiciable interest in obtaining relief from the lower court's judgment.' Specifically, to have standing, an appellant must be personally aggrieved, meaning 'his alleged injury must be concrete and particularized, actual or imminent, not hypothetical.'

B. Texas Constitution requires an actual injury and a justiciable interest by adverse parties.

"These requirements are not 'judge-made'; they stem from the Texas Constitution's open courts provision, 'which contemplates access to the courts only for those litigants suffering an injury,' ....."<sup>40</sup>

Professor Dorsaneo explains: "Texas courts have long recognized constitutional limits on the exercise of judicial power established by the Texas Constitution. One of the primary limits on the exercise of judicial power is the prohibition against the rendition of advisory opinions. It has been repeatedly held that Article 5, § 8 of the Texas Constitution does not empower courts to render advisory opinions."<sup>41</sup>

"The mootness doctrine applies to cases in which a justiciable controversy exists between the parties at the time the case arose, but the live controversy ceases because of subsequent events. It prevents courts from rendering advisory opinions, which are outside the jurisdiction conferred by Texas Constitution article II, section 1."<sup>42</sup>

Professor Dorsaneo also explains, "one important prerequisite to the exercise of judicial power is a requirement of a justiciable controversy—a real controversy between the parties that actually will be resolved in the litigation."<sup>43</sup>

Therefore, an appeal requires both an appellant and an appellee.<sup>44</sup> Appeals by a single party are barred by both mootness and justiciable interest doctrines.<sup>45</sup>

A personal stake in the outcome of a controversy must exist at the beginning of litigation and continue throughout the lawsuit's existence.<sup>46</sup> A case becomes moot if a controversy no longer exists or if the parties lack a legally cognizable interest in the outcome.<sup>47</sup> An appeal is moot when the court's action cannot affect the rights of the parties.<sup>48</sup>

C. Appellate jurisdiction is not a collectivist exercise. Claims are analyzed discretely.

"Like the federal courts, we analyze standing 'claim-by-claim,' so as to 'ensure that a particular plaintiff has standing to bring each of his particular claims.""<sup>49</sup> "We assess standing 'on a claim-by-claim basis,' and 'if a plaintiff lacks standing to assert one of his claims, the court lacks jurisdiction over that claim and must dismiss it.""<sup>50</sup> "We therefore analyze standing on a claim-by-claim basis."<sup>51</sup>

For appellate jurisdiction to exist an appellant must demonstrate it has suffered some injury perpetrated by an appellee. "Under Texas law, the standing inquiry begins with determining whether the plaintiff has personally been injured, that is, 'he must plead facts demonstrating that he, himself (rather than a third party or the public at large), suffered the injury."<sup>52</sup>

IV. FIRST GROUND FOR DISMISSAL: ALL CLAIMS PRINCETON CAPITAL MIGHT HAVE HAD AGAINST APPELLANTS WORLD CLASS CAPITAL GROUP, LLC AND GREAT VALUE STORAGE LLC WERE SETTLED PURSUANT TO THEIR GLOBAL SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT. CONSEQUENTLY, THERE IS NO "APPELLEE" IN THIS APPEAL.

This Court has received the complete mutual Settlement Agreement executed between the Parties.<sup>56</sup> The Amended Settlement Agreement includes a global release of all claims Princeton may have against Nate Paul individually, and his collection of corporate entities.<sup>57</sup> The Settlement Agreement with Princeton was signed, by "Nate Paul, on behalf of himself individually and on behalf all entities that he either owns or control (in whole or in part) [excluding the two present parent company judgment debtors—World Class and Great Value—controlled by Paul],"<sup>58</sup> and paid Princeton $11.37 million, for which Appellants declare, "Princeton has been satisfied . . . ."<sup>59</sup> Princeton's June 16, 2023 filing in this Court correctly informs, "The motion for rehearing . . . will not have any effect on Princeton or its final settlement."<sup>60</sup>

The Amended Settlement Agreement granted Nate Paul, individually and all his entities he "controls," the broadest possible release from all of Princeton's state and federal claims, and all state and federal claims Nate Paul, individually and his Entities, might have against Princeton.<sup>61</sup>

As a result of the Settlement Agreement there was no justiciable case in controversy pending in the District Court.<sup>62</sup> Consequently, Appellants' assertions that Princeton still has viable and meritorious claims against WCCG or GVS, or that Appellants still have derivative claims against Receiver, are untenable. Princeton released every conceivable claim against Paul and his Entities, in return for full payment of the final judgment, which Princeton promptly reported to the SEC and distributed to shareholders.

A. The words of the Parties provide the most relevant evidence this Court lacks subject matter jurisdiction over this appeal.

The most determinative evidence on the issue of whether this Court lacks subject matter jurisdiction as a result of the Settlement Agreement comes from the words of the Parties in the settlement documents discussed below, and their statements in pleadings, open court, and SEC filings, as set forth below. Attached as Exhibit 1 hereto is the complete Settlement Agreement, including the mutually signed August 22, 2022

Taylor*, 153 Tex. 433, 435, 270 S.W.2d 219, 220 (1954)). Full explanation and authority of justiciability and case in controversy appear in Receiver's April 10, 2023 Response to the Court's March 30, 2023 Order.

"Settlement Term Sheet,"<sup>63</sup> which the parties explicitly integrated into the final settlement agreement, and the September 20, 2022 Amended Settlement Agreement.<sup>64</sup>

The plain words of the Settlement Agreement, and the integrated Settlement Term Sheet, make clear that the intention of the Parties was to provide for the payment in full to Princeton of amounts owed to it by Appellants, from funds set aside in the Dallas Bankruptcy Case: "[T]he settlement provides that Princeton will be paid $11,372,698.89 ... in exchange for a full mutual release of the settling Defendants, including the Reorganized Debtors and WCH... and provide finality to contentious and prolonged litigation," with the result that "[t]he Settlement Agreement is a clear success for the Defendants and WCH... while also permitting Princeton to obtain a recovery without the need for further litigation."<sup>65</sup>

No. 1358 on Aug. 27, 2022 ("Princeton Motion to Approve Settlement") (highlights added by Receiver), Exhibit 1.
<sup>64</sup> Three settlement documents were ultimately executed by the Parties: (1) the August 22, 2022 Settlement Term Sheet ("Settlement Term Sheet"); (2) the September 2, 2022 Settlement, Assignment and Acceptance Agreement ("Amended Settlement Agreement"). Therefore, the Parties' "Settlement Agreement," as referred to herein, consists of two executed documents: (1) the August 22, 2022 Settlement Term Sheet ("Settlement Agreement," as referred to herein, consists of two executed documents: (1) the August 22, 2022 Settlement Term Sheet ("Settlement Agreement," as referred to herein, consists of two executed documents: (1) the August 22, 2022 Settlement Term Sheet ("Settlement Term Sheet"), and (2) the September 20, 2022 Amended and Restated Settlement Agreement"), Exhibits 1, 2.

B. The Settlement Agreement explicitly incorporated the Settlement Term Sheet, in which the Parties mutually pledged—in return for full payment to Princeton and full release of Appellants—that Princeton would file pleadings in several state and federal courts, including this Court, supporting Appellants' opposition to the Receiver.

The Parties explicitly integrated their mutually signed Settlement Term Sheet into the Settlement Agreement. The Settlement Agreement contains the following provisions incorporating the Settlement Term Sheet, "which shall remain in force and effect."<sup>73</sup>

WHEREAS, on August 22, 2022, Princeton and the Great Value Parties executed that certain settlement term sheet providing for the resolution of claims and issues between such parties and separately contemplated the negotiation and execution of a note purchase agreement in furtherance of that resolution. Great Value Storage, LLC, et al., v. Princeton Capital Corp., No. 01-23-00618-CV Receiver's Motion to Dismiss for Want of Jurisdiction

Upon payment, the Settlement Term Sheet required Princeton to file a motion in Hon. Judge Ursula Hall's court to terminate the receivership:<sup>75</sup>

4. Following the release of the Settlement Amount to Princeton in accordance with the Order, Princeton agrees to file a motion (the "Princeton Receiver Termination Motion") in Princeton Capital Corporation vs Great Value Storage LLC, et al pending in the 165th District Court of Harris County, Texas, case no. 2019-18855 (the "Princeton Lawsuit") seeking the immediate termination of the order appointing Seth Kretzer as Receiver (the

"Receivership Order"), and the receivership in accordance with Texas state law and a determination of the amounts to be paid to Seth Kretzer (the "Receiver"), if any, under the Receivership Order. Nothing herein or the Order shall prevent the World Class Entities, defined below, from opposing any payments to Kretzer. Princeton agrees to litigate such motion in good faith and on an expedited basis. Unless compelled to do so by the court, Princeton agrees it will make no statement regarding the amount of fees to be awarded. Further, for the avoidance of doubt, the failure of the court that appointed the Receiver to act quickly on the request to terminate the receivership shall not constitute a default under this Agreement.

Upon payment, the Settlement Term Sheet also required Princeton to "support

in the 15 pending bankruptcy cases involving entities ultimately owned by Paul, pending in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Texas, Austin Division

("Austin Bankruptcy Cases"), in which all but one of Paul's debtor entities were facing

9 of Princeton Motion to Approve Settlement, Exhibit 1 herein (highlights added by Receiver).

so called "death penalty" sanctions<sup>76</sup> for failing to produce documents<sup>77</sup> in response to Receiver's subpoenas:<sup>78</sup>

6. Princeton agrees to have its counsel support motions by World Class Entities to temporarily abate all pending discovery in connection with the Receiver's claims in the bankruptcy cases of World Class Entities pending in the Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Texas and make a representation at the August 22, 2022 hearing before Judge Davis confirming that the Parties have executed a Settlement Term Sheet which is subject to the execution of a formal settlement agreement and the approval of the Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas, and the funding of the settlement, and that Princeton supports temporary abatement of the pending actions and discovery until the Closing of this settlement and the funding of the Settlement Amount to Princeton.

Upon payment, the Settlement Term Sheet also required Princeton to "support the Judgment Debtors (World Class Capital Group, LLC and Great Value Storage, LLC) . . . and any related or affiliated entities (collectively the 'World Class Entities') in their efforts to abate all actions by the Receiver . . . to compel the Receiver to cease exercising authority over all World Class Entities and to compel the Receiver to return properties and money taken or transferred by Receiver . . . .":<sup>79</sup>

9. After the Closing and Princeton's receipt of the Settlement Amount, Princeton will support the Judgment Debtors (World Class Capital Group LLC and Great Value Storage LLC), the Great Value Parties and any related or affiliated entities (collectively the "World Class Entities") in their efforts to abate all actions by the Receiver, including all discovery in all actions, to obtain the withdrawal of all the Receiver's proofs of claims, to compel the Receiver to cease exercising authority over all World Class Entities, to stop or reverse the Receiver's dismissals of lawsuits on behalf of World Class Entities and to compel the Receiver to return properties and money taken or transferred by the Receiver purportedly

in connection with the Receiver's collection of the Princeton Judgment. The term "support" as used in this paragraph shall be limited to jointly filing pleadings seeking such relief with the appropriate World Class Entities and attending hearings on such pleadings to announce its support of the relief sought. Princeton reserves all rights to review, revise, or reject any pleading to which its name will be attached as a movant. If the parties cannot agree on the form of a pleading, the World Class Entities are not entitled to invoke Princeton's name as a movant on such pleading.

This ongoing obligation of cooperation and support by Princeton is why this Court never received a motion to dismiss appeal in 01-21-00284-CV by Princeton, and likely will not receive a motion to dismiss by any of the Parties in this present appeal. Princeton, however, has informed this Court, "Princeton is no longer a party to the Note Purchase Agreement that is the subject of the trial court's judgment and appeal, . . . issues related to Appellants, . . . and the Receiver, . . . . will not have any effect on Princeton or its final settlement."<sup>80</sup> In other words, Princeton is not an Appellee in this appeal with any justiciable interest for this Court to adjudicate.

C. Princeton also informed the Securities and Exchange Commission that it "entered into a settlement," and later "closed the settlement and received $11,372,699," by which it "received payment in full."

In its June 30, 2022 Form 10-Q Report and its September 2, 2022 Form 8-K Report, Princeton informed the SEC it had executed a settlement agreement in return for full payment and resolution. On page 28 of its June 30, 2022 report, filed August 12, 2022, Princeton Capital's Chief Executive Officer reported, "On June 30, 2021, the Company filed a Motion for Post-Judgment Receivership to appoint a receiver to the court to collect the judgment on our behalf. On September 8, 2021, the court granted the appointment of a receiver."<sup>81</sup> Princeton Capital assigned a fair value to its note in this case of $4,854,720.<sup>82</sup>

Only 28 days later, on page 1 of its September 2, 2022 report, Princeton's CFO reported to the SEC, "On September 2, 2022, the Company, Natin Paul (on behalf of himself individually and on behalf of all entities that he either owns or controls), . . . Ms. Paul told the Dallas Bankruptcy Court, "The Settlement Agreement is the product of extensive negotiations between Defendants and Princeton," and "provides immediate certainty and finality with respect to the outcome of contentious and expensive litigation with Princeton."<sup>89</sup> "[T]his ensures that Princeton -- there are – there's no further litigation, or no further actions that need to be taken by Princeton to resolve the open litigation or no matters between the Reorganized Debtors debts and Princeton."<sup>90</sup> "And, so, over the course of several weeks of negotiation, this was the deal the parties were able to reach."<sup>91</sup>

Appellants, through Paul-controlled entities, further told the Dallas Bankruptcy Court, "For years, Princeton and the Defendants have disputed whether Princeton is entitled to a pecuniary recovery . . . spawning litigation in several courts including before this Court. . . . The Settlement Agreement is a testament to the Parties' determination and discipline to put aside their differences and negotiate a mutually agreeable settlement."<sup>92</sup> "The Settlement Agreement is a clear success for the Reorganized Debtors, Princeton, the

The Parties should be taken at their words in court and to the SEC. The Parties negotiated and signed an enforceable settlement agreement, containing a binding Settlement Term Sheet, and paid and received $11.37 million, the full amount owed, to bring the litigation to a close.

E. The Texas Supreme Court—and this Court—prohibit attempts to manufacture standing and continue litigation when there no longer remains any justiciable appellate controversy.

"The parties may not create a justiciable interest by agreement."95

Disregarding the principle that parties cannot collusively manufacture standing where none exists, Appellants seek to name settled Princeton as "Appellee" as means to fix the obvious mootness deficiency.96 In other words, Appellants are trying to advance a

The Debtors Motion to Approve the Settlement Agreement, with the Settlement Term Sheet incorporated, was filed by the law firm Squire Patton Boggs, which also represents Appellants before this Court. &lt;sup>96</sup> See Docket Sheet, No. 01-23-0068-CV (designating Princeton as "Appellee" per Appellants' appeal notices). The Parties signed the Settlement Agreement on September 2, 2022, and the revised version, with terms imposed by the Dallas Bankruptcy Court, on September 20, 2022. See Exhibit 4, Sheena Paul Depo. at 47:1-11.

position in which the Appellee (Princeton) has no standing-because it has been satisfied in full. Appellants assert standing on a debt that no longer exists.

The Texas Supreme Court holds such faux standing attempts to be illegal:

The requirement in this State that a plaintiff have standing to assert a claim derives from the Texas Constitution's separation of powers among the departments of government, which denies the judiciary authority to decide issues in the abstract, and from the Open Courts provision, which provides court access only to a "person for an injury done him". A court has no jurisdiction over a claim made by a plaintiff without standing to assert it. For standing, a plaintiff must be personally aggrieved; his alleged injury must be concrete and particularized, actual or imminent, not hypothetical.<sup>97</sup>

"Texas courts have long held that an appealing party may not complain of errors that do not injuriously affect it or that merely affect the rights of others."98

The hallmark case from this Court is Salazar v. HPA Tex. Sub 2016-1, LLC,99 a doctrinal case quoting from the Fourteenth Court of Appeals' decision in Alarcon v.

Appellants (GVS and WCCG) cannot swap Receiver in place of Princeton and

This Court did not invite the Receiver—a non-party who has been subject to a stay order since October 6, 2022—to file any of these pleadings. Rather, the Court ordered the parties to file a response to the March 30, 2023 Order indicating why this Court should not dismiss the appeal for want of jurisdiction. Likewise, the Court ordered the parties to file quarterly status reports. Despite clear orders from the Court, non-party Receiver filed a response brief in support of dismissing the appeal ....

V. SECOND GROUND FOR DISMISSAL: PAUL IS ATTEMPTING A DISGUISED AND IMPERMISSIBLE MOTION FOR REHEARING OF THIS COURT'S APRIL 20, 2023 PANEL OPINION, AND JULY 27, 2023 ORDER DENYING REHEARING, IN THE RELATED APPEAL: NO. 01-21-00284-CV. AN APPELLATE COURT HAS NO JURISDICTION TO GRANT REHEARING OF A DECISION BY MEANS OF A SEPARATE APPEAL FILED BY THE LOSING APPELLANTS.

In the Related Appeal, this Court affirmed the final judgment and receivership order. This Court found justification for the receivership and that the remaining challenges to the receiver's fees and duties were procedurally defaulted:

[T]hey argue that the trial court abused its discretion by setting the receiver's fees in advance in the order appointing a receiver and without requiring evidence to establish the reasonableness of the fee.<sup>106</sup>

The second, third, and fourth issues in the appeal from the order appointing a receiver were not presented in the trial court, and thus these arguments do not comport with the complaints made in the trial court. We conclude that these issues are waived, and we overrule them.<sup>107</sup>

The Court denied rehearing July 27, 2023. On August 21, 2023 Appellants filed another notice of appeal, from the same judgment and receivership order, challenging the same issues already rejected by this Court. In effect, Appellants seek another motion for rehearing.

The jurisdictional problem is that the Receiver's fee is based on a sum of money that Appellants chose to pay by way of settlement. "Usually, when a judgment debtor voluntarily pays and satisfies a judgment rendered against him, the cause becomes moot."<sup>108</sup> "'This rule is intended to prevent a party who voluntarily pays a judgment from later changing his mind and seeking the court's aid in recovering payment."<sup>109</sup> By paying the judgment in full via the Settlement Agreement, Appellants are barred by the mootness doctrine from challenging Receiver's fees, which are entirely derivative of: (1) the affirmed judgment and receivership order, and (2) the amount of the judgment paid.

Appellants explained precisely this point to the Dallas Bankruptcy Court, seeking approval of the Settlement Agreement, assuring that Princeton would be paid in full, and the Receiver would be derivatively fully compensated in accordance with Judge Hall's order:

"The receiver's fee is 25% of what's recovered. What will be recovered is $11.3 million.

"In addition, the receiver is fully empowered by Judge Hall to do the work that it needs to do to recover its fees and has been doing that work.<sup>110</sup>

In other words, not only did Appellants moot the case by choosing to make full settlement payment, but they also specifically urged the same rationale as to the derivative calculation of Receiver's fees to the Bankruptcy Judge who approved the settlement, assuring her that Judge Hall's receivership order will not be affected by the Settlement Agreement. Yet now Appellants seek to contradict, through the same law firm (Squires Patton), precisely the rationale presented to the Bankruptcy Court, means of appealing, yet again, to this Court, against the receivership order.

Moreover, Texas Rule of Appellate Procedure 49 bars a second disguised rehearing motion.<sup>111</sup> This Court denied Appellants' motion for rehearing July 27 without modifying its judgment or opinion. Rehearing is therefore at an end.<sup>112</sup> The law of the case doctrine narrows the issues in successive stages of the litigation, achieving uniformity of decision as well as judicial economy and efficiency.<sup>113</sup>

VI. THIRD GROUND FOR DISMISSAL: THE COURT LACKS JURISDICTION OVER THE POST-JUDGMENT, POST-SETTLEMENT, CLAIMS BY EIGHT OTHER PAUL SHELL COMPANY APPELLANTS AGAINST RECEIVER'S DUTIES OR FEES.

This ground for dismissal pertains to the notice of appeal filed by eight other Paul

Shell Company Appellants, purported "Bank Account Intervenors."<sup>114</sup>

A. To establish jurisdiction for their post-judgment, post-settlement, postremand, interventions, Paul Shell Company Appellants would have to prove this Court: (1) reversed Princeton's judgment, or (2) vacated the receivership order. Neither occurred.

After issuing 120 subpoenas for banking, corporate, and tax records, Receiver's investigation revealed Paul and his aides embezzled and siphoned tens of millions of dollars through hundreds of shell companies and bank accounts by more than 60,000 undocumented wire transfers.<sup>115</sup> Receiver recovered a portion of these fraudulently transferred funds from these eight Paul Shell Company Appellants. After this Court's September 22, 2022 remand in the Related Appeal, Paul ordered his lawyers to file "pleas in intervention" for these shells against Receiver to seek these funds. Judge Hall dismissed.<sup>116</sup>

The Court lacks jurisdiction to consider these post-judgment pleas in intervention. "[A] plea in intervention comes too late if filed after judgment and may not be considered unless and until the judgment has been set aside."<sup>117</sup>

The judgment has not been set aside. Princeton successfully defeated appellate challenges to liability and damages on appeal.<sup>118</sup> Paul waited to direct his subsidiary companies to "intervene" only after settlement, payment, and remand. The interventions are moot.

These front companies cannot have "independent" claims against the Receiver, who recovered fraudulently transferred money during the receivership. Any such claims are derivative of Princeton's judgment enforcement claims against Appellants WCCG and GVS, now settled. This Court has explained the consequence of settlement is to end litigation.<sup>119</sup>

"This rule is intended to prevent a party who voluntarily pays a judgment from later changing his mind and seeking the court's aid in recovering payment." Id.".

Breazeale v. Casteel is the lead case that post-judgment intervention is timely when the intervenor does not seek to attack the substance of the final judgment.<sup>120</sup> In Breazeale, a judgment creditor filed a turnover motion against the judgment debtor after he obtained a judgment against an insurance company in an unrelated lawsuit.<sup>121</sup> Assignees of the debtor's interest in the judgment filed petitions to intervene in the creditor's lawsuit. Breazeale held that "intervention is not necessarily barred after the trial court has rendered final judgment where the intervenor does not attack the substance of the judgment itself, but merely seeks to protect his interest in property that is the subject of a turnover motion."<sup>122</sup>

By contrast, Paul Shell Company Appellants, all controlled by Paul, directly attack the receivership order, now affirmed, by claiming the receivership order violates due process, impermissibly permitting Receiver's recovery of fraudulently transferred funds from Paul shells. Faced with this Court's opinion upholding that order, no rule of jurisdiction permits Paul Shell Company Appellants to reenter by some back door post-settlement, post-judgment, post-remand, "plea in intervention" and challenge the merits of the receivership order again.

Great Value Storage, LLC, et al., v. Princeton Capital Corp., No. 01-23-00618-CV Receiver's Motion to Dismiss for Want of Jurisdiction

In In re Abira Med. Labs., LLC, the Fourteenth Court of Appeals explained, "Because the trial court did not have subject matter jurisdiction over the pleas in intervention, the orders . . are void."<sup>123</sup>

The Dallas Court of Appeals dismissed similar appeals by post-judgment "intervenors" without standing because Breazeale did not apply.<sup>124</sup>

The Dallas Court of Appeals reached the same result in Gore v. Peck: "Because appellant did not timely file his plea in intervention and the trial court did not set aside the judgment, he was not a party to the suit and does not have standing to pursue this appeal."<sup>125</sup>

Similar is the El Paso Court of Appeals holding in Attorney General v. Casner.<sup>126</sup>

The Paul Shell Company Appellants cannot seek coercive or declaratory relief against Receiver for return of funds.<sup>127</sup> Indeed, a declaratory judgment granting any of Bullock, 491 S.W.2d 659, 660 (Tex. 1973) (per curiam) (Because it was procedurally impossible for the trial court to award any of these intervenors any "suitable coercive relief," it would be "improper for the trial court to grant declaratory relief.").

the declarations they prayed for would be an unconstitutional advisory opinion because a suit seeking only a "naked declaration," unaccompanied by a request for any other injunctive or legal relief, "is clearly not within the jurisdiction of a Texas court sitting in equity."<sup>128</sup>

Succinctly, Paul Shell Company Appellants could obtain jurisdiction only if they were genuinely independent third-party entities, and this Court had: (1) reversed Princeton's judgment, or (2) reversed the receivership order. As this Court did neither, there is no jurisdiction to consider Paul Shell Company Appellants' intervention claims.

B. The Settlement Agreement bars Paul's Shell Company Appellants from asserting claims against Receiver which are derivative from Princeton's settled claims against Appellants.

Moreover, any such claims are derivative of Princeton's claims against Appellants WCCG and GVS, which have been settled and paid. A consequence of settlement is to end litigation. Judge Hall's receivership order served one purpose only: to enforce her final judgment requiring Appellants to pay Princeton. "Under receivership law generally, a receiver is an officer of the court, the medium through which the court acts."<sup>129</sup> Appellants seek an order nominally directed at Judge Hall's Receiver but substantively aimed at reversing the Court's opinion and rehearing denial in the Related Appeal. This is precisely why, September 22, 2022, this Court remanded for two—and only two unequivocal tasks: "We abate this appeal and remand this case to the trial court [1] to allow the parties to effectuate, if possible, the parties' settlement agreement and [2] to wind down the receivership, as necessary."<sup>130</sup> Paul Shell Company Appellants' "pleas in intervention" are designed to block those two tasks.<sup>131</sup> Nevertheless, the District Court's August 2, 2023 order accomplished these two objectives. There is no appellate jurisdiction for any action by Appellants other than to file their petition for review in the Related Appeal, which they have initiated.<sup>132</sup>

VII. FOURTH GROUND FOR DISMISSAL: THE COURT LACKS JURISDICTION OVER ANY CLAIMS BY PAUL SHELL COMPANY APPELLANTS WC 4th and Rio Grande, LP and WC 4th and Colorado, LP, seeking to invalidate Receiver's settlement agreements with secured creditors.

This ground for dismissal pertains to the notice of appeal filed by the remaining two empty Paul Shell Company Appellants called WC 4th and Rio Grande, LP and WC 4th and Colorado, LP. They are encompassed in the Settlement Agreement. The above arguments are incorporated.

These two shell companies owned by Paul also filed post-judgment, postsettlement, post-remand "pleas in intervention" in lower cause 2019-18855, launching collateral attacks on the District Court's receivership order and Receiver's duties.

What distinguishes claims of these two Paul Shell Company Appellants from the other eight is that, instead of seeking recovery of cash, these two entities seek to nullify two litigation settlement agreements Receiver executed two years ago with two secured creditors. Details appear in Receiver's Report.<sup>133</sup> These two Paul Shell Company Appellants largely cut and pasted arguments from their briefs presently before the Third, Eighth, and Fourteenth Courts of Appeals,<sup>134</sup> making precisely the same challenges against Receiver's duties and the now-affirmed receivership order.

Following the Parties' Settlement Agreement, and affirmation of the final judgment and receivership order in the Related Appeal, the doctrines of mootness and collateral attack<sup>135</sup> bar jurisdiction to any relief whatsoever to these Paul Shell Company Appellants.

Executed Settlement Term Sheet

Note to Court and Parties: To facilitate review, the August 22, 2022 Settlement Term Sheet is presented first, followed by the file-marked August 27, 2022 motion to which the Settlement Term Sheet was attached. The highlights of selected text are by Receiver. Following the motion, Receiver presents the September 20, 2022 Bankruptcy Court Order, containing the Parties' Settlement Agreement ("Amended and Restated Settlement, Assignment and Acceptance Agreement").

EXECUTION VERSION

Settlement Term Sheet between Debtors in In re GVS Texas Holdings I, LLC in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas -Dallas Division Case No. 21-31121-MVL (the "GVSH Case") and World Class Holdings I, LLC, (such parties collectively referred to as the "Great Value Parties"), on the one hand, and Princeton Capital Corporation ("Princeton"), on the other (the "Parties").

The Great Value Parties and Princeton will enter into a written settlement agreement (the "Settlement Agreement") consistent with, and including, the following terms:

- $11,372,698.89 (the "Settlement Amount") of GVSH funds currently held in reserve for Princeton in In re GVS Texas Holdings I, LLC in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas -Dallas Division Case No. 21-31121-MVL (the "Princeton Reserve") will be used to fund the settlement of the judgment in favor of Princeton in Princeton Capital Corporation vs Great Value Storage LLC, et al pending in the 165th District Court of Harris County, Texas, case no. 2019-18855 (the "Princeton Judgment"), subject to the satisfaction of all conditions below.<sup>1</sup>
- 2. This Agreement, the execution of which shall occur no later than 2 p.m. CDT, Monday, August 22, 2022, is conditioned upon the execution of the Settlement Agreement and the entry of an order (the "Order") by the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas (the "Bankruptcy Court") approving the Settlement Agreement.<sup>2</sup> The Parties agree to jointly seek approval on an expedited basis. If the bankruptcy court denies the requested relief, the Agreement will become void and of no effect.
- 3. The Order must authorize the release of the Settlement Amount from the Princeton Reserve and direct the title company holding the Princeton Reserve to release such funds upon entry of the Order. After entry of the Order, the Settlement Amount shall be immediately released from the Princeton Reserve to Princeton in accordance with any instructions in the Order and any balance in the Princeton reserve shall be released to WCHI. As part of the Settlement Agreement, the Parties shall draft written escrow instructions (the "Escrow Instructions") addressed to the title company holding the Princeton Reserve indicating how the Settlement Amount shall be released. The Escrow Instructions shall be included in the Order.
- 4. Following the release of the Settlement Amount to Princeton in accordance with the Order, Princeton agrees to file a motion (the "Princeton Receiver Termination Motion") in Princeton Capital Corporation vs Great Value Storage LLC, et al pending in the 165th District Court of Harris County, Texas, case no. 2019-18855 (the "Princeton Lawsuit") seeking the immediate termination of the order appointing Seth Kretzer as Receiver (the

"Receivership Order"), and the receivership in accordance with Texas state law and a determination of the amounts to be paid to Seth Kretzer (the "Receiver"), if any, under the Receivership Order. Nothing herein or the Order shall prevent the World Class Entities, defined below, from opposing any payments to Kretzer. Princeton agrees to litigate such motion in good faith and on an expedited basis. Unless compelled to do so by the court, Princeton agrees it will make no statement regarding the amount of fees to be awarded. Further, for the avoidance of doubt, the failure of the court that appointed the Receiver to act quickly on the request to terminate the receivership shall not constitute a default under this Agreement.

- 5. Upon the execution of this Settlement Term Sheet, the Parties agree to file a motion in the GVSH Case (and any cases in which there is a pending claim for Princeton's judgment and for which notice of such request is provided by one of the Great Value Parties) seeking a temporary abatement of the adversary proceeding between them during the pendency of the bankruptcy court's review and approval of the Settlement Agreement.
- 6. Princeton agrees to have its counsel support motions by World Class Entities to temporarily abate all pending discovery in connection with the Receiver's claims in the bankruptcy cases of World Class Entities pending in the Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Texas and make a representation at the August 22, 2022 hearing before Judge Davis confirming that the Parties have executed a Settlement Term Sheet which is subject to the execution of a formal settlement agreement and the approval of the Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas, and the funding of the settlement, and that Princeton supports temporary abatement of the pending actions and discovery until the Closing of this settlement and the funding of the Settlement Amount to Princeton.
- 7. The Settlement Amount can only be funded upon delivery of the Order and Escrow Instructions jointly by Princeton and WCHI to the title company holding the Princeton Reserve, along with a certified copy of the Order approving the Settlement Agreement.
- 8. After the title company holding the Princeton Reserve has received the Order and Escrow Instructions from Princeton, the following will occur at closing ("Closing"):
  - a. Princeton will be paid the Settlement Amount from the Princeton Reserve.
  - b. The balance of the Princeton Reserve will be paid to WCHI.
  - c. Princeton will dismiss its adversary proceeding with prejudice and withdraw its claims in GVSH case and cease all further collection actions on those claims.
  - d. The mutual releases described in paragraph 10 will become effective.
- 9. After the Closing and Princeton's receipt of the Settlement Amount, Princeton will support the Judgment Debtors (World Class Capital Group LLC and Great Value Storage LLC), the Great Value Parties and any related or affiliated entities (collectively the "World Class Entities") in their efforts to abate all actions by the Receiver, including all discovery in all actions, to obtain the withdrawal of all the Receiver's proofs of claims, to compel the Receiver to cease exercising authority over all World Class Entities, to stop or reverse the Receiver's dismissals of lawsuits on behalf of World Class Entities and to compel the Receiver to return properties and money taken or transferred by the Receiver purportedly

in connection with the Receiver's collection of the Princeton Judgment. The term "support" as used in this paragraph shall be limited to jointly filing pleadings seeking such relief with the appropriate World Class Entities and attending hearings on such pleadings to announce its support of the relief sought. Princeton reserves all rights to review, revise, or reject any pleading to which its name will be attached as a movant. If the parties cannot agree on the form of a pleading, the World Class Entities are not entitled to invoke Princeton's name as a movant on such pleading.

- 10. The Settlement Agreement will include mutual releases between Princeton, its borrowers, Nate Paul, and all entities owned, affiliated, or managed by Nate Paul, including but not limited to all World Class Entities and all Great Value Entities, including those named as defendants in the Princeton adversary proceeding, but not the Receiver or his agents, attorneys, or representatives. However, such releases will only become effective when Princeton has received the Settlement Amount.
- 11. This Term Sheet reflects the entire agreement of the Parties and shall be effectuated subject to Bankruptcy Court approval of the Settlement Agreement.

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. For nearly a decade, the Defendants have disputed whether Princeton is entitled to a pecuniary recovery against certain entities indirectly owned by Natin Paul. Although Princeton is confident that it will prevail, the Parties have agreed that the time has come to settle the various claims and grant one another mutual releases. The Settlement Agreement is a testament to the Parties' determination and discipline to put aside their differences and negotiate a mutually agreeable settlement.

2. The Settlement Agreement is a clear success for the Defendants and WCH because it reflects the resolution of one of the last remaining disputes before this Court related to these chapter 11 cases, while also permitting Princeton to obtain a recovery without the need for any further litigation. Not only does the Settlement Agreement result in the direct resolution of the Adversary Proceeding, but it also provides finality with respect to Princeton's proofs of claim filed in these cases against the Reorganized Debtors, while also providing a significant recovery to the Reorganized Debtors and equity holder.

3. As detailed herein, the settlement provides that Princeton will be paid $11,372,698.89 from the Princeton Reserve (the "Settlement Amount") in exchange for a full mutual release of the settling Defendants, including the Reorganized Debtors and WCH. In reaching this Settlement Agreement, the Parties, after good faith and hard-fought negotiations, agreed to terms that will obviate the need for the Reorganized Debtors, the Parties, and this Court to expend any further time and resources on the Adversary Proceeding, and provide finality to contentious and prolonged litigation. Indeed, this resolution brings these cases to the brink of conclusion and removes one of the last obstacles to obtaining a final decree.

4. As a result, Princeton asserts that the consideration for the settlement is fair, reasonable, and certainly falls above the lowest point in the range of reasonableness. Thus, given the benefit to all parties and the interest of all stakeholders involved, the Settlement Agreement should be approved. That said, as explained more fully in the Request to Expedite Consideration (the "Request") filed concurrently with this Emergency Motion, Princeton warns the Court that the Defendants do not support the current form of the Emergency Motion. Together, the Parties worked hard-and continue to work hard-to resolve the issues between the Parties and reduce to writing a final Settlement Agreement in keeping with the Settlement Term Sheet executed by the Parties. However, the Defendants are refusing to join the filing of this Emergency Motion because a final Settlement Agreement has not yet been reached even though a binding Settlement Term Sheet has been executed. Because such resolution has not been reached, and because Princeton believes time is of the essence to set this matter before the Court by September 2, 2022 (the date mutually contemplated by the Parties), Princeton now files the Emergency Motion with the expectation that the final Settlement Agreement will be filed early next week, along with a final motion signed by the Reorganized Debtors. In the meantime, as described in the Request, Princeton asks that this Court set this matter, along with Reorganized Debtors' forthcoming motion, for hearing on September 2, 2022.

Resolution by and between World Class Holdings I, LLC, Princeton Capital Corporation, and the Reorganized Debtors Regarding Motion to Consolidate Princeton Claims and Related Objections into Adversary Proceeding [Docket No. 1090], which, inter alia, consolidated the Princeton Proofs of Claim and Claim Objections into the Adversary Proceeding.

IV. Settlement Term Sheet

14. Over the last several weeks, WCH and Princeton have engaged in good faith, and, ultimately, successful settlement discussions, which culminated in the execution of that certain Settlement Term Sheet on August 22, 2022 (the "Settlement Term Sheet"), attached as Exhibit 1 to the Proposed Order. The Settlement Term Sheet is binding and requires, inter alia, that the Parties (a) execute the Settlement Agreement, which reflects the terms in the Settlement Term Sheet, and (b) file this Emergency Motion requesting that the Court approve the Proposed Order, i.e., the Settlement Agreement and Escrow Instructions. The form of the Escrow Instructions has largely been agreed to by the Parties and is attached as Exhibit 2 to the Proposed Order. The Parties continue to work in good faith to negotiate the Settlement Agreement and will submit it to the Court as soon as practicable.

V. The Settlement Agreement

15. Princeton believes that the Parties will soon enter into the Settlement Agreement, which will resolve all pending disputes between the Parties, including the Adversary Proceeding. The Parties will provide the final form of the Settlement Agreement to the Court as soon as practicable. In the meantime, the Parties have agreed to abate all hearings and deadlines in the Settlement Amount	$11,372,698.89 of the $15,000,000 of the Princeton Reserve currently held by the Title Company in the Bankruptcy Cases will be used to fund the settlement of the Judgment, subject to the satisfaction of all other conditions in the Settlement Agreement. The payment of the Settlement Amount shall be paid in cash from the Princeton Reserve. The Parties have agreed to attempt to negotiate a Note Purchase Agreement whereby WCH, the Reorganized Debtors, or an affiliate or designee thereof, shall acquire the Promissory Notes and Judgment for the Settlement Amount pursuant to a mutually agreeable Note Purchase Agreement, including full indemnities. However, the failure to reach agreement on the terms of a Note Purchase Agreement will not prevent this transaction from closing.

Expedited Basis	The Defendants shall seek approval of the Settlement Agreement on an expedited basis. If the bankruptcy court denies the requested relief, the Settlement Agreement will become void and of no effect.
Escrow Instructions	The Proposed Order must authorize the release of the Settlement Amount from the Princeton Reserve and direct the Title Company holding the Princeton Reserve to release such funds upon entry of the Proposed Order. After entry of the Proposed Order, the Settlement Amount shall be immediately released from the Princeton Reserve to Princeton in accordance with any instructions in the Proposed Order and any balance in the Princeton Reserve, shall be released to the Reorganized Debtors. As part of the Settlement Agreement, the Parties shall draft the Escrow Instructions addressed to the Title Company holding the Princeton Reserve indicating how the Settlement Amount shall be released.

Princeton Receiver Termination Motion in Texas District Court, Related Assistance Against Receiver	Following the release of the Settlement Amount to Princeton in accordance with the Proposed Order, Princeton agrees to file a motion (the "Princeton Receiver Termination Motion ") in Princeton Capital Corporation vs Great Value Storage LLC, et al pending in the 165th District Court of Harris County, Texas, Case No. 2019-18855 (the "Princeton Lawsuit ") seeking (1) immediate termination of the order appointing the Receiver (the " Receivership Order "), and also the receivership, in accordance with Texas state law, and (2) a determination of the amounts to be paid the Receiver, if any, under the Receivership Order. Nothing in the Settlement Agreement or the Proposed Order shall prevent the World Class Entities, as defined in the Settlement Term Sheet, from opposing any payments to the Receiver. Princeton agrees to litigate the Princeton Receiver Termination Motion in good faith and on an expedited basis. Unless compelled to do so by the Texas District Court presiding over the Receivership, Princeton agrees it will make no statement regarding the amount of fees to be awarded.
Stipulation to Abate Adversary Proceeding Hearings and Deadlines	Upon the execution of the Settlement Term Sheet, the Parties agree to file a motion in the Bankruptcy Cases seeking a temporary abatement of the Adversary Proceeding during the pendency of this Court's review and approval of the Settlement Agreement.
Support for Abatement of Receiver Discovery Requests	Princeton agrees to have its counsel support motions by the World Class Entities, as defined in the Settlement Term Sheet, to temporarily abate all pending discovery in connection with the Receiver's claims in the bankruptcy cases of World Class Entities pending in the Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Texas.
Title Company Disbursement Requirements	The Settlement Amount can only be funded upon delivery of the entered Proposed Order and Escrow Instructions drafted by Princeton and WCH to the Title Company holding the Princeton Reserve, along with a certified copy of the executed Proposed Order approving the Settlement Agreement.
Effect of Closing	After the Title Company holding the Princeton Reserve has received the entered Proposed Order and Escrow Instructions from Princeton, the following will occur at closing (" Closing "):

	<ul> <li>a. Princeton will be paid the Settlement Amount from the Princeton Reserve.</li> <li>b. The balance of the Princeton Reserve will be paid to the Reorganized Debtors.</li> <li>c. Princeton will dismiss the Adversary Proceeding with prejudice and withdraw its proofs of claim in the Bankruptcy Cases and cease all further collection actions on those claims.</li> <li>d. The mutual releases in the Settlement Agreement will become effective.</li> </ul>
Princeton Post-Closing/Post- Payment Support	After the Closing and Princeton's receipt of the Settlement Amount, Princeton will support the World Class Entities, as defined in the Settlement Term Sheet, in their efforts to abate all actions by the Receiver, including all discovery in all actions, to obtain the withdrawal of all the Receiver's proofs of claims, to compel the Receiver to cease exercising authority over all World Class Entities, to stop or reverse the Receiver's dismissals of lawsuits on behalf of World Class Entities and to compel the Receiver to return properties and money taken or transferred by the Receiver purportedly in connection with the Receiver's collection of the Judgment. The term "support" as used in this paragraph shall be limited to jointly filing pleadings seeking such relief with the appropriate World Class Entities and attending hearings on such pleadings to announce its support of the relief sought. Princeton reserves all rights to review, revise, or reject any pleading to which its name will be attached as a movant. If the Parties cannot agree on the form of a pleading, the World Class Entities are not entitled to invoke Princeton's name as a movant on such pleading.
Mutual Releases	The Settlement Agreement includes customary mutual releases between Princeton, its borrowers, Natin Paul, and all entities owned, affiliated, or managed by Natin Paul, including but not limited to all World Class Entities and all Great Value Entities, as those terms are defined in the Settlement Term Sheet, including those named as defendants in the Adversary Proceeding, but not the Receiver or his agents, attorneys, or representatives. However, such releases will only become effective when Princeton has received the Settlement Amount.

RELIEF REQUESTED

16. By this Emergency Motion, Princeton respectfully requests entry of the Proposed Order approving the Settlement Agreement pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and the related Escrow Instructions to the Title Company, and thereafter, once Princeton has been paid the Settlement Amount, for the Court to enter the Order of Dismissal.

BASIS FOR RELIEF

17. Through this Emergency Motion, Princeton requests this Court's approval of the Settlement Agreement which will be filed with the Court. The Settlement Agreement evidences a business deal among the Parties, ending multiple contentious and expensive litigation proceedings, including the Adversary Proceeding, which all carry substantial business risk. The Settlement Agreement will contemplate the resolution of all disputes among the Parties, thereby ending years' long disputes among Princeton and various of the Defendants.

18. Bankruptcy Rule 9019 authorizes bankruptcy courts to approve compromises and settlements. Ultimately, a compromise must be "fair, equitable, and in the best interest of the estate."<sup>6</sup> The decision to approve a compromise lies within the sound discretion of the bankruptcy court.<sup>7</sup> The Fifth Circuit has recognized that compromises are a "normal part of the process of reorganization . . . oftentimes desirable and wise methods of bringing to a close proceedings otherwise lengthy, complicated, and costly."<sup>8</sup>

19. In determining the reasonableness of a settlement, courts in the Fifth Circuit consider the following three factors: (a) "[t]he probability of success in [litigating the claim subject to settlement,] with due consideration for the uncertainty in fact and law; (b) [t]he complexity and likely duration of litigation and any attendant expense, inconvenience, and delay; and (c) [a]ll other factors bearing on the wisdom of the compromise."<sup>9</sup>

20. Factors "bearing on the wisdom of the compromise" include: (a) the paramount interest of creditors, with proper deference to their reasonable views; and (b) the extent to which the settlement is truly the product of arms-length bargaining, and not of fraud or collusion.<sup>10</sup>

21. Princeton bears the burden of establishing that the balance of the above factors leads to a fair and equitable compromise vis-à-vis the Settlement Agreement.<sup>11</sup> "The burden is not high"; rather, Princeton "need only show that [their] decision falls within the 'range of reasonable litigation alternatives."<sup>12</sup>

22. Weighing the foregoing factors overwhelmingly demonstrates that the Settlement Agreement is reasonable and supports finding that the Parties' entry into and performance under the Settlement Agreement is in the best interests of creditors and other stakeholders. Accordingly, this Court should grant the Emergency Motion, and authorize the Parties to enter into and perform under the Settlement Agreement.

A. Probability of Success

23. In examining the probability of success in the litigation being compromised, courts look to the legal and evidentiary obstacles to litigating each claim.<sup>13</sup> The probability of success is measured against the "definitive, concrete and immediate benefit" that a settlement provides against the uncertainty and delay of litigation.<sup>14</sup> In deciding the probability of success in the litigation, the court is not required to conduct a "mini-trial" and decide the merits of the litigation, but rather to assess whether the settlement is within the range of reasonableness.<sup>15</sup>

24. In negotiating and considering the merits of the Settlement Agreement, the Parties considered all material disputes between Princeton and various Defendants in both the Adversary Proceeding and Texas District Court. If the Parties are permitted to prosecute their causes of action in the Adversary Proceeding, the Parties will incur significant expense to complete extensive discovery, retain expert witnesses, and prepare for a potentially long and contentious trial. And, while the Parties are confident in their positions, there is no certainty in the outcome.

25. Finally, any litigation has a high likelihood of appeal considering the amount-incontroversy at stake and issues involved, which would only further delay the Parties' ability to obtain relief. By entering into the Settlement Agreement, the Parties avoid the risk of not prevailing on their claims in the Adversary Proceeding, as well as potentially significant legal expenses.

B. Complexity of Litigation Involved and the Attendant Expense, Inconvenience, and Delay

26. As explained above, the Parties' likelihood of success in connection with the Adversary Proceeding is uncertain due to the complexity of the myriad factual and legal issues involved in both proceedings, which have been previewed in the Complaint, the Non-Debtor Defendants' motion to dismiss the Complaint, and Princeton's response to that motion. For example, the Complaint lists five different types of allegedly fraudulent transfers that purportedly occurred over the course of nearly a decade. Unraveling the allegations will be an expensive, lengthy, and document-intensive process. The contemplated Settlement Agreement avoids such attendant expense and delay.

27. Indeed, in the absence of settlement, continued litigation of the Adversary Proceeding will take years to reach a final resolution, after accounting for the time necessary to reach decisions on the merits and to work through any challenge or appellate processes. Such delay will subject the Parties to the economic overhang of these disputes and hinder the final resolution of these cases while generating significant legal expenses and continue the uncertainty regarding whether Princeton will recover its Judgment from the Defendants. This sort of delay and uncertainty is unnecessary given the favorable settlement. For these reasons, the cost of the Settlement Agreement to each Party, especially the Defendants, is far outweighed by the benefit realized by ending this continuing contentious and expensive litigation and gaining certainty regarding the Defendants' exposure to Princeton.

C. Other Factors Bearing on the Benefits of the Compromise

(1) Interests of the Creditors

28. The terms of the Settlement Agreement are fair, reasonable, and in the best interests of creditors and other stakeholders. The creditors that have unresolved claims in the Bankruptcy Cases are Princeton and the Receiver.<sup>16</sup> Through the Settlement Agreement, only the Receiver will remain. The Title Company is holding $3.5 million, plus an additional $822,000.00 of funds related to the Receiver's proofs of claim and administrative expense claim, in an escrow account pending the resolution of the Receiver's adversary proceeding, administrative expense claim, and/or proofs of claim. As a result, the Receiver is adequately insulated from any outcome related to how the Princeton Reserve is disbursed.

29. With respect to the other stakeholders, the Defendants and WCH, the Settlement Agreement provides immediate certainty with respect to the outcome of contentious and expensive litigation. The Settlement Agreement also permits the Defendants and WCH to reallocate the resources they were dedicating to the Adversary Proceeding toward the Receiver's adversary proceeding and concluding these chapter 11 cases. At bottom, this resolution inures to the benefit of all parties and stakeholders.

(2) Arms-Length Bargaining

30. The Settlement Agreement is the product of extensive negotiations between the Defendants, WCH, and Princeton. Each of the Parties has been represented by experienced professionals throughout the Settlement Agreement negotiations and has acted in its own economic self-interest.<sup>17</sup> Consequently, this factor also weighs in favor of approving the Settlement Agreement.

PRAYER

31. For the foregoing reasons, Princeton respectfully requests this Court enter the Proposed Order attached hereto as Exhibit A approving the Settlement Agreement and Escrow Instructions, subject to providing this Court with a copy of the definitive signed Settlement Agreement once the parties sign and upload it. Once the Settlement Amount has been disbursed from the Princeton Reserve to Princeton, Princeton further requests that this Court enter the Order of Dismissal attached hereto as Exhibit B. Finally, Princeton requests that this Court grant

32. Princeton reserves the right to supplement or modify this Emergency Motion and to request additional relief or assert such further arguments as are, or may later become, available or apparent. Further, Princeton will continue to negotiate the terms of the final Settlement Agreement, at which point such agreement will be provided to the Court and all properties in interest.

and taken into account the paramount interest of alleged creditors and, based on all of the foregoing, the Court has determined that the relief requested in the Emergency Motion is fair and equitable, in the best interests of the Parties, and should be approved in all respects; (6) finding that (a) in the absence of the Settlement Agreement, the Defendants face considerable litigation expense, risk, and delay, (b) the disputes between the Settling Parties involve numerous legal and factual issues, and judicial resolution of these disputes will require additional, extensive and costly briefing and discovery, (c) even if the Defendants were successful in litigating against any claims, a judgment obtained may be subject to appeal with no guarantee as to the ultimate outcome, (d) there is no doubt that the Settling Parties' combined legal expenditures during a protracted litigation process would be substantial and further forestall any disbursement of the Princeton Reserve to any of the parties to the Adversary Proceeding, and (e) the Settlement Agreement resolves the Parties' disputes now without the need for additional costly, uncertain litigation; and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor; and having issued an oral bench ruling on the record on September 16, 2022, which is incorporated herein for all purposes,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

- 1. The Emergency Motion is hereby GRANTED as set forth herein.
- 2. The Settlement Agreement is approved as set forth herein.

The remainder of the Princeton Reserve, in the amount of $1 million, shall be distributed in accordance with those certain instructions annexed as Exhibit A<sup>5</sup> to the Settlement Agreement (the "Indemnity Security Escrow Release Instructions"). For the avoidance of any doubt, this Order shall be deemed a final order for purposes of paragraph 5(b) of the Reinstatement Order.

The Escrow Instructions attached hereto as Exhibit 2 are approved by this Court, 4. and the Title Company shall comply with this Order and the Escrow Instructions no later than one (1) business day after receipt of the Escrow Instructions sent to the Title Company by counsel for Princeton. The Escrow Instructions shall be signed digitally by Judith W. Ross, counsel for Princeton. The electronically delivered Escrow Instructions shall be signed digitally on behalf of the Defendants. The electronically delivered Escrow Instructions shall be substantially identical to the Escrow Instructions attached to this Order as Exhibit 2. The electronically delivered Escrow Instructions shall include copies of this Order and the Reinstatement Order, entered in the chapter 11 cases, both attached to the Escrow Instructions. If any of the requirements of this Paragraph 4 are not fully satisfied, then the Title Company is directed by this Court to disburse no funds from the Princeton Reserve; provided, however, that the Indemnity Security Escrow Release Instructions shall not be subject to this Paragraph 4. In the event that all requirements of this Paragraph 4 are fully satisfied, then immediately upon receipt of the Escrow Instructions, the Title Company shall notify counsel for Princeton, the Defendants and the Receiver via email (at email addresses included in the Escrow Instructions) that the Title Company received the Escrow Instructions in compliance with this Paragraph 4, and counsel for Princeton and Defendants shall then immediately provide the Title Company with their respective wire instructions via email in accordance with the Escrow Instructions.

Notwithstanding anything in the Reinstatement Order to the contrary, it is hereby ordered that Mr. Natin Paul, any family member of Mr. Natin Paul, any affiliate of Mr. Natin Paul, and any person acting at Mr. Natin Paul's direction, shall not seek removal of or to remove from the Title Company the Remaining Reserves (as defined in the Reinstatement Order) (exclusive of the Princeton Reserve that is to be released pursuant to the term of this Order) until further Order of this Court.

6. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Receiver consents to this Paragraph 6 (which such consent shall be memorialized by filing a notice of consent on the docket in the above-captioned chapter 11 cases at any time), the funds reserved for the Receiver Claims may be disbursed upon (1) the filing in this Court of a final, non-appealable order of the Texas state district court in the Princeton Capital Corporation vs Great Value Storage LLC, et. al. pending in the 165th District Court of Harris County, Texas, case no. 2019-18855 (the "Princeton Lawsuit") awarding the Receiver fees and expenses pursuant to the Order Appointing Receiver in the Princeton Lawsuit (the "Receiver Award") and (2) a subsequent final, non-appealable Order of this Court directing the Title Company to disburse funds in the amount of the Receiver Award to the Receiver less any amounts that the Receiver has collected that the state court approves the Receiver to apply to his total fees and expenses in connection with the Princeton Lawsuit. The Reinstatement Order shall remain in full force and affect except as modified herein.

7. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Settlement Agreement, WCCG and GVS shall not be parties to the Settlement Agreement for all purposes, including the release provisions set forth in Paragraphs 6 and 7 thereof. For the avoidance of any doubt, this Paragraph 7 shall not affect or otherwise modify the indemnification provisions as set forth in the Settlement Agreement and Princeton shall be indemnified under the Settlement Agreement if they are sued

To the extent any entity lacks the authority to give a release due to the fact that it is in receivership, in bankruptcy or for any other reason, all parties' rights are reserved in any subsequent enforcement litigation to argue same.

Such litigation shall not be stayed or modified in any way by virtue of this Order unless and until such receivership is terminated or modified by a court of competent jurisdiction or the parties otherwise agree to stay any such litigation. This Order does not act to terminate or modify the Receiver's rights and duties under the Receivership Order. Each Party hereby agrees not to raise any objections to the availability of specific performance to prevent breaches or threatened breaches of, or to enforce compliance with, the covenants and obligations under this Agreement. Each Party hereby waives (i) any defenses in any action for specific performance, including the defense that a remedy at law would be adequate and (ii) any requirement under any law to post a bond or other security as a prerequisite to obtaining equitable relief.

d. All payments made hereunder shall be made without any set-off or counterclaim.

escrow instructions letter<sup>4</sup> (the "Escrow Instructions") drafted jointly by the Parties directing Fidelity National Title Insurance Company (the "Title Company") to disburse the $15 million being held in Account No. ******1018 by the Title Company (the "Princeton Reserve"), as more fully set forth in the Escrow Instructions; and (2) another order substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (the "Order of Dismissal"), dismissing the Adversary Proceeding after entry of the Proposed Order. Princeton supports the relief sought by this Emergency Motion in all respects. In support of the Emergency Motion, the Defendants respectfully state as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. For years, Princeton and the Defendants have disputed whether Princeton is entitled to a pecuniary recovery against certain entities party to the NPA (as defined herein), spawning litigation in several courts including before this Court. Although each party is confident that its position will prevail, the Parties have agreed that the time has come to settle the various claims and grant one another mutual releases. The Settlement Agreement is a testament to the Parties' determination and discipline to put aside their differences and negotiate a mutually agreeable settlement.

2. The Settlement Agreement is a clear success for the Reorganized Debtors, Princeton, the Defendants, and WCH because it reflects the resolution of one of the last remaining disputes before this Court related to these chapter 11 cases while permitting Princeton to obtain a recovery without the need for further extensive and expensive litigation. Not only does the Settlement Agreement result in the resolution of the Adversary Proceeding, but also provides finality with respect to Princeton's proofs of claim filed in these cases while providing a significant recovery to the Reorganized Debtors and equity holder in time for its 1031 exchange deadline on September 19, 2022.

3. As detailed herein, the settlement provides that Princeton will be paid $11,372,698.89 from the Princeton Reserve (the "Settlement Amount") in exchange for a full mutual release of the settling Defendants, including the Reorganized Debtors and WCH. The Settlement Agreement facilitates the purchase of the Promissory Notes and payment to Princeton, which will provide Princeton with a clean break from all litigation and liabilities related to and associated with the Defendants and their related entities. And, the Settlement Agreement will bring finality to this dispute and Princeton's involvement with these chapter 11 cases. In reaching this Settlement Agreement, the Parties, after good faith and hard-fought negotiations, agreed to terms that will obviate the need for the Reorganized Debtors, the Parties, and this Court to expend any further time and resources, and provide finality to contentious and prolonged litigation. Indeed, this resolution brings these cases to the brink of conclusion and removes one of the last obstacles to obtaining a final decree.

4. As a result, the Defendants assert that the consideration for the settlement is fair, reasonable, and certainly falls above the lowest point in the range of reasonableness. Thus, given the benefit to all parties and the interest of all stakeholders involved, the Settlement Agreement should be approved.

III. Adversary Proceeding

14. On April 27, 2022, Princeton filed an eight-count Complaint [AP Docket No. 1]

commencing the Adversary Proceeding.

15. On May 18, 2022, the Court entered the Stipulation and Order Regarding Resolution by and between World Class Holdings I, LLC, Princeton Capital Corporation, and the Reorganized Debtors Regarding Motion to Consolidate Princeton Claims and Related Objections into Adversary Proceeding [Docket No. 1090], which, inter alia, consolidated the Princeton Proofs of Claim and Claim Objections into the Adversary Proceeding.

IV. The Settlement Agreement

17. Over the last several weeks, the Reorganized Debtors, Defendants, and Princeton have engaged in good faith, and, ultimately, successful settlement discussions, which culminated in the execution of the Settlement Agreement, which requires the Defendants to file this Emergency Motion requesting that the Court approve the Proposed Order, i.e., the Settlement Agreement and Escrow Instructions. The Parties entered into the Settlement Agreement on September 2, 2022, which resolves all pending disputes among the Parties, including the Adversary Proceeding. The material terms of the Settlement Agreement are set forth below.<sup>5</sup>

The Indemnification Obligation shall be secured by $1 million dollars of the funds retained in the Princeton Reserve after payment of the Settlement Amount to Princeton, as contemplated by the Settlement Agreement (the "Indemnification Security"). <sup>6</sup> The Indemnification Security shall be held by the Title Company and shall be disbursed either (i) upon submission thereto of joint written instructions executed by Princeton and the Great Value Parties, a form of which is attached to the Settlement Agreement as Exhibit A or (ii) submission to the Title Company of a final, non-appealable order of the Bankruptcy Court authorizing and directing payment of all or portions of the Indemnification Obligation. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in section 1.e of the Settlement Agreement, the Indemnification Obligation shall not be applicable or enforceable against the Assignee or any Great Value Party to the extent any of the Indemnification Obligation is incurred as a result of the consent, acquiescence or other affirmative action of the Assignor. 	Princeton, and each of its officers, directors, owners, members, managers, shareholders, subsidiaries, investment funds employees, insurers, and each of their successors, predecessors, beneficiaries, assigns, agents, attorneys, accountants, advisors, and representatives (the "Princeton Released Parties ") from any and all claims, actions, causes of action, suits, debts, dues, sums of money, accounts, controversies, agreements, promises, damages, judgments, executions, and demands whatsoever, in law or equity, whether known or unknown, liquidated or unliquidated, which the World Class Released Parties ever had, now have or hereafter can, shall or may have against any of the Princeton Released Parties for any matter, cause, thing, or reason whatsoever as of the Effective Date, including but not limited to, for or arising out of, or related to, the Bankruptey Cases, the State Action, the State Claims, the Judgment, the Adversary Proceeding, the AP Claims, the Princeton Proofs of Claims, the Claim Objections, and other actual or potential claims that were or could have been asserted in the State Action, Adversary Proceeding, or the Princeton Proofs of Claim; provided, however, the foregoing release shall not (i) apply to any claim or cause of action against any third-party, including the Receiver (excluding the Princeton Released Parties) seeking damages or the return or recovery of monies, properties or assets otherwise taken, seized, transferred, conveyed or otherwise removed from such party's possession or control in connection with the efforts of any party to collect the Judgment on behalf of Princeton or (ii) result in the dismissal of any pending action or appeal of any action in which Princeton is a named party related to the Judgment (the " Appeal Actions "); provided, further, however, the World Class Release Parties shall not and shall be prohibited and enjoined from seeking any recovery (monetary or otherwise) from Princeton in connection with an Appeal Action.
Release by Princeton	Effective upon the Payment Date, except as provided in Paragraph 8 of the Settlement Agreement, Princeton on behalf of itself and on behalf of each of the Princeton Released Parties, each hereby forever release and discharge Natin Paul, on behalf of himself as well as any persons he controls and any entities that he either owns or controls (in whole or in part), the Great Value Parties, WCCG, GVS, the State Defendants, the Adversary Defendants and their respective officers, directors, members, managers, employees, insurers, advisory board members, and each of their successors, predecessors, beneficiaries, assigns, agents, attorneys, accountants, advisors, and representatives (collectively, the " World Class Released Parties ") from any and all claims, actions, causes of action, suits, debts, dues, sums of money, accounts, controversies, agreements, promises, damages, judgments, executions, and demands whatsoever, in law or equity, whether known or unknown, liquidated or unliquidated, which the Princeton Released Parties ever had, now have or hereafter can, shall or may have against any of the World Class Released Parties for any matter, cause, thing, or reason whatsoever as of the Effective Date, including but not limited to, for or arising out of, or related to, the Bankruptcy Cases, the State Action, the State Claims, the Judgment, the Adversary Proceeding, the AP Claims, the Princeton Proofs of Claims, the Claim Objections, and other actual or potential claims that were or could have been asserted in the State Action, Adversary Proceeding, or the Princeton Proofs of Claim save and except for the Indemnification Obligation.

Exceptions to Releases	Notwithstanding any language to the contrary in sections 6 and 7 of the Settlement Agreement, or any other provision of the Settlement Agreement, the Parties agree and acknowledge that the Settlement Agreement and the releases provided therein do not release or waive: (a) any obligation of a Party arising under or created by the Settlement Agreement; (b) the Indemnification Obligation; or (c) any present or future claim, appeal or litigation by the Great Value Parties against the Receiver or its agents, attorney, or representatives.
Fees and Costs	Each Party and Assignment Party shall bear its own fees and costs in connection with the Adversary Proceeding, the Settlement Motion and the Settlement Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt there shall be no other cost and expenses due to Princeton whatsoever other than the Settlement Amount, except any amounts that may be due under the Indemnification Obligation.
Time is of the Essence	Time is of the essence for all dates and/or time described in the Settlement Agreement.
Remedies	The Parties agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event of a breach of any provision of the Settlement Agreement that would result in the failure of the Effective Date and Payment Date to occur and that money damages or other legal remedies would not be an adequate remedy for any such damages. Accordingly, the Parties acknowledge and agree that in the event of any breach or threatened breach of the covenants, agreements and obligations set forth in the Settlement Agreement, each Party shall be entitled to any injunction or injunctions to prevent or restrain breaches or threatened breaches of the Settlement Agreement, and to specifically enforce the terms and provisions of the Settlement Agreement to prevent breaches or threatened breaches of, or to enforce compliance with, the covenants and obligations under the Settlement Agreement (including those conditions precedent set forth in section 4 thereof), in addition to any other remedy to which such party is entitled at law or in equity. Each Party hereby agrees not to raise any objections to the availability of specific performance to prevent breaches or threatened breaches of, or to enforce compliance with, the covenants and obligations under the Settlement Agreement. Each Party hereby waives (i) any defenses in any action for specific performance, including the defense that a remedy at law would be adequate and (ii) any requirement under any law to post a bond or other security as a prerequisite to obtaining equitable relief.

Settlement Term Sheet	No failure or delay by any party to the Settlement Agreement in exercising any right, power, or privilege thereunder or under that settlement term sheet dated August 22, 2022 (the " Settlement Term Sheet ") shall operate as a waiver thereof, with all such rights, powers or privileges being expressly preserved, and any waiver of any breach of the provisions of the Settlement Agreement shall be without prejudice to any rights with respect to any other or further breach thereof or under the Settlement Term Sheet, which shall remain in force and effect.

RELIEF REQUESTED

18. By this Emergency Motion, the Defendants respectfully request entry of the Proposed Order approving the Settlement Agreement pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and the related Escrow Instructions to the Title Company, and thereafter for the Court to enter the Order

BASIS FOR RELIEF

19. Through this Emergency Motion, the Defendants request this Court's approval of the Settlement Agreement. The Settlement Agreement evidences a business deal among the Parties, ending multiple contentious and expensive litigation proceedings, including the Adversary Proceeding, which all carry substantial business risk. The Settlement Agreement contemplates the resolution of all disputes among the Parties, thereby ending years' long disputes among Princeton and various Defendants.

20. Bankruptcy Rule 9019 authorizes bankruptcy courts to approve compromises and settlements. Ultimately, a compromise must be "fair, equitable, and in the best interest of the estate."<sup>8</sup> The decision to approve a compromise lies within the sound discretion of the bankruptcy court.<sup>9</sup> The Fifth Circuit has recognized that compromises are a "normal part of the process of reorganization . . . oftentimes desirable and wise methods of bringing to a close proceedings otherwise lengthy, complicated, and costly."<sup>10</sup>

21. In determining the reasonableness of a settlement, courts in the Fifth Circuit consider the following three factors: (a) "[t]he probability of success in [litigating the claim subject to settlement,] with due consideration for the uncertainty in fact and law; (b) [t]he complexity and likely duration of litigation and any attendant expense, inconvenience, and delay; and (c) [a]ll other factors bearing on the wisdom of the compromise."<sup>11</sup>

22. Factors "bearing on the wisdom of the compromise" include: (a) the paramount interest of creditors, with proper deference to their reasonable views; and (b) the extent to which the settlement is truly the product of arms-length bargaining, and not of fraud or collusion.<sup>12</sup>

23. The Defendants bear the burden of establishing that the balance of the above factors leads to a fair and equitable compromise vis-à-vis the Settlement Agreement.<sup>13</sup> "The burden is not high"; rather, the Defendants "need only show that [their] decision falls within the 'range of reasonable litigation alternatives."<sup>14</sup>

24. Weighing the foregoing factors overwhelmingly demonstrates that the Settlement Agreement is reasonable and supports finding that the Parties' entry into and performance under the Settlement Agreement is in the best interests of creditors and other stakeholders. Accordingly, this Court should grant the Emergency Motion, and authorize the Parties to enter into and perform under the Settlement Agreement.

A. Probability of Success

25. In examining the probability of success in the litigation being compromised, courts look to the legal and evidentiary obstacles to litigating each claim.<sup>15</sup> The probability of success is measured against the "definitive, concrete and immediate benefit" that a settlement provides against the uncertainty and delay of litigation.<sup>16</sup> In deciding the probability of success in the litigation, the court is not required to conduct a "mini-trial" and decide the merits of the litigation, but rather to assess whether the settlement is within the range of reasonableness.<sup>17</sup>

26. In negotiating and considering the merits of the Settlement Agreement, the Parties considered all material disputes between Princeton and various Defendants in both the Adversary Proceeding and Texas District Court. If the Parties are permitted to prosecute their causes of action in the Adversary Proceeding, the Parties will incur significant expense to complete extensive discovery, retain expert witnesses, and prepare for a potentially long and contentious trial. And, while the Parties are confident in their positions, there is no certainty in the outcome.

27. Finally, even when one of the Parties ultimately prevails on the merits of their claims, any litigation has a high likelihood of appeal considering the amount-in-controversy at stake and issues involved, which would only further delay the Parties' ability to obtain relief. By entering into the Settlement Agreement, the Parties avoid the risk of not prevailing on their claims in the Adversary Proceeding, as well as potentially significant legal expenses.

B. Complexity of Litigation Involved and the Attendant Expense, Inconvenience, and Delay

28. As explained above, the Parties' likelihood of success in connection with the Adversary Proceeding is uncertain due to the complexity of the myriad factual and legal issues involved in both proceedings, which have been previewed in the Complaint, the Non-Debtor Defendants' motion to dismiss the Complaint, and Princeton's response to that motion. For example, the Complaint lists five different types of allegedly fraudulent transfers that purportedly occurred over the course of nearly a decade. Unraveling the allegations will be an expensive, lengthy, and document-intensive process. The settlement avoids such attendant expense and delay.

Proceeding will take years to reach a final resolution, after accounting for the time necessary to reach decisions on the merits and to work through any challenge or appellate processes. Such delay will subject the Parties to the economic overhang of these disputes and hinder the final resolution of these cases while generating significant legal expenses, and continue the uncertainty regarding whether Princeton will recover its Judgment from the Defendants. This sort of delay and uncertainty is unnecessary given the favorable settlement. For these reasons, the cost of the Settlement Agreement to each Party, especially the Defendants, is far outweighed by the benefit realized by ending this continuing contentious and expensive litigation, and gaining certainty regarding the Defendants' exposure to Princeton.

(1) Interests of the Creditors

30. The terms of the Settlement Agreement are fair, reasonable, and in the best interests of creditors and other stakeholders. The only potential creditors that have unresolved claims in the Bankruptcy Cases are Princeton and Seth Kretzer, the receiver (the "Receiver") for Great Value Storage, LLC and World Class Capital Group LLC.<sup>18</sup> But, through the Settlement Agreement, only one alleged creditor will remain – the Receiver. The Title Company is holding $3.5 million, plus an additional $822,000.00 of funds related to the Receiver's proofs of claim and administrative expense claim, in an escrow account pending the resolution of the Receiver's adversary proceeding, administrative expense claim, and/or proofs of claim. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in the Settlement Agreement precludes or prevents the Receiver from seeking approval of his fees and expenses in the state court, which is the appropriate forum for the Receiver to seek approval of such fees and expenses. Indeed, as part of the resolution with Princeton, which will bring the receivership to a close, the Reorganized Debtors and WCH have agreed that should the Receiver agree to withdraw his proofs of claim and dismiss his adversary proceeding, the Reorganized Debtors and WCH agree that the funds being held by the Title Company on account of the Receiver's claims (i.e., the $3.5 million) shall be expanded to be made available to satisfy any fee award in favor of the Receiver that is not otherwise satisfied in the underlying state court case, when such fee is determined by a final, non-appealable order in the Texas District Court that appointed the Receiver.<sup>19</sup> As a result, the Receiver is adequately insulated from any outcome related to how the Princeton Reserve is disbursed. The Defendants and all applicable parties reserve all rights as to any fee application and approval from the state court forum, and the expansion of the availability of the reserve moots any need for the Receiver to continue pursuing fraudulent transfer claims in this Court and any other court.

31. With respect to the other stakeholders, the Defendants and WCH, the Settlement Agreement provides immediate certainty with respect to the outcome of contentious and expensive litigation. The Settlement Agreement also permits the Defendants and WCH to reallocate the resources they were dedicating to the Adversary Proceeding toward the Receiver's adversary proceeding and concluding these chapter 11 cases. At bottom, this resolution inures to the benefit of all parties and stakeholders.

(2) Arms-Length Bargaining

32. The Settlement Agreement is the product of extensive negotiations between the Defendants, WCH, and Princeton. Each of the Parties has been represented by experienced professionals throughout the Settlement Agreement negotiations and has acted in its own economic self-interest.<sup>20</sup> Consequently, this factor also weighs in favor of approving the Settlement Agreement.

33. Therefore, for the following reasons, the relief requested herein should be granted.

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

34. The Defendants reserve their right to supplement or modify this Emergency Motion and to request additional relief or assert such further arguments as are, or may later become, available or apparent.

NOTICE

8. Exceptions to Releases. Notwithstanding any language to the contrary in sections 6, and 7 hereof, or any other provision of this Agreement, the Parties agree and acknowledge that this Agreement and the releases provided herein does not release or waive: (a) any obligation of a Party arising under or created by this Agreement; (b) the Indemnification Obligation; or (c) any present or future claim, appeal or litigation by the Great Value Parties against the Receiver or its agents, attorney, or representatives.

9. Fees and Costs. Each Party and Assignment Party shall bear its own fees and costs in connection with the Adversary Proceeding, the Settlement Motion and this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt there shall be no other cost and expenses due to Princeton whatsoever other than the Settlement Amount, except any amounts that may be due under the Indemnification Obligation.

Consultation with Counsel. Each of the Parties has freely and voluntarily 10. entered into this Agreement after an adequate opportunity and sufficient period of time to review, analyze and discuss all terms and conditions of this Agreement and all factual and legal matters relevant hereto with its counsel. 13. Time is of the Essence. Time is of the essence for all dates and/or time described in this this Agreement.

14. Remedies. The Parties agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event of a breach of any provision of this Agreement that would result in the failure of the Effective Date and Payment Date to occur and that money damages or other legal remedies would not be an adequate remedy for any such damages. Accordingly, the Parties acknowledge and agree that in the event of any breach or threatened breach of the covenants, agreements and obligations set forth in this Agreement, each Party shall be entitled to any injunction or injunctions to prevent or restrain breaches or threatened breaches of this Agreement, and to specifically enforce the terms and provisions of this Agreement to prevent breaches or threatened breaches of, or to enforce compliance with, the covenants and obligations under this Agreement (including those conditions precedent set forth in section 4 hereof), in addition to any other remedy to which such party is entitled at law or in equity. Each Party hereby agrees not to raise any objections to the availability of specific performance to prevent breaches or threatened breaches of, or to enforce compliance with, the covenants and obligations under this Agreement. Each Party hereby waives (i) any defenses in any action for specific performance, including the defense that a remedy at law would be adequate and (ii) any requirement under any law to post a bond or other security as a prerequisite to obtaining equitable relief.

b. This Agreement is executed without reliance upon any statement or representation by any other Party or other Party's attorneys or representatives concerning the nature and extent of any claims and/or damages or legal liability therefor.

c. No failure or delay by any party hereto in exercising any right, power, or privilege hereunder or under that settlement term sheet dated August 22, 2022 (the "Settlement Term Sheet") shall operate as a waiver thereof, with all such rights, powers or privileges being expressly preserved, and any waiver of any breach of the provisions of this Agreement shall be without prejudice to any rights with respect to any other or further breach thereof or under the Settlement Term Sheet, which shall remain in force and effect.

Upon consideration of the Emergency Motion Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 for Entry of an Order Approving a Settlement and Compromise Between Princeton Capital Corporation and the Reorganized Debtors (the "Emergency Motion")<sup>2</sup> requesting that the Court approve the Settlement Agreement<sup>3</sup> pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and the related Escrow Instructions<sup>4</sup> to the Title Company, the Court (1) having considered the Emergency Motion; (2) finding that (a) notice of the Emergency Motion was good and sufficient upon the particular circumstances and that no other or further notice need be given, (b) the Emergency Motion is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 157(b), (c) the Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334, and (d) venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; (3) finding that the Parties demonstrated both (a) good, sufficient, and sound business purposes and justifications for the Settlement Agreement and the transactions, compromises, and releases provided therein, and (b) compelling circumstances for approval of the Settlement Agreement pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019; (4) finding that the terms of the Settlement Agreement are fair and reasonable, falling above the lowest point in the range of reasonableness, and are in the best interests of the Parties and the Reorganized Debtors' stakeholders as a whole; (5) having weighed the probability of success in litigation, the complexity of the litigation involved, and the expense, inconvenience, and delay necessarily attending to it, and taken into account the paramount interest of alleged creditors and, based on all of the foregoing, the Court has determined that the relief requested in the Emergency Motion is fair and equitable, in the best interests of the Parties, and should be approved in all respects; (6) finding that (a) in the absence of the Settlement Agreement, the

Defendants face considerable litigation expense, risk, and delay, (b) the disputes between the Parties involve numerous legal and factual issues, and judicial resolution of these disputes will require additional, extensive and costly briefing and discovery, (c) even if the Defendants were successful in litigating against any claims, a judgment obtained may be subject to appeal with no guarantee as to the ultimate outcome, (d) there is no doubt that the Parties' combined legal expenditures during a protracted litigation process would be substantial and further forestall any disbursement of the Princeton Reserve to any of the Parties, and (e) the Settlement Agreement resolves the Parties' disputes now without the need for additional costly, uncertain litigation; and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

- 1. The Emergency Motion is hereby GRANTED.
- 2. The Settlement Agreement is approved in its entirety.

3. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Amended Order Granting World Class Holdings I, LLC's Motion to Confirm Reinstatement of Natin Paul as Sole Officer of the Reorganized Debtors [Docket No. 1377] (the "Reinstatement Order"), including, but not limited to, paragraph 5(b) thereof, on the Effective Date, the Title Company shall wire (a) the Settlement Amount of $11,372,698.89 from the Princeton Reserve to Princeton and (b) $2,627,301.11 from the Princeton Reserve to the entity or party designated by the Defendants pursuant to this Order and the Escrow Instructions in a form substantially similar to the form attached hereto as Exhibit 2. The remainder of the Princeton Reserve, in the amount of $1 million, shall be distributed in accordance with those certain instructions annexed as Exhibit A<sup>5</sup> to the Settlement Agreement (the "Indemnity Security Escrow Release Instructions"). For the avoidance of any doubt, this

Order shall be deemed a final, non-appealable order for purposes of paragraph 5(b) of the Reinstatement Order.

4. The Escrow Instructions attached hereto as Exhibit 2 are approved by this Court, and the Title Company shall comply with this Order and the Escrow Instructions no later than one (1) business day after receipt of the Escrow Instructions sent to the Title Company by counsel for Princeton via hand delivery. The hand delivered Escrow Instructions shall be signed by the hand of Judith W. Ross or Frances Smith, counsel for Princeton. The hand delivered Escrow Instructions shall be signed digitally on behalf of the Defendants. The hand delivered Escrow Instructions shall be substantially identical to the Escrow Instructions attached to this Order as Exhibit 2. The hand delivered Escrow Instructions shall include copies of this Order and the Reinstatement Order, entered in the chapter 11 cases, both physically attached to the hand delivered Escrow Instructions. If any of the requirements of this Paragraph 4 are not fully satisfied, then the Title Company is directed by this Court to disburse no funds from the Princeton Reserve; provided, however, that the Indemnity Security Escrow Release Instructions shall not be subject to this Paragraph 4. In the event that all requirements of this Paragraph 4 are fully satisfied, then immediately upon receipt of the hand delivered Escrow Instructions, the Title Company shall notify counsel for Princeton and the Defendants via email (at email addresses included in the Escrow Instructions) that the Title Company received the hand delivered Escrow Instructions in compliance with this Paragraph 4, and counsel for Princeton and Defendants shall then immediately provide the Title Company with their respective wire instructions via email in accordance with the Escrow Instructions.

5. Notwithstanding anything in the Reinstatement Order to the contrary, it is hereby ordered that Mr. Natin Paul, any family member of Mr. Natin Paul, any affiliate of Mr. Natin Paul, and any person acting at Mr. Natin Paul's direction, shall not seek removal of or to remove from the Title Company the Remaining Reserves (as defined in the Reinstatement Order) (exclusive of the Princeton Reserve that is to be released pursuant to the term of this Order) until further Order of this Court.

6. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the funds reserved for the Receiver Claims may be disbursed upon (1) the filing in this Court of a final, non-appealable order of the Texas state district court in the Princeton Capital Corporation vs Great Value Storage LLC, et. al. pending in the 165th District Court of Harris County, Texas, case no. 2019-18855 (the "Princeton Lawsuit") awarding the Receiver fees and expenses pursuant to the Order Appointing Receiver in the Princeton Lawsuit (the "Receiver Award") and (2) a subsequent final, non-appealable Order of this Court directing the Title Company to disburse funds in the amount of the Receiver Award to the Receiver less any amounts that the Receiver has collected that the state court approves the Receiver to apply to his total fees and expenses in connection with the Princeton Lawsuit; provided, however, that this paragraph shall only be effective if the Receiver files a motion to dismiss adversary proceeding in this Case, with prejudice and files a notice of withdrawal of any proofs of claims with prejudice the seek to collect the Receiver Award, within three business days of the entry of this Order. The Reinstatement Order shall remain in full force and affect except as modified herein.

7. Notice of the Emergency Motion as provided therein shall be deemed good and sufficient notice of such Emergency Motion under the circumstances and the requirements of the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules are satisfied by such notice.

8. Notwithstanding the applicability of any Bankruptcy Rules, the terms and conditions of this Order shall not be stayed and shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

9. The Defendants are authorized to take all such actions as are necessary or appropriate to implement the terms of this Order.

10. This Court shall retain jurisdiction over all matters arising from or related to the interpretation or implementation of this Order.

the Reorganized Debtors, the "Defendants") in Princeton Capital Corp. v. GVS Texas Holdings I, LLC, Adv. Case No. 22-03043 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2022) (the "Adversary Proceeding"). I have served in this role with WCH since 2017. I also appeared as the authorized representative of the Reorganized Debtors and Phoenix Lending, LLC in connection with the September 9, 2022 deposition conducted by the Receiver in connection with this matter.

2. I submit this Declaration in support of the Emergency Motion Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 for Entry of an Order Approving a Settlement and Compromise Between Princeton Capital Corporation and the Reorganized Debtors (the "9019 Motion"),<sup>3</sup> including that certain settlement agreement (the "Settlement Agreement"), by and among certain Defendants in the Adversary Proceeding and Princeton Capital Corporation ("Princeton" and together with the Defendants, the "Parties")

3. Except as otherwise indicated herein, all statements set forth in this Declaration are based on my personal knowledge, as I was personally involved in the negotiations that led to the Settlement Agreement. I am over the age of eighteen and authorized to submit this Declaration on behalf of the Reorganized Debtors and other Defendants. If called upon to testify, I would testify competently to the facts set forth herein.

The Settlement Agreement Should Be Approved

4. I understand that courts in the Fifth Circuit may consider the following factors before approving settlements and compromises:

- a) The probability of success litigating the claims subject to the settlement;
- b) The complexity and likely duration and the associated expense, inconvenience, and delay; and

Case 21-31121-mvl11 Doc 1406 Filed 09/13/22 Entered 09/13/22 13:54:56 Desc Main Document Page 3 of 6

c) The wisdom of the settlement, which include (i) the interest of creditors and (ii) whether the settlement is a product of arms-length bargaining.

I understand from reviewing the 9019 Motion that it sufficiently demonstrates why each of these factors weigh in favor of the Court approving the Settlement Agreement.

I. Probability of Success

5. It is my belief that in negotiating and considering the merits of the Settlement Agreement, the Parties considered all material disputes between Princeton and the Reorganized Debtors as well as the various other Defendants in both the Adversary Proceeding and Texas District Court. If Princeton is permitted to prosecute their causes of action in the Adversary Proceeding, the Reorganized Debtors will incur significant expense to complete extensive discovery, retain expert witnesses, and prepare for a potentially long and contentious trial. And, while it is my understanding that the Reorganized Debtors and the other Defendants are confident in their positions, there is no certainty in the outcome.

6. Finally, even when one of the Parties ultimately prevails on the merits of their claims, any litigation has a high likelihood of appeal considering the amount-in-controversy and issues involved, which would only further delay the Parties' ability to obtain relief. By entering into the Settlement Agreement, the Parties avoid the risk of not prevailing on their claims in the Adversary Proceeding, as well as potentially significant legal expenses.

II. Complexity of Litigation Involved and the Attendant Expense, Inconvenience, and Delay

7. The Parties' likelihood of success in connection with the Adversary Proceeding is uncertain due to the complexity of the myriad factual and legal issues involved in both proceedings, which have been previewed in the Complaint, the Non-Debtor Defendants' motion to dismiss, and Princeton's response to that motion. For example, the Complaint lists five different types of allegedly fraudulent transfers that purported occurred over the course of nearly a decade. Unraveling the allegations will be an expensive, lengthy, and document-intensive process. The settlement avoids such attendant expense and delay to the Reorganized Debtors and the other Parties.

8. Indeed, in the absence of settlement, continued litigation of the Adversary Proceeding will take years to reach a final resolution, after accounting for the time necessary to reach decisions on the merits and to work through any challenge or appellate processes. Such delay will subject the Parties to the economic overhang of these disputes and hinder the final resolution of these cases while generating significant legal expenses, and continue the uncertainty regarding whether Princeton will recover its Judgment from the Reorganized Debtors, and will prevent the Reorganized Debtors from obtaining a final decree in what has been a long and complex chapter 11 cases. This sort of delay and uncertainty is unnecessary given the settlement. For these reasons, the cost of the Settlement Agreement to each Party, especially the Reorganized Debtors, is far outweighed by the benefit realized by ending this continuing contentious and expensive litigation, and gaining certainty regarding the Reorganized Debtors' exposure to Princeton.<sup>4</sup>

III. Wisdom of Settlement

9. Based on my business judgment, I believe that the terms of the Settlement Agreement are fair, reasonable, and in the best interests of the Reorganized Debtors, its remaining creditors, if any, and other stakeholders. The only potential creditors that have unresolved claims in the Bankruptcy Cases are Princeton and the Receiver. But, through the Settlement Agreement, only one alleged creditor will remain – the Receiver. The Settlement Agreement also paves the way for a final resolution of the Receiver's alleged claim because it calls for the Title Company to hold $3.5 million related to the Receiver's proofs of claim and administrative expense claim in an escrow account pending the resolution of the Receiver's fee application in state court, or other resolution of the adversary proceeding, administrative expense claim, and/or proofs of claim. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in the Settlement Agreement precludes or prevents the Receiver from seeking approval of his fees and expenses in the state court, which is the only forum in which the Receiver can seek approval of such fees and expenses. More specifically, as part of the resolution with Princeton, the Reorganized Debtors and WCH have agreed that should the Receiver agree to withdraw his proofs of claim, administrative expense claim and dismiss his adversary proceeding, the Reorganized Debtors will seek to make the funds being held by the Title Company on account of the Receiver's claims (i.e., the $3.5 million) available to satisfy any fee award in favor of the Receiver that is not otherwise satisfied in the underlying state court case, when such fee is determined by a final, non-appealable order in the Texas District Court that appointed the Receiver. As a result, the Receiver is adequately insulated from any outcome related to how the Princeton Reserve is disbursed. The parties reserve all rights as to any fee application and approval from the state court forum, and the expansion of the availability of the reserve moots any need for the Receiver to continue pursuing fraudulent transfer claims in this Court and any other court.

10. Further, the Receiver is not prejudiced by the Settlement Agreement because, as discussed above, the purchase of the Notes does not preclude the Receiver's right to seek approval of his fees and expenses (if any) from the Texas District Court. Rather, the note purchase by Phoenix Lending, LLC, a duly formed Delaware limited liability company,<sup>5</sup> is designed to provide the Reorganized Debtors, the others Defendants and Princeton with finality. Moreover, since Phoenix Lending, LLC is acquiring the Notes and the Judgment from Princeton pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, the Judgment will remain outstanding and Phoenix will, at the appropriate time, in the Texas District Court, (i) move for a termination of the receivership including seeking an accounting and final report from the receiver and (ii) seek a determination of the fees and expenses, if any, owed to the Receiver.

11. With respect to the other stakeholders, the Reorganized Debtors, the Defendants and WCH, the Settlement Agreement provides immediate certainty and finality with respect to the outcome of contentious and expensive litigation with Princeton. The Settlement Agreement also permits the Reorganized Debtors, Defendants and WCH to reallocate the resources they were dedicating to the Adversary Proceeding toward the Receiver's adversary proceeding and concluding these chapter 11 cases. At bottom, this resolution inures to the benefit of all parties and stakeholders.

12. The Settlement Agreement is the product of extensive negotiations between the Defendants and Princeton. Each of the Parties has been represented by experienced professionals throughout the Settlement Agreement negotiations and has acted in its own economic self-interest.

13. Accordingly, I believe that the Court should approve the Settlement Agreement and enter the Proposed Order and Order of Dismissal.

Executed this 13th day of September 2022.

So as the Reorganized Debtors looked to that litigation, the complexity that I think there are 36 defendants there. The uncertainty that the fact that it would involve multiple jurisdictional issues certainly would be lengthy and complex, the likelihood that those things would be challenged on appeal, and the cost and expense related to that made the determination that settling this matter would bring finality to not only the estates, but also to Princeton, which is an open creditor or an open a party that's claiming to be a creditor to the Reorganized Debtors. So for the Reorganized Debtors to enter into this agreement that leaves only one controversy left in the Chapter 11 cases, which is the pending adversary with Mr. Kretzer.

5	Q. Did the Reorganized Debtors go through a	5	asking specifically I mean to the receiver as an
6	similar process in evaluating whether the	6	alleged creditor. So that's why I want to

8	was in the best interest of creditors of the	8	considerations that were given to the interest of
9	estate?	9	the receiver in evaluating this claim.
10	A. It did.	10	A. And I do believe that's correct to refer to
11	Q. What was that process?	11	both Princeton and the receiver as alleged
12	A. All of that process was one in the same. As	12	creditors because their proofs of claim are one,
13	I mentioned, only the two remaining I'm not sure	13	they have not been allowed and two, they have been
14	what the correct bankruptcy term is, but Princeton	14	objected to. So they are not they haven't yet
15	and the receiver are the only two remaining	15	been deemed creditors of the estate.
16	possible creditors to the estate. All of their	16	But nonetheless, the Reorganized Debtors
17	allowed claims have been paid.	17	did consider both Princeton and the receiver
18	And, so, what this settlement does is it	18	regardless of whether or not they are actually
19	brings resolution to one of those two, and it	19	creditors of the estate because they were both open
20	actually paves the way for resolution of the	20	litigation of the estate.

22	finality and certainty to the Reorganized Debtors	22	Reorganized Debtors that protracted an ongoing
23	about future costs and litigation risks of the	23	litigation in the future would not be in the best

5	there.	5	A. Yes and I'm just you might just need
6	So this settlement is undoubtedly in the	6	to rephrase your question. I'm getting a little
7	best interest of both the estate and any possible	7	confused by what you're asking me. I believe what

9	Q. You may have just answered the question I'm	9	the Reorganized Debtors in recommending this
10	about to ask you, but I'm going to ask it to make	10	Settlement Agreement consider both the estates, and
11	sure there's not something else of what you just	11	the both interest of creditors, and I believe I
12	said.	12	have answered that.
13	My question was directed to what the	13	And now you're asking me then you asked
14	Reorganized considered when it came to creditors	14	if I considered Princeton and the receiver
15	generally. Did the Reorganized Debtors employ any	15	regardless of whether they are creditors or not,
16	process to specifically consider what was in the	16	and I believe I answered that. And now you're
17	best interest of the receiver in this case?	17	asking me if I think that prolonged litigation is
18	A. Yes, it did.	18	in the best interest of the receiver. I don't know
19	Q. What was that process? If it was different	19	that that's a question relevant. But I don't think
20	from what you just described?	20	in my personal opinion and of the Reorganized
21	A. No. It's all one in the same. The	21	Debtors, prolonged litigation is always an expense
22	Reorganized Debtors considered the only I guess	22	of a costly process, and if it can be avoided for
23	I just want to you probably are aware of this,	23	terms that make sense to the estate, when you are
24	but at this stage in the case, like I mentioned,	24	weighing the balance of that, then I think that's a
25	there are no other creditors or potential creditors	25	good thing.

13	And, quite honestly, there's	13	Q. Okay. Well, I am going to ask you about

1	A. That's right.	1	will control.
2	Q. And it says here in the last sentence of	2	Q. I'm happy to pull this up. Do you remember
3	that recital that the Settlement Agreement, which	3	the paragraph 5 and 6 in the Term Sheet, which
4	we marked as Exhibit 3, is a new is new and	4	required Princeton to take certain actions with
5	separate from the settlement of the Term Sheet;	5	respect to abatement of the bankruptcy proceeding
6	correct?	6	and also providing information to Judge Davis in
7	A. That's right.	7	Austin? Do you recall that?
8	Q. Okay. Let me now ask you to look at	8	A. I don't. You'll have to pull it up.
9	paragraph 15C. In paragraph 15C states the term	9	Q. Yes. Let's do that.
10	very last sentence to the Settlement Term Sheet,	10	A. But, again, just to be clear, the parties
11	which shall remain in force and effect.	11	aren't seeking approval of the Term Sheet. They're 12	Do you see that?	12	seeking approval of the Settlement Agreement. And
13	A. Hmm-hmm.	13	so, to the extent of what's relevant for the 14	Q. So it's your interpretation and	14	hearing next week, we are only seeking approval of
15	understanding that this agreement that once it's	15	the Settlement Agreement itself, which tells all of
16	approved by the Court, the Term Sheet will be	16	the terms that that reflect the terms of the
17	extinguished?	17	final negotiations between the parties.
18	A. That's right. I can help illuminate that.	18	Q. Excuse me. I'm going to scroll down now to
19	So the Term Sheet provided that the parties would	19	paragraph five and six of the Term Sheet, which we
20	memorialize a settlement agreement, a fulsome	20	are going to mark as Exhibit 4 to your deposition.
21	settlement agreement. I believe that was also	21	A. Yes. I see. No. Princeton will not have
22	discussed with the U.S. trustee and Judge Larson as		these obligations. They didn't these
23	well that a full you know, all of the full terms	23	obligations did not end up in the final Settlement
24	need to be filed with the Court and any irrelevant	24	Agreement because we were able to negotiate the
25	parties so they could review that.	25	note purchased and complete all of Princeton's
	Page 54		Page 56
1	The Settlement Term Sheet also provided	1	obligations.
2	that if the parties sought Court approval and it	2	Q. Whose was it what's referred to as the
3	did not the parties did not obtain it, what	3	Great Value parties in the Term Sheet. Was it the
4	would happen in that case? And so, you know,	4	Great Value parties who requested paragraphs five
5	you're looking at an agreement that has not yet	5	and six of the Term Sheet at the time it was being
6	been approved.	6	negotiated?
7	And, so, the purpose of the provisions	7	A. I don't recall. But again, the Term Sheet
8	that you're looking at were to show that were to	8	is not the document that we are seeking approval
9	indicate that the Settlement Agreement was to be	9	for, just as it is with, you know, lots and lots of
10	the full and final agreement. And if it was not	10	transactions. The term sheet is where people put
11	approved, we revert back to the Term Sheet, which		on paper the deal and principal. And then when you
12	had its own remedies and requirements in the case	12	negotiate out the fulsome final settlement
13	of the lack of Court approval, including that the	13	agreement, some things may get in and some things
14	parties should negotiate in good faith and things	14	don't.
15	like that.	15	And so, I don't recall but I don't think
16	Q. All right. So if the Court does approve this than no one is going to be barning back to	16 17	it's relevant because it's we are not seeking
17	this, then no one is going to be harping back to specific provisions of the Term Sheet, for example,	17 18	approval of anything related to those two 24	little smaller, like, 80 percent I should be able	24	Q. Can you explain that?

3	THE COURT: Okay, 6th and San Jacinto, LLC, 21-10942,
4	Debtor's objection to the claim number eight by NIA ATX. And
5	who do we have for the Debtor?
6	MR. HEADDEN: Good afternoon, Your Honor, Todd

8	THE COURT: Okay. And who do we have on behalf of

10	MR. WHITE: Good afternoon, Your Honor, Trey White

12	THE COURT: Okay. Well, in the words of that

15	MR. WHITE: Well, Your Honor, I'll be happy to

18	THE COURT: Oh, okay. Go ahead then, announce the

20	MR. WHITE: Be happy to, Judge. We have agreed to
21	drop the attorney's fees, and the Debtor has agreed to pay the

23	THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Headden, is that correct?

2	MR. WHITE: We can do an agreed order.
3	MR. HEADDEN: Precisely.
4	THE COURT: I think that's fine. Okay. Well I'll
5	look forward to seeing your agreed order. Thank you both.
6	MR. WHITE: Thank you, Judge. May I be excused?
7	THE COURT: Yes. Okay. Now we have a motion for 8	protection in a bunch of cases and we have an objection to
9	claim by Kretzer in a bunch of cases.
10	And I'm going to hope that Mr. Headden accurately
11	captured those cases in the pleading he filed earlier today

24	THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Warman, have you read the

<ul> <li>MS. WARMAN: Yes, Your Honor, I have.</li> <li>THE COURT: And?</li> <li>MS. WARMAN: Well, Your Honor, I think their big</li> <li>announcement may be great for Princeton and the Debtors. MS. WARMAN: Well, Your Honor, I think their big announcement may be great for Princeton and the Debtors. But in my view it's not a get out of jail free card with respect t the Receiver's claims in these cases. And the reason I say that is these claims were filed in these cases by the Receiver

6 the Receiver's claims in these cases. And the reason I say 7 that is these claims were filed in these cases by the Receiver
7 that is these claims were filed in these cases by the Receiver	î.
8 seeking to collect both the judgment and the Receiver fees.
9 Princeton never appeared in these cases, didn't file	ý
10 proofs of claim, and so any settlement they may have reached a	.n
11 other cases regarding this Debtor may ultimately have some 12 impact in the amount of the Receiver's claim, but they 13 certainly can't settle it out from under the Receiver.
14 The receivership order that's been presented to this	;
15 Court on numerous times specifically provides that the 16 Receiver's fees are taxed as costs against the Debtor, which 17 means that the Receiver's authorized to seek and recover 125
18 percent of the judgment, plus expenses.
19 In addition to that, as I understand it, they have a	L
20 term sheet which is at best preliminary. It has to be 21 documented, it has to be approved by the Bankruptcy Court in 22 Dallas, and it has to be ultimately paid and closed. So there	ý
23 are a number of steps to go through before that proposal or 24 that term sheet actually resolves Princeton's claim.
25 In the meantime, the receivership goes on. Texas la

1 is clear that once a court appoints a receiver, it is no longer 2 the prerogative of the plaintiff to decide whether that 3 receivership should continue.

And if it does come to pass that Princeton really is paid pursuant to the terms of the Receiver, it will have -- or, excuse me, pursuant to the terms of its agreement, it will have to go back to the receivership court, make that known, and the receivership court will decide what to do and how best to make sure that the receivership fee is paid if we haven't collected it before that time.

So in my view abatement is not appropriate. We've been waiting for these documents now for a long time. And it's not just the Receiver that's waiting. The Trustees have been waiting as well.

15 There were statements in the Debtor's status report 16 that they provided the documents to their lawyers, so it 17 shouldn't be any sort of a burden for the lawyers to give them 18 to us and to the Trustee so that we can complete our analysis. 19 Just this morning we received a copy of a bank 20 statement in the Barton case, for example, that Debtor's counsel had said didn't exist. So we are still gathering our 21 22 evidence. 2.3

And we are closer to a position where we could amend our claim if we need to do that. But we certainly would like the information we need to finish filling in the blanks before

1	we do that.
2	So as far as we're concerned, Your Honor, while the
3	announcement is big news, it does not really have much impact
4	in this case. And we would urge this case this Court rather
5	to deny their request for an abatement, order them to produce
6	this document, and allow these matters to go forward until and
7	unless they get an order from the receivership court saying
8	that the Receiver should the Receiver no longer has
9	authority to act. And right now
10	THE COURT: So
11	MS. WARMAN: we are a long way from that.
12	THE COURT: Yeah, so ordered. I mean, Ms. Ross
13	certainly has credibility in this court but she has no control
14	over or influence with the individual who ultimately must make
15	the decisions about whether or not to assign the term sheet,
16	sign a settlement agreement pursuant to the term sheet, follow
17	through in that term sheet, fund the settlement, and so on and
18	so on and so on.
19	These documents are long overdue. A term sheet's not
20	going to move me in any way whatsoever. My patience has run
21	out. And an order
22	MR. ROBERTS: (Indisc.)
23	THE COURT: to show cause is going to issue.
24	MR. ROBERTS: Your Honor, Steve Roberts. May I
25	address your points
	EXCEPTIONAL REPORTING SERVICES, INC.

1 THE COURT: No, not yet. I'll give you your chance, 2 Mr. Roberts, but --3 MR. ROBERTS: Thank you. THE COURT: -- I need to run through this first. 4 5 MR. SPEAKER: Oh, (indisc.) wins, it's great. THE COURT: If you're not speaking, your phone should 6 7 be on mute or you'll be disconnected. Okay. We've been talking about eight sets of 8 9 documents that I felt should have been produced pretty much immediately. Have they been produced? 10 11 MR. HEADDEN: Your Honor, Todd Headden --12 MS. WARMAN: No, Your Honor, they have not been 13 produced. 14 THE COURT: Mr. Headden. 15 MR. HEADDEN: That is correct that the documents have 16 not been produced (indisc.) --17 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Thank you. Okay. The 18 relevant period, for purposes of responding to the discovery, shall be seven years, except with respect to formation 19 20 documents and corporate records, which obviously there's no 21 relevant period there. It just goes back to whenever the 22 Debtor was formed. 2.3 The protective order will be granted. It's pretty 24 much denied across the board. 25 I am going to grant it, though, as to numbers 24, 25,

1	26, and 28. And I guess just in case our numbers don't line
2	up, let me flip to those. Yeah, 24 was all documents reflected
3	in a contract or agreement with the staffing agency; 25, all
4	documents reflected in any PPP loan application; 26 is all
5	documents reflected in any agreements evidencing the employment
6	of any person by you, on your behalf, or by company (indisc.)
7	or other organization in which you own an interest or in which
8	an interest is held on your behalf; and 28 was all documents
9	evidencing the names of your employees and their compensation
10	during the relevant period.
11	Those I'm not saying you can never have those.
12	Right now I'm saying, no, I'm going to grant the protective
13	order as to those requests.
14	And then tell me and I'm we're going to come
15	back to this, all documents reflecting any contract or
16	agreement with Yardi, and I think I know what that is, has to 17	do with that accounting system; all documents reflecting any
18	contract or agreement with SiteLink. And I don't know what
19	that is. Why do you want those documents anyway?
20	MS. WARMAN: Your Honor, it's our understanding that
21	those are both accounting systems that are used by some or all
22	of the Debtors, and that's where the relevant information is
23	stored, balance sheets, income statements, how things are 24	allocated among the companies. At least that's our
25	understanding and that's the basis for the request.
	FUCEDUTONAL DEDODUTING SEDUTCES INC

1	THE COURT: Okay. Well I'm not
2	MS. WARMAN: But at this point I think we were just
3	asking for the contracts to see which Debtors had contracts
4	with Yardi and SiteLink.
5	THE COURT: Okay. Then the motion's denied as to
6	both those requests. I've got a bigger issue with all those.
7	But let me get back to my notes here.
8	Yeah. I mean, I'm going to get you the order to show
9	cause.
10	I'm going to make available the entire range of
11	sanctions that are available, including the death penalty
12	sanction, which is to say Mr. Paul's not going to get a penny
13	out of any of these estates, including the ones in which he's
14	actually funded the recovery by bidding at these auctions and
15	the ones I know he didn't close on one a couple days ago but
16	he's I guess he's closed on several of them, using money
17	from that case in Dallas. But he's not going to get a penny
18	until this production's completed in some form or fashion.
19	And I you know, I don't obviously the bank
20	statements you're getting independently. You ought to have
21	gotten them from the Debtors. That's a big problem with me.
22	But the Yardi system, the accounting systems, why
23	haven't the Trustees and the Receiver collaborated, come up
24	with an expert? I mean, and I want this to happen because all
25	these answers are there. Now, if there's some cost issue

1	that's associated with this and the Trustees just don't think
2	they need it, explain that to me.
3	But it seems to me that as I've said many times, this
4	cash sloshed around amongst all these companies where it was
5	needed without regard to the creditors for whom that you
6	know, to whom that money arguably belonged.
7	And you're never going to sort out where all that
8	comes out unless you get control of and understand this
9	accounting system. And there are answers there. The attorneys
10	representing the lender in Culebra Crossing came up with a lot
11	of information that they pulled off that system that they
12	compared to the bank statements. And so there's a lot to be
13	had there.
14	And so what I don't you know, you tell me why you
15	can't do this and then I'll open up a discussion right now. I
16	mean, there ought to be a collaborative approach pooling, you
17	know, the various estates and then the Receiver in some sense.
18	I don't know how you if you do this on a per capita basis,
19	on a size of the estate basis.
20	But some way or another there has to be an agreement
21	to come with an expert that's going to crack open Yardi. And
22	he will be given access. That expert will have full access to
23	Yardi with all passwords and everything else. And if that's a
24	problem, we'll get an even bigger forensic expert and he'll
25	just crack it open.

1	MS. WARMAN: Your Honor, from the Receiver's
2	perspective, we have had some conversations with the Trustee.
3	I think everyone was sort of waiting to see if we were going to
4	get some documents before (indisc.)
5	THE COURT: You're not going to get anything. You
6	might as well assume you're not going to get anything.
7	MS. WARMAN: But I so I'll just say this. The
8	Receiver would be willing to move forward with working with the
9	Trustees on that.
10	THE COURT: Mr. Ong.
11	MR. SPEAKER: Your Honor, may I be heard for one
12	moment (indisc.)
13	THE COURT: Yeah, you guys will get your turn, you
14	and (indisc.)
15	MR. ONG: Your Honor,
16	THE COURT: Go ahead, Mr. Ong.
17	MR. ONG: Jay Ong for Randy Osherow, Trustee of a
18	number of these bankruptcy estates. Your Honor, we have had 19	conversations with Mr. Kretzer's counsel regarding these
20	potential initiatives.
21	I will profess that we have not taken a lead role in 22	these matters, including because we have managed to
23	successfully sell the asset in three of our cases. And as a
24	result of that, that renders the cases reliably, or at least
25	reasonably reliably to be surplus cases, which diminishes the

1 Trustee's interest in --

2 THE COURT: (indisc.) MR. ONG: -- potential fraudulent transfers. 3 But I understand the Court's admonition. And we do 4 5 have at least some continuing such matters. And we'll 6 coordinate with the Receiver's counsel, as well as with 7 Debtor's counsel and counsel for the other Trustees. THE COURT: Mr. Cumings. 8 9 MR. CUMINGS: Brian Cumings, Your Honor, for Trustee Osherow in one of the cases, and Trustee Lowe in the others. 10 11 There is at least one of the Mr. Lowe cases which is 12 not at all clear will be a surplus case so we definitely do 13 have an interest in getting into the Yardi system. And like 14 Mr. Ong said for Mr. Osherow, we'll cooperate absolutely with 15 the Receiver's counsel, the Trustee's counsel, to sort out how 16 to allocate the expense of doing that. 17 THE COURT: The other Trustee counsel. 18 MR. MCCULLOUGH: Your Honor, Kevin McCullough on 19 behalf of Laurie Rea, Trustee in the Arboretum case and the WC 20 717. I've interviewed some of Yardi experts and we've been 21 working on an application to employee one as we speak. 22 THE COURT: Okay. Very good. Anybody else? 2.3 MS. RIBAUDO: Yes, Your Honor. This is Nancy Ribaudo 24 with Kelly Hart. I'm counsel for Dawn Ragan who's the Chapter 25 11 Trustee in the WC Braker Portfolio case.

I just wanted the Court to be aware, this case is late to join the party, so to speak. The case was only filed in May of this year, Trustee appointed the end of May. I'm still getting up to speed at this point.
Unlike the other Debtors, no discovery's been served on this particular Debtor. We've reached out and had conversations with counsel for the Trustee, talking about the role of the Chapter 11 Trustee acting as on behalf of the Debtor in these cases. And I believe we're on the same page.
But with that said, we certainly have already opened the dialogue with respect to having access to whatever information is obtained by the Receiver and will continue to do so as we move forward in the case.
But unlike many other debtors, and this was pointed out in the Receiver's status report that was filed in July, you know, there hasn't been any discovery served in against the Debtor in this particular case. I just want to point that out.
THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. Anybody else?
MR. LEMMON: Your Honor, Steve Lemmon. I represent Alliance Transportation Group which is an unsecured creditor in the Braker case.
I want to make two observations, if the Court will allow me. First is
THE COURT: Please.
MR. LEMMON: as somebody who in one of the other

1 cases has had access to Yardi, I can tell everyone that it is 2 not that complicated. Once you have access to it, it doesn't 3 take that long to learn how to walk through it. So there's --4 there shouldn't be this mystique about the system once you're 5 able to access it.

Secondly, as the Court observed, money has flown, flowed, flown all around these Debtors. And unless somebody has full access, as the Court observed, you really can't figure where it came from or why. And somebody needs to do that.

I can tell you speaking as a representative of an unsecured creditor in Braker, I am very concerned by the fact that we still do not have all of the bank statements, Your Honor. And really until somebody can see all of those bank statements, it's a problem.

And, Judge, I've been watching all of these cases carefully for two and a half years. And my observation, if the Court will permit me to allow -- to offer it is this World Class seeks the protection of the Bankruptcy Court when it is in its interest, and World Class ignores every order issued by any court when it is not in its interest.

And while the Court's admonition and statement that it's not going to allow World Class to be paid its equity until it complies is very powerful. I personally believe that we will not see real compliance in any of these cases unless the Court fully enforces its show cause authority (indisc.) against

1 the entity but against the individuals.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. Anybody else on the 3 Trustee or creditor side?

4 MR. KHEZRI: Your Honor, Phil Khezri, Lowenstein
5 Sandler on behalf of Sangrill (phonetic) Investments, an equity
6 holder in Third and Trinity. I've spoken before.

7 There are equity holders here with clean hands.
8 We -- my client has become increasingly frustrated here. Legal 9 fees are accruing, Trustee fees are accruing here, for 10 something that should have been turned over by right under the 11 Bankruptcy Code.

Nate Paul has not provided documents in this case, has taken money out of these cases. And it doesn't look like anybody has been able to properly investigate.

And I don't know if the Court would be open to considering appointing an examiner over all the World Class entities to actually review what happened here. But in the meantime, I don't believe any funds should be transferred in any of these cases to World Class or Nate Paul.

And to the extent Nate Paul is looking to purchase any properties, I don't believe free and clear language is appropriate in any of those sale orders.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. Any other creditors or

25

MR. WRIGHT: Judge, My name is Richard Wright

1 (phonetic), and I'm an unsecured creditor. I'm an equity 2 investor in WC Alamo. And I echo what the gentleman just said. I've --3 4 THE COURT: Okay. 5 MR. WRIGHT: -- been an investor from the beginning. I haven't received any reports, balance sheets, financial 6 7 statements since 2018. Thank you for the time. THE COURT: Thank you. Anybody else? 8 9 MR. BOUSLOG: Matt Bouslog from -- on behalf of ATX 10 Braker in the WC Braker case. We -- at risk of repeating to 11 some extent some comments from some other creditors, we are a creditor and we represent a creditor of the WC Braker estate. 12 13 We also represent a separate entity which is a mezzanine lender 14 of effectively the equity holder of the Debtor. 15 And while we certainly understand and agree with the 16 Court's and the other parties' sentiments here, we would simply 17 ask that with respect to any OSC or any remedy or enforcement, 18 that to the extent possible it be narrowly tailored as to World 19 Class, the individuals, and not, as other equity holders have 20 said, those that might otherwise benefit from any distributions that might be made in those cases. 21 22 I appreciate your point. I know it's THE COURT: 23 been pointed out before, and it's been on my mind ever since I 24 started considering this notion of sanctions. 25 MR. BOUSLOG: Thank you, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Anybody else on the creditor or Trustee 2 side? 3 (No audible response) Okay. Mr. Roberts, I think it's your turn. 4 5 MS. ROSS: Your Honor. THE COURT: Oh, sorry. Go ahead, yes. 6 7 MS. ROSS: Go ahead. I didn't mean to interrupt 8 whoever it was that was on the line. Go ahead. 9 THE COURT: Go ahead, Ms. Ross. 10 MS. ROSS: Okay, Your Honor. Thank you, Judge. I do 11 consider myself a creditor, even though I'm not a creditor. My client has been of course the -- we are the person that put the 12 13 -- we are the entity that put the receivership in. 14 I do want to tell the Court a couple of things. 15 We -- it is my -- first of all, I do support the abatement that 16 has been requested and that the Court has now denied. But I 17 wanted to let you know I support it. 18 And part of the reason, Judge, that I support it is 19 because I do intend to immediately turn my head towards trying 20 to negotiate a resolution of the dispute between the Receiver 21 and the entities that have -- that he has taken action against 22 in the bankruptcy proceedings before your Court. 2.3 The bottom line on this, Judge, is that I don't think 24 anybody benefits from the continuation of this. At this point, 25 the -- Nate Paul has agreed to pay my client in full. And now

20

1	I want to turn my head towards getting the Receiver into a
2	position where the Receiver can be dismissed and paid.
3	So just letting the Court know that I do still
4	support the abatement. But if the Court is not inclined to 5	grant an abatement of ten days or so, then so be it. Thank
6	you.
7	THE COURT: Thank you. Mr. Roberts.
8	MR. ROBERTS: Yes, Your Honor. If I can back up a
9	minute, Your Honor, and advise the Court what's happened. And
10	as is often the case, the timing is unfortunate. But timing is
11	often not in control of the Debtor.
12	What has been filed is a motion to abate based on a
13	binding term sheet to reduce to a settlement agreement only
14	consistent and containing the terms of the term sheet so that,
15	for example, (indisc.) language is fleshed out.
16	The funds for paying that are already in reserve in
17	the GVSH (phonetic) bankruptcy case for Princeton's claim. The
18	motion requires the Bankruptcy Court in the Northern District
19	of Texas to approve the settlement. It does not rely on
20	Mr. Paul coming up with funds to fund the settlement. It
21	doesn't really rely on the settlement agreement because what we
22	have is binding. The parties have agreed to go for an
23	expedited hearing to get that approval.
24	As it relates to Mr. Kretzer's claim, Mr. Kretzer has
25	two avenues. One is he's pursuing fraudulent transfers

1 purportedly on behalf of Princeton, which Princeton does not 2 want to pursue and does not need to pursue. As his counsel pointed out, he's also pursuing 3 fraudulent transfer claims on the theory he's entitled to fees. 4 5 And I would like to address that for just one minute. Under the order, counsel --6 7 THE COURT: Mr. Roberts. MR. ROBERTS: Yes. 8 9 THE COURT: I mean, I think I know where you're 10 going. What you need to understand is that stuff is not being 11 produced. It's long overdue. May I finish, Your Honor? I understand 12 MR. ROBERTS: 13 what you're saying but I'd like to make a record here. 14 THE COURT: Go ahead. 15 MR. ROBERTS: So as to Kretzer's claim, he's not 16 entitled to any fees. He's entitled up to 25 percent of what 17 Princeton gets paid, possibly, depending on what the court in 18 Houston says. 19 Mr. Kretzer's already collected $3 million. 20 Mr. Kretzer can't explain to this Court why he needs to pursue 21 fraudulent transfer claims. And that is the only basis upon 22 which Mr. Kretzer needs these documents. 2.3 I'll turn to the Trustees in a minute. But I would 24 ask the -- re-urge the Court to just reset this for a week and 25 let the sky clear and let the judge see that you have a

1 settlement, we have a motion, and let Kretzer explain what's left. 2 As to the Trustees, but for one case the elimination 3 of the Kretzer's claim creates solvent estates with surpluses. 4 5 And I'll get to the exception in a moment. So they -instructing the Trustees to move forward for a investigation 6 7 going back seven years in a solvent case does not result in any possible causes of action, and the investigations have no 8 9 purpose. I certainly understand your frustration with the lack 10 11 of document production. And I would hope you understand that 12 our concerns about providing this information to Mr. Kretzer. 13 Mr. Kretzer's conduct is a matter for the State 14 courts. But as you've seen in your own court, Mr. Kretzer has 15 stepped in at WC Culebra, stopped a sale, cooperated with 16 another lender to give him the property, with no accounting and 17 no money going to Princeton. 18 That's one of many examples. So lots of issues with 19 Mr. Kretzer's use of information that has been produced in 20 other cases. Whether the Court agrees with that concern, it 21 conflicts with their discovery rights, and it's a difficult 22 issue. But as to the Trustees --2.3 THE COURT: What motion have you filed with respect 24 to that? 25 MR. ROBERTS: Filed a motion with respect to what,

Your Honor? 1 2 THE COURT: Mr. Kretzer's alleged misbehavior. MR. ROBERTS: There -- the receivership order was 3 appealed to the First Court of Appeals in Houston. It's been 4 5 argued and we're waiting for a decision. THE COURT: Right. 6 7 If the First Court of Appeals strikes MR. ROBERTS: that, that has a dramatic effect on Mr. Kretzer's rights. 8 9 THE COURT: And that hasn't happened yet. 10 MR. ROBERTS: (Indisc.) happening in State court, the 11 State court is waiting to see. 12 THE COURT: So we're just stonewalling in documents 13 until all the other legal avenues are possibly pursued. 14 MR. ROBERTS: No. The WC entities have done one more 15 very significant thing. If Mr. Kretzer doesn't have a claim 16 against these estates, if Princeton files under the motion --17 under the agreement, Princeton's going to file a motion to wind 18 up and terminate the receivership. Mr. Kretzer has to provide 19 an accounting. 20 If Mr. Kretzer has in fact recovered $3 million, there's no basis for a fraudulent transfer claim even on his 21 22 behalf. He has no standing and no need for these documents. 2.3 That's what Mr. Kretzer's counsel has not informed you of. 24 As to the Trustees, I think you've had Trustees 25 already say if I have a surplus case, I don't need to go back

1	through all those years of information, I have a surplus case.
2	So one case there's not a surplus case yet
3	THE COURT: Mr. Roberts.
4	MR. ROBERTS: I'm sorry.
5	THE COURT: This is really simple. If somebody is in
6	good faith responding to a document request, they'll produce
7	some documents. They'll do something. They won't completely
8	thumb their nose at the bankruptcy process by not turning over
9	a single document. Do you see the problem here?
10	MR. ROBERTS: I do see the problem, Your Honor. And
11	I think that has something to do with why the case has been 12	settled. And this case has been settled. I'd ask the Court to
13	consider that and put that in perspective.
14	MS. ROSS: Your Honor, may I add one thing? This is
15	Ms. Ross. And I don't want to
16	THE COURT: Go ahead.
17	MS. ROSS: If the Court doesn't want to hear from me,
18	that's fine. Your Honor, I have (indisc.) for ten days
19	straight to get my client in a position to get its full claim
20	paid. And that is what I have successfully negotiated.
21	And I am now going to turn my head to, in the next
22	ten days, trying to resolve the issues with the Receiver as
23	well, while at the same time asking the Bankruptcy Court in the 24	Northern District of Texas to release the money that was put
25	there on behalf of my client.

1	So the only thing that I would say, Judge, is that I
2	personally will commit to you that if you abate for ten days
3	only, that I will do everything in my power to negotiate and
4	try to get the matters with the Receiver resolved. That's all
5	I can promise. And
6	THE COURT: Go ahead, Mr. Roberts.
7	MS. ROSS: that's all I have to say, Judge. Thank
8	you.
9	THE COURT: What else, Mr. Roberts?
10	MR. ROBERTS: Your Honor, I think if you put these
11	two things together, I'm not going to stand before you and
12	argue that the WCC entities have operated, have produced
13	documents as they have should have.
14	But you might consider the possibility that's a
15	direct rather than produce the documents, rather than expose
16	their businesses to further seizures of bank accounts, seizures
17	of property without proof, rather than expose themselves to
18	further damage, my client's chosen to settle. So there is no
19	reason for Mr. Kretzer to produce the documents.
20	If we have a Trustee that has an insolvent estate
21	that and if that particular estate says, I still need that
22	information, we can address that and we can address it in good
23	faith because counsel for the Debtors have the documents.
24	And otherwise, just looking at the number of lawyers
25	on this phone, we (indisc.)

1 THE COURT: All precipitated by your failure to 2 produce the documents. I understand. But what we haven't --3 MR. ROBERTS: THE COURT: Mr. Ralston, what have you got? 4 5 MR. ROBERTS: -- failed to do is settle. Thank you. MR. RALSTON: Your Honor, just a point. And I don't 6 7 mean to speak for either Mr. Ong or Mr. Cumings. But we did 8 have last week a 341 meeting held by Mr. Osherow in all of the 9 WC cases that he's handling. And as I think has been stated, Mr. Osherow indicated 10 11 in that 341 meeting that -- combined 341 meeting as it were, because he's handling numerous cases -- that apart from 12 13 Mr. Kretzer's claims, he views the estates that he's involved 14 with as being solvent and that he is trying to limit the 15 administrative expenses as a result of that. 16 And I think what the -- as I understand this 17 agreement between I believe the GVS entities and Princeton 18 Capital, although it is a binding settlement agreement, it's 19 not just a -- it's not an agreement to agree, as I understand 20 it, but it is a settlement agreement laying out binding 21 terms --22 THE COURT: I've been -- I was informed of it, what, 2.3 at noon today? 24 Your Honor, I think there was -- I MR. RALSTON: 25 think the parties, Mr. Ross and I believe the Mr. Morrison, who

1 represents GVS, I think he is on the call, I think they were still working out terms today. I don't think it was -- and it 2 certainly was not anything intentional on the part of those 3 parties. But I think they were working feverishly to get 4 5 something done. 6 And they could speak to that, Your Honor. I'm 7 Debtor's counsel. I'm not counsel for GVS. That would be the World Class entity that would -- as I understand it would be 8 9 funding the settlement. 10 So, Your Honor, I think we're in a position with a 11 short abatement, which should not prejudice Mr. Kretzer, 12 especially if Ms. Ross is able to achieve a resolution, 13 would -- of ten days is not going to prejudice anyone. 14 And it may just create an opportunity where 15 Mr. Kretzer and Princeton are paid off, that -- with the 16 exception, as I understand it, of one estate -- the remaining 17 estates are solvent and these cases can be wrapped up 18 expeditiously. THE COURT: Well, I'm all in favor of Princeton being 19 20 paid, let me say that. 21 MR. KHEZRI: Your Honor, --22 THE COURT: (Indisc.) wholeheartedly -- I 23 wholeheartedly encourage that that settlement get funded and 24 approved. And I can't say enough -- and I will consider that 25 when I conduct a hearing on the show cause order.

1	MR. KHEZRI: Your Honor, Phil Khezri for
2	THE COURT: And the comments excuse me.
3	MR. KHEZRI: Sorry.
4	THE COURT: The comments made about how many of these
5	estates are solvent and maybe only one is insolvent, that's
6	helpful. It's kind of just information that's floating out
7	there. If somebody were to put together a chart, a pretty
8	simple chart, and demonstrate that, that would be helpful, too.
9	But otherwise it's
10	MS. SPEAKER: Your Honor,
11	THE COURT: full speed ahead. Mr
12	MS. SPEAKER: Your Honor,
13	THE COURT: Khezri I think wanted to talk.
14	MR. KHEZRI: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you so much.
15	Phil Khezri, Lowenstein Sandler again, representing Sangrill
16	Investments, an equity holder in Third and Trinity.
17	Even if Third and Trinity is solvent, those books and 18	records must have been turned over to the Trustee. That is
19	required under the Bankruptcy Code. The Trustee should have
20	possession of all the books and records. There's no exception
21	for the estate being solvent here. There are equity holders
22	who likely have been defrauded here.
23	So even if the Receiver is paid off, those books and
24	records should be turned over to the Trustee. And equity
25	holders and creditors have a right to review what happened
	ΕΥΛΈΡΠΤΑΝΑΙ ΒΕΡΑΡΤΝΟ ΕΕΡΙΤΟΕς ΤΝΟ

prebankruptcy. There are causes of action here, possibly even subordination of Nate Paul's equity interest or other World Class equity interests in the estate.

So I don't think that argument that these estates are solvent is grounds for not turning over books and records that are required under the Bankruptcy Code. These entities availed themselves of bankruptcy protections. They have obligations that go with that. And they are picking and choosing which rules apply to them going forward in this bankruptcy case.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. HEADDEN: Your Honor, Todd Headden, if I may just briefly (indisc.) finish up some of this. I do want to go back and address some of the points that have been made in regards to a chart for solvency or surplus cases. That is something that the Debtor certainly can put together and would be happy to do so.

17 There is a pretty big difference between providing 18 documents to the Trustees, all of whom are court-appointed 19 fiduciaries, and turning over documents to Kretzer, given the 20 history that I think has been laid out and the Court is well 21 aware of. I'm not going to belabor that point. But that is 22 obviously the sticking point for the Debtors. We don't frankly 2.3 trust the Receiver and what they would do with the additional 24 information.

So the Debtors are trying to wrap these cases up in 1 good faith. As has been indicated here, a number of these 2 cases are (indisc.) surplus cases. And we're moving as quickly as we can into the settlement and trying to get that motion 3 filed on an expedited basis, both of the -- of I-35 and after 4 5 that settlement is entered by Judge Larson, then they can take it down to State Court in Houston. Thank you. 6 7 THE COURT: Okay. The motion to abate's denied. The motion for protective order is denied except as to document 8 9 categories 24, 25, 26, and 28. 10 We're going to reset all this stuff to Monday, September 26th. There will be a show cause hearing on that 11 12 day. 13 I will consider whether or not (indisc.) gets paid 14 off, what effect that might have on Kretzer. I do want to take 15 into account the interest of equity holders who are not part of 16 the Nate Paul group of entities or companies. 17 Some actual production of documents would be helpful, 18 would be very helpful --19 MR. LEMMON: Your Honor, --20 THE COURT: -- because even if Kretzer magically 21 disappears, even if, the failure to produce is going to be 22 considered. 2.3 MR. HEADDEN: Your Honor, is there a time on the 24 26th? 25 THE COURT: Two forty-five.

1	MR. LEMMON: Your Honor, may I speak briefly?
2	THE COURT: Briefly.
3	MR. LEMMON: Could I just ask that the Court include
4	any order that Mr. Paul personally appear before the Court?
5	THE COURT: Yes. Thank you. All right. We're
6	adjourned.

GVS Texas Holdings I, LLC et al. 5 DALLAS, TEXAS; MONDAY, AUGUST 29, 2022 1 2 (Call to Court) THE COURT: Please be seated. Good morning, 3 everyone. 4 5 It appears I've come out with everything but a 6 docket, but I think I know why I'm here. I think -- I got 7 it -- thank you very much, Ms. Jeng. I was going to wing 8 it. 9 All right. We have two matters on our 9:30 docket 10 this morning. I think that I'm going to call them in reverse order, and I'm going to start with Case No. 21-11 31121, GVS Texas Holdings I, LLC, the main case. And I'll 12 13 take appearances for the record. I'll start with those in the courtroom. 14 15 MR. PEZANOSKY: Good morning, Your Honor. Steve 16 Pezanosky with Haynes and Boone. Also appearing with me is 17 Ian Peck and Jordan Chavez, also of Haynes and Boone. We 18 represent, and I have to write it down so I can read it, 19 CBRE WWG Storage Partners JV III, LLC, which we'll just call the "Purchaser" from now on. It'll be a little bit easier. 20 21 Thank you, Your Honor. 22 THE COURT: I'm sure that I have slaughtered it in 23 every way possible, Mr. Pezanosky, so fair enough. 24 MS. WARMAN: So many acronyms and so little time. 25 Lynette Warman on behalf of Seth Kretzer, receiver for Great

1 Value Storage and World Class Capital Group. With me today 2 is my partner, Cheryl Diaz. Also in the courtroom are Mr. James Volberding and Dana Lipp, who are state court 3 litigators for the receiver. 4 5 THE COURT: Good morning to you all. 6 MS. YOUNG: Good morning, Your Honor. Liz Ziegler 7 Young for the U.S. Trustee. I believe Mr. Asher Bublick is 8 appearing via WebEx as well. 9 THE COURT: All right. Good morning. Nice to see 10 you. All right. Now, I'll take appearances on WebEx. 11 12 MR. ROTHLEDER: Good morning, Your Honor. Jeffrey Rothleder of Squire Patton Boggs on behalf of the -- now on 13 behalf of the reorganized debtors, World Class Holdings I, 14 15 and what we'll term the "Defendants." 16 With me today is my partner, Sarah Rathke, and my 17 colleague, Kyle Arendsen. 18 THE COURT: Good morning. Nice to see you. 19 MR. ROTHLEDER: Good morning. 20 THE COURT: Is there anyone else who wishes to 21 make an appearance on WebEx? 22 MS. ROSS: Yes, Your Honor. Good morning. Judith 23 Ross on behalf of Princeton Capital Corporation. 24 THE COURT: Good morning, Ms. Ross. 25 MS. ROSS: Good morning. Acorn Transcripts, LLC www.acornfla.com 1-800-750-5747

THE COURT: Any other appearances? All right. 1 2 Again, we're going to start with the pleadings that were filed in the main case, primarily two, 3 essentially, motions to reconsider: one filed by the William 4 5 Warren Group at Docket 1345; and the other filed by the 6 Reorganized Debtors and World Class Holdings I at Docket 7 1351. 8 Unless folks tell me otherwise, I think it might 9 make sense to hear those together. 10 MR. PEZANOSKY: I totally agree, Your Honor. What I would propose -- again, Steve Pezanosky on behalf of the 11 purchaser, the William Warren Group. 12 13 What I would propose is the motion for -- our motion for reconsideration and their motion to clarify --14 15 the World Class Holdings' motion to clarify are, you know, 16 very related. I would suggest we do a consolidated record 17 on both of those motions. 18 And what I would suggest, unless the Court has 19 other thoughts, I would do just a brief opening statement 20 and then make an evidentiary record by moving for the 21 admission of all of our exhibits. I don't think there are 22 any factual disputes, frankly, and I don't think there are 23 any disputes that are exhibits. I sent an email asking 24 about that yesterday. I didn't get any responses, except 25 for Ms. Warman.

1 seen you in my courtroom. 2 All right. It is 10:36. We're going to take a 3 very brief recess to see if I could get the temperature in this room adjusted, and I'll be back on the bench at 10:45. 4 5 THE CLERK: All rise. (Recess at 10:36 a.m.; reconvened at 10:46 a.m.) 6 7 THE CLERK: All rise. 8 THE COURT: Please be seated. Thank you all for 9 your patience. All right. We're going to go back on the 10 record and at this point I'm going to call the adversary --MR. ROTHLEDER: Your Honor, sorry to interrupt, if 11 I may. We filed an amended agenda, this is Jeff Rothleder. 12 Before we call the adversary, there's a one-off again item 13 regarding the Princeton settlement. 14 15 THE COURT: Okay. 16 MR. ROTHLEDER: If Your Honor would have, we would 17 like to quickly discuss with the Court. I don't think it 18 should take more than three or four minutes --19 THE COURT: All right. 20 MR. ROTHLEDER: -- before switching to the 21 adversaries. 22 THE COURT: Okay. I'm ready. 23 MR. ROTHLEDER: As Your Honor may be aware, we are 24 pleased to report that we have reached agreement and signed 25 a settlement term sheet with Princeton to resolve their

Acorn Transcripts, LLC www.acornfla.com 1-800-750-5747

1	claim in full. In fact, they will be receiving payment,
2	$11.3 million which is the full amount of their calculated
3	claim. We are in the process of filing, just documenting
4	the fulsome settlement agreement that we hope to have
5	finalized. We've worked through the weekend to get that.
6	We've worked, well, through to last week to get it done.
7	It's a complex document as you may imagine and we want to
8	get it done and get it done right for Your Honor.
9	On Friday evening, and Ms. Ross can speak for
10	herself, Princeton filed a 9019 motion seeking approval.
11	They've asked for an expedited hearing on that. We are
12	working to get the documents done so that we can get an
13	expedited hearing. But I will turn it over to Ms. Ross if
14	Your Honor's okay for her to address her motion and then
15	respond to any comments or positions.
16	MS. ROSS: Yes, Your Honor, I took the unusual
17	step of filing our own motion because we did not get it on 18	file. And I leave, God willing, I leave for a trip to
19	Greece on the 6th of September in honor of my sixty-fifth
20	birthday, which nobody outside this courtroom needs to
21	mention to anybody. In any event
22	THE COURT: Motion to strike that number for the
23	record.
24	MS. ROSS: In any event, so I filed we are
25	Mr. Rothleder is correct, we are working very hard to get

1	everything done.
2	Let me if can explain just for two seconds the
3	issue. I'd like to go ahead and get, try to get whatever
4	motion it is that Mr. Rothleder ultimately files set for the
5	2nd, I know that seems a little odd. But I'd like to go
6	ahead and get the hearing on the Court's radar so that we
7	can get everything done before I leave the United States.
8	Now, that may not the Court may conclude that
9	if we don't, you know, that there's not enough time, but I'm
10	not sure who's going to object to this. I think most people
11	are going to be relieved that it's over.
12	So I just want to mention, Judge, that that's why
13	I did what I did. They're I'm hoping we're going to get
14	everything done tonight and the motion will be filed, the
15	formal motion that has been filed by the reorganized debtors
16	will be filed tomorrow as well.
17	THE COURT: Okay. Thank you very much, Ms. Ross.
18	Is there anyone else who wishes to be heard with
19	respect to the Princeton settlement?
20	Ms. Warman?
21	MS. WARMAN: Your Honor, Lynnette Warman on behalf
22	of Seth Kretzer. All we'd like to say is that the receiver
23	may end up having to object to the settlement. There are
24	terms and conditions in the term sheet which have
25	ramifications involving the receiver which far exceed just a

simple payment of money between the two parties, the 1 2 Princeton and whatever group is paying them. And so the receiver wouldn't object to a hearing 3 4 on Friday, but we'd just like to make sure that we have an 5 opportunity to file an objection prior to the hearing. So 6 that would be my only request, Your Honor. 7 THE COURT: All right. Thank you very much, 8 Ms. Warman. 9 MR. ROTHLEDER: Your Honor, from the defendants 10 and reorganized debtors' position is, we fully respect Ms. 11 Ross' trial schedule. We've been working, everyone's been 12 working and we hope -- we want everyone to be able to go on their trips, trust me. 13 We just want to make sure we get the documents 14 15 done and right, and we actually have spoken with the U.S. 16 Trustee's office as required by the local rules and they've 17 expressed an interest in making sure that the settlement 18 agreement gets reviewed. As Ms. Ross said, we hope to get 19 it done tonight or first thing tomorrow. I think we are 20 close unless Ms. Ross tells me otherwise, but we can do that 21 offline. 22 We just want to make sure that there's flexibility 23 should the Court set something in case things go sideways here. But --24 25 MS. ROSS: Judge, I don't know how anything could Acorn Transcripts, LLC www.acornfla.com 1-800-750-5747

1 qo sideways. We had -- we attached our agreement with the 2 term sheet, which is a binding term sheet to what we sent out, so Ms. Warman has full information about the terms of 3 4 the agreement.

5 The only thing that remains is that we agreed, my 6 client agreed to negotiate in good faith with respect to one 7 issue. We have until closing to continue to negotiate on that, and so -- which we will continue to do. So our view 8 9 is that we're either going to get that part of it negotiated 10 tonight and proceed. We're going to proceed with the new negotiated agreement or we're not, and we're going to 11 proceed with the original one. 12

13 So that's our view and I think let's not worry about it too much, because Mr. Rothleder and I will do our 14 15 jobs and try to get it all resolved today.

16 THE COURT: Okay. And so, Ms. Ross, how long will 17 you be gone? 18

MS. ROSS: Unfortunately there's an extended 19 period. I will be gone until the 22nd of September. 20 THE COURT: Okay. So I've got --21 MS. ROSS: Of course, I had to -- excuse me, 22 Judge. 23 THE COURT: Oh, no, no, go ahead.

24 MS. ROSS: I didn't mean to interrupt. 25

THE COURT: No, go ahead.

Acorn Transcripts, LLC www.acornfla.com 1-800-750-5747

MS. ROSS: Let me look at my calendar here, just 1 2 one minute, because it's possible I might be here on the 6th 3 - yeah, no, I have to leave. 4 THE COURT: Well, the Court's not available on the 5 6th anyway. 6 MS. ROSS: Yeah, that's over the Labor Day 7 weekend, yeah. Judge, I get back on the --8 THE COURT: Well, actually I'm available on the afternoon of the 6th. I'm not available in the morning. 9 10 I'm looking at my calendar. MS. ROSS: Okay. Well, I return -- I'll be back 11 in the office on the 22nd, Your Honor. 12 13 THE COURT: Right. Okay. Well, I'll --MR. ROTHLEDER: And, Your Honor --14 15 THE COURT: Please, go ahead. 16 MR. ROTHLEDER: -- from our perspective we want to 17 get this done. As Your Honor is well aware, the 1031 18 deadline is September 19th, which is one reason for moving 19 expeditiously. 20 THE COURT: No, I understand. I do understand 21 that. It's just obviously, we are where we are --22 MR. ROTHLEDER: Yeah. 23 THE COURT: -- in terms of the calendar. And --24 MR. ROTHLEDER: Understood, Your Honor. 25 THE COURT: -- we're looking to take a 33-day Acorn Transcripts, LLC www.acornfla.com 1-800-750-5747

1	motion and compress it to what appears to be six or seven
2	days. All right. I mean obviously all parties' rights are
3	reserved. I'm not taking a position on either expedition or
4	the supplement approval. I haven't had an opportunity to
5	review the 9019 motion at all. I did understand from review
6	of the pleadings relative to the matters on for today that
7	essentially there was a settlement. And that at least from
8	World Class and the reorganized debtors' perspective, that
9	they believe that it either moots or is grounds for a stay
10	or abstention that much I know.
11	All right. So let's go ahead. Anything else with 12	respect to the open hand item as Mr. Rothleder explained it?
13	MR. ROTHLEDER: Nothing, Your Honor, from us.
14	THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.
15	So I'm going to go ahead and call Adversary No.
16	22-3057. Is there anyone who wishes to make an appearance
17	that has not already done so?
18	(No audible response)
19	THE COURT: Okay. Hearing none I think the gang's
20	all here. One thing that I have to say, Mr. Rothleder, is
21	this is an adversary proceeding, and our general order is
22	clear that adversary proceedings are in person proceedings.
23	And so if there was going to be a request to
24	appear via WebEx, that should have been a request that was
25	made by counsel. So I expected to come in to live

Acorn Transcripts, LLC www.acornfla.com 1-800-750-5747

1 litigants. I'll hear you guys today, but please recognize 2 in the future that our adversary rules, in fact, our Chapter 11 rules are -- I routinely do give the privilege of WebEx 3 4 to litigants, but adversaries are a different animal. 5 MR. ROTHLEDER: We apologize for that, Your Honor. 6 We did not realize that nuance and we will make sure to note 7 it going forward. 8 THE COURT: Okay. 9 MR. ROTHLEDER: With respect to the adversary, I'm 10 going to turn the virtual podium, if Your Honor permits, over to my partner Ms. Rathke. 11 12 THE COURT: Of course. Ms. Rathke. 13 MS. RATHKE: Thank you, Your Honor. And we are here today on the matter of the non-14 15 debtor's defendant's motion to dismiss the receiver's 16 adversary complaint. So that would be Docket No. 15, the 17 receiver's response or opposition is 19. And then the brief 18 in support of the receiver's response is 20 and our reply brief is 29. 19 20 Now, I'm aware that the receiver has filed what it 21 terms a surreply yesterday, not sure what the docket number 22 is on that. 23 THE COURT: I do have --24 MS. RATHKE: I quess what I --25 THE COURT: -- each of the substantive motions. Acorn Transcripts, LLC www.acornfla.com 1-800-750-5747

1 Thank you very much. Appreciate it.

MS. RATHKE: Wonderful. So the Court rules and customs permit this Court to act in a manner that's consistent with common sense to ensure a reasonable resolution of this Chapter 11 bankruptcy and all associated matters. And this is an instance where especially as the passage of time has shown, it does not make sense for the Court to entertain this adversary proceeding.

9 So we've moved pursuant to a number of bases to 10 dismiss or abate this proceeding for now. Now, the 11 receiver's claims have always been known and termed by this 12 Court to be derivative of the Princeton claim.

Of Princeton and W -- World Class Holdings has now come to an agreement to settle that claim, thus the receiver seeks to vindicate a derivative right to a multi-month adversary proceeding process, where there's now agreement that the underlying right has been satisfied.

18 Now, what happens with regard to Princeton's claim 19 going forward, pursuant to the term sheet that this Court 20 has in the record, is as follows: The Princeton --21 Princeton will move to terminate the receivership and then 22 the receiver court, District Court of Texas, Judge Hall, 23 will determine first what the receiver's appropriate fee is. 24 And second, will examine what it's already collected 25 pursuant to recovery of that fee.

Acorn Transcripts, LLC www.acornfla.com 1-800-750-5747

1	Now, as a reminder, the receiver has been at work
2	and during our May 12th, 2022 hearing before this Court, the
3	receiver represented on the record that as of that date it
4	had collected $2,114,085.29 which after taking out costs and
5	fees and expenses, it reported left a balance for the 6	receiver of nearly $1 million.
7	The receiver's fee is 25 percent of what's
8	recovered. What will be recovered is $11.3 million.
9	Therefore, without knowing, and the receiver's been coy
10	about what it's recovered since the May hearing. We don't
11	know in this court, and it will be determined by another
12	court, what the receiver is entitled to recover and what it
13	has recovered.
14	In addition, the receiver is fully empowered by 15	Judge Hall to do the work that it needs to do to recover its
16	fees and it has been doing that work.
17	THE COURT: Ms. Rathke
18	MS. RATHKE: Therefore
19	THE COURT: Ms. Warman has risen with an
20	objection, just one moment.
21	MS. WARMAN: Your Honor, I object, I'm not exactly
22	sure what Ms. Rathke is arguing. This doesn't sound like
23	the arguments that were made in the motion to dismiss or the
24	response that was filed by the receiver in connection with 25	it. It sounds like it's some combination of their motions to -- motion to compromise and other motions that might have

1 to -- motion to compromise and other motions that might have 2 been filed even in other courts. But it doesn't seem to 3 relate to the motion to the dismiss. So I object to that 4 extent. I don't believe any of this was in their motion to 5 dismiss or our response.

6 THE COURT: Ms. Rathke? Ms. Rathke, response? 7 MS. RATHKE: Yes. There certainly was in our 8 reply brief in the introductory section where we discussed 9 the impact of the Princeton settlement on what the receiver 10 is -- what it makes sense for the Court to do.

In addition, the third basis in which we argue our motion to dismiss is based on the idea of abstention. And these developments, though they're relatively new, pertain directly to that.

Abstention is a doctrine of common sense that takes into account the status of the proceedings, the status of any related proceedings in state court, parallel proceedings, the prevalence of state court questions over bankruptcy related questions, and basically to bottom line it, what makes sense to do under the circumstances.

And this Court and in the main proceeding that is before this Court, the Court is empowered to take judicial (audio cuts out) any other notice that it wants or no notice at all of where this case finds itself in the overall posture.

This has been a hard-fought case on a variety of fronts. The receiver came in, as this Court will recall, not -- it hasn't been the case that the receiver has been in the case since the beginning patiently waiting its turn to be -- for its claim to be handled. Rather, the receiver appeared in this case --

MS. WARMAN: Your Honor, again, this is way beyond the scope of anything that's in her reply. And, in fact, the receiver filed a notice of appearance in this case on September 30th of 2021 which was a couple of months after the case was filed, which I admit the Court could take judicial notice of, but then let's take judicial notice of the right date.

But again, if what they're doing is arguing their reply brief, they should be limited to what they alleged in the reply brief. And all of the testimony from May 12th was not in the reply brief, and was not mentioned at all and is really not relevant to what's going on here today. That's the basis of my objection.

THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, Ms. Warman. I mean obviously there has been an intervening set of circumstances given the settlement. I do believe that World Class has repeatedly argued again for abstention. Some of this will go to that. Some of this obviously is new and goes to the settlement itself. So I'm going to give Ms.

1 Rathke a little bit of rope here, but I mean, I do agree 2 with Ms. Warman, we're here on the motion to dismiss. I'll allow you to argue abstention. I won't hear anything with 3 4 respect to withdrawal of the reference today because that 5 actually wasn't properly teed up pursuant to 5011. But 6 please, continue. 7 MS. RATHKE: Thank you, Your Honor. 8 I don't think we're required to ignore recent 9 developments on this Court's docket and I don't think that 10 would make any sense for us to do. The receiver did not file its claim in this court 11 until June 2022, which of course, is after the claim 12 deadline had passed and after it became clear that there 13 would be equity money in the estate. 14 15 Now, granted this Court held that the receiver's 16 delay was excusable neglect, but it is a late filed claim 17 all the same, and one that's been filed since and parallel 18 to the state court case, in which many developments have 19 occurred that we have some understanding of and perhaps some 20 not understanding of. 21 The receiver wants as many fora as possible for 22 reasons that are obviously in its interests. But that does 23 not mean that it's in the interests of this Court or for the 24 efficient administration of justice to schedule and pursue a 25 late fee litigation matter in this court that this Court will have to oversee, while it is most likely that most of the issues pertinent to the receiver will be determined by Judge Hall.

And again, those are what the receiver is entitled to recover and how much is left to do that. I think it makes the most sense in the world to allow that court and to defer to that court and hold off or dismiss the receiver's complaint, late filed complaint in this case.

9 So let me begin by talking about some of the 10 abstention factors in particularity. First, the efficient 11 administration of the estate. Now, as part of the 12 settlement terms agreed to by the defendants and Princeton,
13 Princeton will next take steps to terminate the receiver

14 order in the Texas District Court.

15 At that point, the receiver's rights will be 16 determined and should be determined in that court. That 17 will have an impact on what goes on here. And we don't know 18 what that impact will be, but it doesn't make sense for this 19 Court to oversee, monitor and compel complex litigation in 20 the face of the fact that we all know that this is going to 21 be a parallel proceeding that will likely impact scope of 22 what this Court is able to do, perhaps the receiver's rights 23 and, you know, it perhaps may be the case that there's not 24 even enough recovery for the receiver still to achieve and 25 it makes sense to allow a separate proceeding in this court.

In addition, there's the Texas Appeals Court which 1 2 is deciding the scope of the receivership order now and is due to issue a decision. That also may well impact what we 3 4 do here. 5 THE COURT: But that order, there's no stay in 6 place, correct? 7 MS. WARMAN: Correct. 8 MS. RATHKE: There's not. 9 THE COURT: Okay. 10 MS. RATHKE: This Court and these parties have for months worked and labored and done their duties with regard 11 to the Chapter 11 case before it, which is complex and 12 multi-faceted and which is now, thank goodness, nearing a 13 full resolution, except for this late filed claim. 14 We are 15 so close to being done and we should be done. 16 Second abstention factor I'd like to discuss is whether state law issues predominate over bankruptcy issues. 17 18 This is just a matter of math. The receiver's adversary 19 proceeding claims are all state law claims with the 20 exception of its novel Section 549 claim, which the receiver 21 even concedes that it has no traditional standing to assert, 22 and that the Court should nevertheless allow it to assert 23 owing to quote/unquote extraordinary circumstances. This is a state law claim. 24 25 And while the receiver argues that it is routine

RECEIVER'S REPORT

I. EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Natin "Nate" Paul is the head of an enterprise which will be referred to as the "Nate Paul Organization." Paul borrowed millions from investors and lenders to purchase commercial real estate along the I-35 corridor. These properties are under the corporate name World Class. In addition, with money from investors and lenders, he acquired 69 self-storage units in 11 states, under 16 corporate shells. These are under the corporate name Great Value Storage.

Paul created hundreds of corporate shells—passing money among them without documentation, corporate formalities, or legitimate purpose. Some shells hold a single real estate property. Some hold nothing but are merely paper companies he uses to transfer funds from one entity to another through the guise of "contracts," or "consulting fees." To obscure the purposes of these organizations and to conceal and transfer funds, he deliberately created an opaque, complex, and largely undocumented web of corporate shells, with his apex entity, World Class Capital Group, at the top of the pyramid, over all or most the subsidiaries, real estate and accounts, and himself as sole owner of World Class Capital Group.

In 2018, Paul's debt load exceeded his ability to make debt payments from properties' cash flow. He began defaulting on loans. Creditors, such as Princeton Capital, began demanding payment and initiating foreclosure or lawsuits. Through thousands of undocumented wire transfers, Paul frantically transferred investor and creditor funds from bank to bank, out of his corporate shells, to conceal funds from seizure. Paul filed frivolous lawsuits against creditors, attempting to block or slow foreclosure. It appears that every single presiding state district judge rejected his lawsuits. Paul took a dozen properties into Austin bankruptcy court. Paul also filed 16 bankruptcies in Dallas for his corporate shells that held the 69 self-storage units.

In 2012, Paul borrowed $5.6 million from a company named Capital Point Partners II, LLP ("Capital Point"). This money was used to purchase storage units and other real estate. Paul used a corporate shell called Great Value Storage, LLC to make the loan and purchases. Paul promised, through the loan documents, to provide regular and accurate accounting records. Paul promised to keep cash and real estate in the company. Paul kept none of these promises. Nate Paul and World Class Capital Group, LLC co-signed and guaranteed payment.

In 2016, Paul defaulted on the Capital Point loan to Great Value Storage, LLC. Princeton Capital Corp. ("Princeton") purchased the loan from Capital Point. Princeton refinanced the loan for Paul. Again, Paul promised to supply accurate accounting and records and to keep the cash and real estate in the company. Yet again, he did not.

In 2019, Princeton filed suit in this Court. Paul refused to provide any routine financial discovery documents, such as records, accounting, or payments. Paul refused to comply with this Court's orders to turn over documents. Princeton filed a summary judgment motion. Paul still refused to provide documents and records. The Court granted Princeton's summary judgment motion, and later final entered judgment for $9.9 million against Great Value Storage, LLC and World Class Capital Group, LLC.

By that time, however, Paul had stripped the two companies—Great Value Storage, LLC and World Class Capital Group, LLC—of all cash and assets. In a 16-month period from 2018 to 2020, Paul transferred at least $94.7 million out of the Great Value Storage, LLC and World Class Capital Group, LLC accounts, moving the money through his network of entities without any documentation. Paul and his putative "bookkeeper" filed affidavits in this Court and in the First Court of Appeals, swearing under oath that the companies no longer owned anything more than old office furniture. Paul and his bookkeeper provided no supporting records. They refused to explain the disappearance of millions of cash and real estate.

Paul refused to provide post-judgment discovery documents. Realizing Paul had looted the companies and was stalling, Princeton moved this Court to appoint a Receiver for Great Value Storage, LLC and World Class Capital Group, LLC to take control of the companies, and their subsidiaries, cash and assets. Princeton asked the Court to appoint Mr. Seth Kretzer, an experienced Receiver. Princeton asked the Court to pay Mr. Kretzer 25% of funds recovered, plus expenses. If Mr. Kretzer failed, he would get nothing. It would be a huge risk for Mr. Kretzer. Princeton disclosed appointment of the Receiver in its public filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

This Court granted Princeton's request and appointed Mr. Kretzer as Receiver over the two apex Nate Paul companies. The Court directed its Receiver to seize all cash and real estate, control all subsidiaries, block all fraudulent transfers by Paul, identify and respond to any detected criminal activity, and find sufficient assets to enforce this Court's final judgment and get Princeton fully paid, plus his Receivership fees and expenses. Mr. Kretzer accepted the appointment on these terms. He filed his oath, affirming he would "faithfully perform and discharge the duties of receiver in this cause and will obey the orders of the Court."

The foundational receivership case by the Texas Supreme Court is the 1976 decision of First Southern Properties.<sup>1</sup> When a court signs a receivership order, all of the non-exempt property of the judgment debtor becomes subject to the exclusive control of the court under a concept called custodia legis, that is, "in the custody of the law." As corporations do not have exempt property, 100% of the corporation's property, whether real, tangible, intangible, cash, or subsidiaries, including claims for recovery of misappropriated funds, becomes part of the custodia legis receivership estate solely controlled by the court. The court appoints a receiver as the court's sole agent to control, manage, and liquidate as necessary the receivership estate. No one, not even a good faith purchaser for value, may transfer property from the receivership estate without permission of the court or the court's designated receiver, and especially not an insider such as a corporate owner or officer. If such transfer of cash or assets occur, it is void. Not merely voidable, but entirely void. The receiver not only can, but must, claw back money and property misappropriated by the corporate officers.

This Court's receivership has been an unalloyed success. This month, Paul finally paid Princeton $11,372,698.89, full payment of the Court's final judgment, plus legal fees. Over 13 months of intensive, daily, contentious litigation up against Paul's 20+ lawyer strike force and unlimited budget, your Receiver confronted the Nate Paul Organization at every turn. Princeton Capital Corp. v. Great Value Storage, LLC and World Class Capital Group, LLC, et al., No. 2019-18855 Receiver's Report Page 7 of 100

- Filed a bankruptcy proof of claim for this Court's judgment and receivership fees in the Dallas bankruptcy court (which consolidated the 16 bankruptcy cases involving the 69 self-storage units);
- Filed 11 bankruptcy proofs of claim for this Court's judgment and receivership fees in the Austin bankruptcy court (involving 11 commercial real estate properties);
- Traced tens of millions of cash transfers by Paul and his organization through hundreds of bank accounts, with some 60,000 wire transfers, not a one of them documented;
- Traced undocumented and unauthorized transfers of corporate real estate by Paul;
- Filed pleadings in the First Court of Appeals responding to attacks by the Nate Paul Organization on this Court's final judgment and receivership order;
- Filed pleadings in the First Court of Appeals responding to Paul's mandamus action against the Court's receivership order;
- Settled two frivolous delaying lawsuits filed by Paul against two secured creditors, easing the burden on Travis County District Courts;
- Non-suited a frivolous lawsuit filed by Paul in Travis County against a secured creditor. The Travis County District Court agreed, twice, your Receiver possessed this authority;
- Sought dismissal of appeal by Paul in the El Paso Court of Appeals against a secured creditor;
- Sought dismissal of appeal and a mandamus by Paul in the Austin Court of Appeals against a secured creditor;
- Filed a lawsuit in the Dallas bankruptcy case against Paul and his conspirators and corporate shells, seeking recovery of this Court's judgment for Princeton;
- Rebuffed Paul's frivolous Travis County lawsuits against a secured creditor involving commercial real estate. Four Travis County District Courts agreed your Receiver possessed this authority;

- Defeated a lawsuit Paul filed against your Receiver. The second lawsuit is still pending in this Court, awaiting Rule 91a dismissal given Receiver's derived judicial immunity.
- Issued 120 subpoenas for corporate and tax records.

Here is a timeline of the Receiver's efforts and results:

Princeton Capital Corp. v. Great Value Storage, LLC and World Class Capital Group, LLC, et al., No. 2019-18855 Receiver's Report Page 10 of 100 Blocked at nearly every turn, the defeated Paul finally decided to pay this Court's judgment in full and end the receivership. But he had a problem. He wanted to circumvent this Court because he did not want this Court's interference or control. Paul wanted to avoid the custodia legis effect of the receivership. Paul's contemplated plan would be void if he did not get permission from this Court or its Receiver. His reason for such a plan? Paul wanted to pay the judgment but only in such a way that he could still undermine the two settlement agreements signed last year by your Receiver involving two Austin commercial properties. If Paul simply settled and paid the Court's judgment in the normal way, his attacks on the Receiver would become moot because, once the judgment was paid, the receivership would be over. He would not be able to continue to file frivolous lawsuits against the two secured creditors, blocking their ability to get clean title policies.

So, what did Paul do? Paul hatched a plan to circumvent this Court. He proposed a plan to the U.S. Bankruptcy Court in Dallas and to Princeton. He proposed to create a new corporate shell named Phoenix Lending, LLC ("Phoenix"). Phoenix would be a paper company without any capitalization, solely controlled by Paul. Through Phoenix, Paul would sign a document purporting to "purchase" from Princeton the original 2016 note payable agreement which Princeton originally purchased from Capital Point, as well as this Court's March 4, 2021 final judgment. The amount of the full payment, $11.37 million, would be moved from the Bankruptcy Court controlled reserve fund account, consisting of money held back from the 16 bankrupt companies that once owned the storage units, would be transferred to another shell company owned by Paul called World Class Holdings I, LLC. From there, the money would be transferred through a loan to a new account set up for Phoenix, then wired to Princeton's account. The money would go completely around this Court. By these means:

- Nate Paul would gain sole control over this Court's final judgment;
- Paul would become both the plaintiff and the defendants in this Court, substituting Phoenix Lending for Princeton Capital, and without informing the Court that both were solely controlled by Paul;
- Paul would be able to get Princeton and Phoenix to "agree" or "not oppose" his motions to stay, dismiss, challenge, attack your Receiver, and better, try to undo the Receiver's two settlement agreements last year for the two Austin commercial real estate properties;
- Paul would become both the appellants and the appellee in the First Court of Appeals, allowing him to file "agreed" and "unopposed" motions attacking this Court's receivership order and the two settlement agreements by your Receiver;
- By pretending in the First Court of Appeals there was a legal dispute between Phoenix (replacing Princeton as appellee) and Great Value Storage, LLC and World Class Capital Group, LLC (the appellants), he would ask the Court of Appeals to issue opinions that this Court's receivership order was incorrect in some way and try to undo last year's two settlement agreements by Receiver. These are called advisory opinions and prohibited. All courts require a genuine case in controversy between unrelated parties for jurisdiction.
- Paul would therefore completely circumvent this Court and its Receiver. This Court would not be able to review or approve this agreement. This Court would not be able to control the $11.37 million as part of the custodia legis receivership estate.
- Paul would claim that he did not have to pay the 25% ($2.84 million) receivership fees. Paul would argue that the Court's judgment was never technically satisfied, merely re-assigned.

The U.S. Bankruptcy Court approved this settlement agreement proposed by Paul and Princeton. While acknowledging the agreement was unorthodox and fraught with issues, the Court approved it under the bankruptcy factors applicable to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9019. The Court authorized release of $11.37 million from the bankruptcycontrolled reserve account directly to Princeton. Princeton is now fully paid. In substance and reality, this Court's March 4, 2021 final judgment is now fully satisfied. While holding the Receiver's pending proofs of claims and adversary actions in the Austin and Dallas Bankruptcy Courts in place until the process is completed, it is therefore time to wind down the receivership and order payment of the $2.84 million receivership fees to Mr. Kretzer. $3.5 million is already set aside in the Dallas Bankruptcy Court reserve funds for these fees and expenses. All that is required is an order by this Court approving Mr. Kretzer's fees. Then the Bankruptcy Judge will release funds from the reserve account. Therefore, after four years of refusing to pay Princeton, defying the discovery orders of this Court, ignoring this Court's receivership document turnover order, rejecting this Court's final judgment, the Court is in a position to close this case on terms that are proper and just. Princeton and the Receiver will be fully paid. The money is already paid to Princeton and set aside for Receiver. The cost of litigation will fall on the person who caused it, Paul.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation ("FBI") searched Paul's home and office in August 2019, pursuant to a search warrant signed by a U.S. Magistrate who found probable cause to believe the locations contained evidence of criminal activity. The Nate Paul Organization, headed by Paul and his sister and aide-de-camp, Sheena Paul, is a coast-to-coast conspiracy to defraud, hinder, and delay investors, lenders, and creditors and mislead judges. The remainder of this report and the supporting exhibits support your Receiver's conclusions.

II. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Mr. Nate Paul created hundreds of corporate shells to hold commercial real estate across the state. Tens of millions of dollars are missing and unaccounted. Mr. Kretzer is the courtappointed Receiver for the parent entity, World Class Capital Group, LLC and a related entity, Great Value Storage, LLC.

A. Harris County District Judge Ursula Hall appointed Mr. Kretzer as Receiver for the parent company over Paul's real estate enterprise.

Following a March 4, 2021 $9.9 final judgment in the 165th District Court in Houston in favor of Princeton Capital, the Honorable District Judge Ursula Hall appointed Mr. Kretzer as Receiver for the two parent judgment debtors, World Class Capital Group, LLC, and Great Value Storage, LLC.<sup>2</sup> Leading up to the judgment, Princeton Capital, a real estate creditor whose predecessor loaned Nate Paul's entities $5.6 million,<sup>3</sup> owned a Note Payable Agreement signed by Great Value Storage, LLC and World Class Capital Group, LLC and guaranteed by Nate Paul. When the Defendants defaulted on Princeton's Note Payable Agreement, Princeton filed suit in 2019 in this Court to enforce the agreement and obtain a judgment against the Defendants.

Princeton served the two Nate Paul Entities with routine discovery for garden variety financial records, such as transaction documents, payments, communication, and clear understanding of Paul's transactions.<sup>4</sup> The Nate Paul Entities obstructed all discovery. They delivered no documents or answers whatsoever.<sup>5</sup> They made specious objections ungrounded in Texas law or the facts of the loan transaction.<sup>6</sup>

In the summer of 2021, Princeton Capital served the Nate Paul Entities with routine postjudgment financial document discovery. Paul and his attorneys refused to provide any documents, objecting to every request a for a total of 57 objections, and without providing a single page of financial records.

On September 8, 2021, this Court appointed Mr. Kretzer as Receiver for World Class Capital Group, LLC, and Great Value Storage, LLC.<sup>7</sup> The Receivership Order also provides that the Receiver is entitled to recover a 25% fee and his expenses.<sup>8</sup>

Since that date, for the last 13 months, Receiver has been performing his duties pursuant to the Receivership Order. Receiver has recovered funds on behalf of the receivership estate and therefore Princeton. Receiver has also incurred significant expenses as a result of approximately 25 state court lawsuits, state court appeals and mandamus actions, and bankruptcy petitions,

B. Merger of Princeton's Note Payable Agreement with the Court's March 4, 2021 Judgment.

As mentioned, this case began because the Defendants defaulted on a $5.6 million Note Payable Agreement owed to Princeton Capital. For later purposes, it is important to pause here and discuss the legal consequences of the Court's March 4, 2021 judgment on Princeton's note payable agreement.

Under Texas law, it is well established that upon entry of a judgment, the contractual relationship between the parties that gave rise to the debt merges into the judgment.<sup>10</sup> Res judicata serves the public goals of affording full respect to prior judgments and relieving courts from repetitious litigation, and the private goal of "repose"—to be finally free from the cost and hassle of litigation.<sup>11</sup>

The doctrine of merger is a specific application of res judicata, and operates with the same principles.<sup>12</sup> Under the doctrine, "if a plaintiff prevails in a lawsuit, his cause of action

Therefore, applying these long-standing principles, when the Court issued final judgment March 4, 2021 in favor of Princeton Capital and against the Defendants, the underlying Note Payable Agreement on which Princeton Capital filed suit merged into the final judgment. On that date, Princeton Capital no longer possessed interests in the note payable agreement as the Note Payable Agreement functionally ceased to exist. There was therefore no longer any Note Payable Agreement between the parties which could be sold or assigned by Princeton Capital to anyone. Any attempt by Princeton to sell or assign the Note Payable Agreement would constitute a legal nullity. Nor could Princeton, or anyone else, file a new lawsuit against the Defendants under the Note Payable Agreement. Such a suit would be barred by the doctrine of res judicata.

C. The Nate Paul Entities Appealed to the First Court of Appeals.

The Nate Paul Entities appealed Princeton Capital's judgment and Judge Hall's receivership order to the First Court of Appeals. Both notices of appeal were assigned to cause number, 01-21-00284-CV.

The parties filed briefs. The Nate Paul Entities also filed a brief challenging Judge Hall's receivership order. Receiver filed a reply brief.

The Court conducted oral argument June 1, 2022. At oral argument, Princeton's counsel informed the Court of the necessity and effectiveness of the Receiver's work.<sup>15</sup>

As the Receiver began to search for documents and records from third parties and to seize assets, the Paul Entities filed a series of emergency motions and a mandamus action against the receivership order. The Paul Entities did not supersede the judgment. The Paul Entities did, however, file self-serving affidavits by Paul and a bookkeeper, claiming the companies have no equity at all. They posted a $100 deposit for each company with the clerk, asserting these constitute adequate supersedeas bonds for the two companies and their tens of millions of real estate. Their affidavits contradict corporate records supplied earlier indicating both entities held millions in cash and assets. Paul and the bookkeeper were vague and equivocating when asked where the assets and cash went.<sup>16</sup>

Princeton Capital Corp. v. Great Value Storage, LLC and World Class Capital Group, LLC, et al., No. 2019-18855 Receiver's Report Page 18 of 100

In one of their first motions in First Court of Appeals, October 5, 2021, the Paul Entities admitted Paul had fraudulently transferred $96,000 mere days after this Court signed the receivership order.<sup>17</sup>

On December 23, 2021, the Court, for the second time, ordered Paul to return to this Court and create a record to demonstrate the proper amount of the supersedeas bond:

Because appellants did not comply with this Court's order, the order of October 26, 2021 was withdrawn, the abatement was lifted, the appeal was reinstated on the active docket, and the temporary grant of appellants' motion for emergency relief was withdrawn and the motion for emergency relief was denied. This ruling stated that it did not prevent appellants from obtaining suspension of enforcement of the judgment by obtaining the trial court's approval of a good and sufficient bond. See TEX. R. APP. P. 24.1(a),(b)(2). To date, appellants have not sought approval from the trial court of their nominal cash deposit.

Appellants also filed an original proceeding in appellate cause number 01-21-00672-CV challenging the trial court and the receiver's actions in enforcing the judgment after appellants filed a nominal cash deposit. This Court issued an order on December 6, 2021, granting the motion for temporary relief, and stayed the trial court's order appointing the receiver. Today, we withdraw that order and lift that stay.

See Order, Dec. 23, 2021, No. 01-21-00284-CV.

Paul did not do so. He refused to comply with this Court's order to provide corporate asset documents and records to Princeton Capital in preparation for the bond hearing.<sup>18</sup> In response, the Court cancelled the January 28, 2022 supersedeas bond hearing.

&lt;sup>17</sup> See Appellants' Emergency Motion to Stay Appointment of Receiver, Oct. 5, 2021, at 3, n.1 ("forcing the judgment debtor [Nate Paul] to remove GVS as a property manager and thereby depriving GVS of revenue from its management role."); Appellants' Reply to Receiver's Response, Oct. 20, 2021, at 17 admitting, "allowing the debtor storage property owners [Nate Paul] to cancel the Property Management Agreement for cause.").

D. This Court imposed a temporary injunction to prevent asset transfers.

This Court, concerned that Paul would continue to transfer assets, issued, sua sponte, a temporary injunction January 17, 2022, barring Paul from transferring any assets until she decides the supersedeas bond question:<sup>19</sup>

ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED that Great Value Storage, LLC ("GVS") and World Class Capital Group, LLC ("WCCG") are ENJOINED from dissipating or transferring assets to avoid satisfaction of the judgment, until a ruling is entered resolving the Contest, pursuant to Tex. R. App. P. 24.2(c)(2), currently set to be heard on January 28, 2022.

Your Receiver found a persistent pattern by Paul to abuse the legal system with frivolous lawsuits and appeals using his collection of corporate shells as fronts. Underneath parent company World Class Capital Holding, LLC are hundreds of interrelated and interlocking shell companies, some holding real estate, some holding contractual rights of one sort or another, some simply a mystery.

Paul's World Class entities are frequent litigants in Texas and federal courts. Many of the World Class entities are in bankruptcy. A number of these entities, like these this parent entity for which Mr. Kretzer has been appointed as Receiver, have defaulted on commercial loans held by lenders across Texas. All of these entities are controlled by Paul.<sup>20</sup> Paul also

In a related case, Paul sued the other Receiver in a related case, Mr. Greg Milligan (and his attorneys), appointed by Hon. Travis County District Judge Jan Soifer.<sup>23</sup>

Your Receiver has not been exempted from Paul's personal and legal attacks. On November 30, 2021, Paul, through two subsidiary shell companies, sued your Receiver and his law firm.<sup>24</sup> The petition is peppered with personal attacks. See Image No.: 99176066 (e.g., "Seth Kretzer has gone mad," p. 1, "self-aggrandizing," p. 2, "delusions of grandeur," p. 9.). The case was promptly transferred to the 165th District Court, awaiting dismissal on Receiver's Rule 91a dismissal motion.

Weeks later, March 31, 2022, Paul sued your Receiver again, through another shell company.<sup>25</sup> Again, Paul leveled invectives. See Image No.: 101316689 ("bully," p. 3, "rogue," p. 4.).

III. PAUL AND HIS COMPANIES REFUSED TO COMPLY WITH ANY ORDER BY THIS COURT TO PRODUCE FINANCIAL DOCUMENTS AND RECORDS.

[Mr. Matt Parks, counsel for Nate Paul Entities]: And in closing words from me, Your Honor, I know and understand, and this will not be the only case we are hearing where we are accused of delay and obstruction. I get it. Paul, frankly, may be detestable. I don't know. I don't have a personal opinion about it yet.

[The Court]: Is he what? I'm sorry.

[Mr. Parks]: I said he may be detestable. I really don't know.

— January 5, 2022 hearing transcript at 88-89, No. 19-18855, 165th District Court, Harris County. Comments by Mr. Parks counsel for Paul, regarding his client.

Displaying shocking mendacity and disrespect to this Court, Paul never complied with the Court's September 8, 2021 order to deliver routine financial records and documents to your Receiver. To this date, Paul has not delivered a single meaningful financial record or document to Receiver. Receiver was forced to obtain all financial records from third parties.

Nor did Paul comply with this Court's January 24, 2022 order to produce records to Princeton to prepare for the Court's January 28, 2022 supersedeas bond hearing, which the Court cancelled for his lack of compliance.

Nor did Paul comply with subpoenas served by Receiver on him and his entities in the

Austin Bankruptcy cases seeking routine financial records and documents.<sup>27</sup>

IV. PAUL AND HIS COMPANIES REFUSED TO COMPLY WITH MORE THAN 30 ORDERS OF OTHER COURTS TO PRODUCE FINANCIAL DOCUMENTS AND RECORDS.

"Because [Nate Paul Entities] appellants did not comply with this Court's order, the order of October 26, 2021 was withdrawn, the [receivership] abatement was lifted, . . . . To date, appellants have not sought approval from the trial court of their nominal cash deposit."

Great Value Storage, LLC, et al. v. Princeton Capital Corp., no. 01-21-00284-CV, First Court of Appeals, Houston (December 23, 2021).

Paul, individually and through his entities, has defied or forced orders by federal and state judges across Texas: (1) ordering production of corporate financial documents, (2) finding in contempt, (3) removing him from corporate control, (4) imposing final judgment with prejudice, against which Paul nevertheless refiled litigation, (5) imposing injunctions, (6) striking affidavit, (7) ordering show cause, (8) documenting fraudulent transfers and misappropriation, and (9) appointing chapter 11 trustees upon discovery that Paul misappropriated money from debtor in possession accounts:

V. NATE PAUL AND HIS ORGANIZATION MISAPPROPRIATED TENS OF MILLIONS OF CASH AND REAL ESTATE.

Following thorough review of bank statements, transaction documents, transcripts, and pleadings, your Receiver determined that Paul and his organization misappropriated tens of millions of dollars of cash and real estate. He stripped World Class Capital Group, LLC and Great Value Storage, LLC of cash and real estate. He transferred money and property to personal accounts, purchased luxury items, and traveled lavishly. He transferred money and property to other shell companies he owns. Although it is perfectly acceptable and common to place a single real estate property in a single LLC, many of these other shells conduct no legitimate commercial business. They are merely shells to conceal and transfer assets. Receiver has found no evidence Paul has filed any federal tax return since 2017. His CPA, Julia Clark, refused to respond to five federal subpoenas served on her by your Receiver.

A. Paul created a dense web of corporate shells to disguise and conceal misappropriation of cash and real estate from courts, receivers, trustees, creditors and investors.

This Court's decision to appoint a receiver World Class Capital Group, LLC and Great

Value Storage, LLC was prescient. Underneath parent company World Class Capital Group, LLC are hundreds of interrelated and interlocking shell companies, some holding real estate, some holding contractual rights of one sort or another, some simply a mystery. Here is an overview diagram of the World Class entity:

Here is an internal Paul organizational chart obtained by Receiver:

The chart is nearly incomprehensible in both intent and design. Paul creates corporate shells as a means of disguising, camouflaging, and concealing fraudulent transfers or assets and cash. Paul possesses no corporate documents justifying this structure. There is no legitimate business or tax purpose for such a complicated and undocumented corporate structure.

The Court will please observe that beneath one Appellant, World Class Capital Group, LLC, are subsidiary companies and assets. The second Appellant, Great Value Storage, LLC (see bottom right of organization chart), has assets in the form of management contracts with Great Value Storage facilities, the management fees of which, as discussed, the Paul Entities admitted fraudulently transferring. Princeton's summary judgment motion contained signed agreements by Paul attesting that World Class Capital Group, LLC wholly owned Great Value Storage, LLC, which wholly owned 23 valuable real estate storage units.<sup>28</sup>

The record contains a list of the 278 corporate shells created by Nate Paul, each holding real estate or contractual rights of one sort or another, or used as vehicles for fraudulent transfers and concealment.<sup>29</sup> The reason Nate Paul's organizational chart is confusing is because he intended it to be.

Your Receiver discovered a tax filing Paul was under order to turn over but did not. It is the June 15, 2021 Texas Franchise Tax Extension Request he signed and filed for World Class Capital Group, LLC, just last year, after he closed the Wells Fargo Bank accounts.<sup>30</sup>

In his report to the Texas Comptroller, Paul listed dozens of corporate entities he controls which are affiliated under World Class Capital Group, LLC. This report completely contradicts Paul's declaration that World Class Capital Group, LLC does not have any assets. Here is an excerpt:

Paul filed the report for World Class Capital Group, LLC as a "combined group." Under the Texas Tax Code, a "combined group" is defined as "Taxable entities that are part of an affiliated group engaged in a unitary business and that are required to file a group report under [Tax Code] Section 171.1014."<sup>31</sup>

"Affiliated group" means, "Entities in which a controlling interest is owned by a common owner, either corporate or noncorporate, or by one or more of the member entities."

Such commonly owned entities are affiliated regardless of whether they are engaged in a unitary business. "Controlling interest" means, for a corporation, either more than 50 percent, owned directly or indirectly, of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock of the corporation, or more than 50 percent, owned directly or indirectly, of the beneficial ownership interest in the voting stock of the corporation.<sup>33</sup>

All affiliated entities are presumed to be engaged in a unitary business:

A "unitary business" means a single economic enterprise that is made up of separate parts of a single entity or of a commonly controlled group of entities that are sufficiently interdependent, integrated, and interrelated through their activities so as to provide a synergy and mutual benefit that produces a sharing or exchange of value among them and a significant flow of value to the separate parts. In determining whether a unitary business exists, the comptroller shall consider any relevant factor, including (A) whether:

(i) the activities of the group members are in the same general line, such as manufacturing, wholesaling, retailing of tangible personal property, insurance, transportation, or finance;

(ii) the activities of the group members are steps in a vertically structured enterprise or process, such as the steps involved in the production of natural resources, including exploration, mining, refining, and marketing; or

(ii) the members are functionally integrated through the exercise of strong centralized management, such as authority over purchasing, financing, product line, personnel, and marketing.<sup>34</sup>

This is tedious tax code language, but the point is that all of the corporate entities

listed<sup>35</sup> by Nate Paul form a single unitary operation, all controlled by Nate Paul, all falling under the control or ownership of World Class Capital Group, LLC. Your Receiver, therefore, has properly exercised control over the subsidiary entities.

B. Wells Fargo Bank Records Reveal $87 million of Unaccounted Transfers by Nate Paul in One Account Alone.

Throughout the pervasive litigation, including in this Court, Paul refused to provide any bank records from the hundreds of accounts at Wells Fargo Bank. Your Receiver obtained, and filed in this Court, 16 months of bank statements for a single Wells Fargo account, for World Class Capital Group, LLC, the parent company for Paul's pyramid of real estate entities, and for Great Value Storage, LLC, an entity related to the collection of some 69 self-storage units in 11 states.<sup>36</sup>

These bank records for just this one account, World Class Capital Group, LLC, for a brief 16-month window, reveal that Paul transferred $87 million in cash back and forth to his various entities, and to unknown individuals and companies. Millions were transferred just before and just after the August 14, 2019 U.S. Magistrate Court authorized the FBI search of Paul's home and office for evidence of criminal activity.<sup>37</sup> Paul drained the accounts completely in January and February 2020. He treated the millions as personal money, moving money between insider individuals and corporations without regard for any corporate fiduciary formalities or segregation responsibilities.

Based on the bank statements, here is a list of transfers in and out of the World Class Capital Group, LLC's Wells Fargo account for the 16-month period, from October 2018 until

Paul drained the account in January 2020. The Court will observe that Paul transferred the largest amount of money, more than $11 million, in the days before and after the August 2019 FBI search of his home and office.<sup>38</sup>

Here is a graph showing the same monthly transfers:

In November, December, and finally in January, Paul drained the account completely, transferring the money as fast as it arrived to a collection of individuals and entities. Paul has never turned over documents revealing to whom he transferred this cash, or why.

C. Wells Fargo Bank Records Reveal $7.4 million of Unaccounted Transfers by Nate Paul in Another Account.

Similarly, the Wells Fargo statements for Great Value Storage, LLC reveal Paul transferred $7.4 million from the company. Again, he transferred sharply more money just before and just after the August 2019 FBI search.<sup>39</sup> Again, he drained the account to points unknown in February and March 2020. To be more precise, he redirected regular monthly storage unit payments away from Great Value Storage, LLC, to another unknown corporate entity he will not reveal, thereby stripping Great Value Storage, LLC of cash and accounts receivable. #### D. Bank records reveal the story of staggering misappropriation.

Paul claimed not to have any records.<sup>40</sup> For an enterprise with nearly one billion dollars in assets, hundreds of millions in revenue, hundreds of corporate shells, he does not have any records. No bank statements. No payable vouchers, no invoices, no receipts, no payroll, no account reconciliations, no balance sheets, no profit and loss statements, no tax returns, no contracts, no agreements, no deeds, no company board of director minutes, no records documenting transfers of assets or money, no records for the purchase or sale of his Bentley, Lamborghini, or Porsche.<sup>41</sup>

The Wells Fargo bank records separately filed are only for 16 months, from 2018 to 2020, until Paul drained the accounts, during the months following the FBI search of his home and office. Paul could easily have provided these in response to any of the compel orders by logging in to Wells Fargo and pressing download. Moreover, these records are only for two accounts. Paul had more than four hundred accounts at Wells Fargo.

Here is the story these snapshot documents tell us:

- For more than 200 pages, the Court will see line after line of wire transfers for hundreds, thousands, tens of thousands, hundreds of thousands, and millions of dollars;
- Paul does not have, or will not reveal, a single page, not a single email, documenting the propriety of any of these cash transfers;
- There are thousands of transfers back and forth between the hundreds of Great Value Storage and World Class entities. Paul moved money between entities at whim or need or interest, disregarding all Texas and IRS imposed fiduciary duties as corporate officer to segregate each entity's cash, assets, books, accounts, activity, and to maintain records, with each entity standing on its own;
- $87 million is missing or unaccounted from the World Class Capital Wells Fargo account, just in this 16-month period;
- $7.4 million is missing or unaccounted from the Great Value Storage Wells Fargo account.
- Other account bank statements for other Paul controlled corporate shells reviewed by Receiver reveal similar unexplained and undocumented transfers between shells and to insiders and to Paul personal accounts.
- The hundreds of other Wells Fargo accounts likely tell a similar tale of fraudulent transfers.<sup>42</sup>

Princeton Capital Corp. v. Great Value Storage, LLC and World Class Capital Group, LLC, et al., No. 2019-18855 Receiver's Report Page 45 of 100

The breach of fiduciary duty causes of action against Paul and his organization constitute a form of intangible personal property which Receiver can and did litigate on behalf of WCCG and GVS to claw back misappropriated money, thereby fulfilling the Court's final judgment and receivership order.<sup>45</sup>

VI. THE NATE PAUL ORGANIZATION IS A COAST-TO-COAST CONSPIRACY DESIGNED TO DEFRAUD CREDITORS AND INVESTORS.

A. Overview of the Nate Paul Organization.

Nate Paul has created and masterminds a coast-to-coast conspiracy of opportunists designed to defraud creditors and investors. In this report, Receiver limits himself to civil conspiracy and civil law misconduct.

The individuals and entities part of this organization include:

Nate Paul is the founder and owner of World Class Capital Group, LLC (WCCG), and

Great Value Storage, LLC (GVS). Paul has created numerous business entities, more than 250,

World Class Holding Company, LLC World Class Holdings, LLC World Class Holdings I, LLC World Class Development, LLC World Class Real Estate, LLC Westlake Industries

The Paul Organization includes numerous business entities created by, or at the behest of, Paul. A recent review of the records of the Texas Secretary of State disclosed that there were 212 entries for business entities created with Paul listed as an officer or manager. Another list identifies 278 entities as of the date of the September 2021 receivership order. The Paul Organization created business entities in Texas, Ohio, Delaware and elsewhere that had business operations in Texas, Ohio, Mississippi, Nevada, New York, Missouri and elsewhere, during 2012 to 2022.

A review of federal and state judicial records disclosed numerous lawsuits against various entities in the Paul Organization surrounding a common theme:

- The entities in the Paul Organization are not independent. Paul and his coconspirators treat all the entities as a single enterprise and without regard for any required corporate formalities.
- Assets are transferred between entities without regard for the contractual obligations the Paul Organization has made with creditors or investors.
- Many of these transfers are to Paul, Paul's family members and insiders.
- This scheme creates a complex web intended to thwart the legitimate efforts of creditors and investors to recoup the funds which Paul has taken from these investors through a documented series of fraudulent promises and contracts that Paul made, and never kept, nor intended to keep.
- In Receiver's opinion, Paul continuously misled and enticed others to invest their funds with Paul and the Paul Organization in order to enrich himself, family members and insiders unlawfully.

In Receiver's opinion, Paul appears to have been assisted in his operation of the Paul

Organization as a national enterprise engaged in the civil violation conduct described herein

by the following parties:

• Sheena Paul, his chief lieutenant, the Chief Operating Officer of WCCG, lawyer for the Paul Organization, and Nate Paul's sister.

- Barbara "Barbie" Lee, the Vice President of Accounting at WCCG, who admits that WCCG provides accounting services to several of the entities at the heart of the Paul Organization at all relevant times.
- Jason Rogers, the Controller at WCCG, who according to Barbie Lee, provides accounting services to several of the entities at the heart of the Paul Organization at all relevant times.
- Jeremy Stoler, a key accounting employee at WCCG, who according to Barbie Lee, provides accounting services to several of the entities at the heart of the Paul Organization at all relevant times.<sup>46</sup>
- Love Paul, the father of Nate Paul and Sheena Paul, and a recipient of fraudulent transfers of assets from the Paul Organization.
- Summer Burns, Paul's domestic partner, the mother of his children, and a recipient of fraudulent transfers of assets from the Paul Organization.
- Julia Clark, a Dallas CPA who provided tax and other accounting services to the Paul Organization and who is believed to have provided substantial assistance with the fraudulent scheme outlined below. (As mentioned, your Receiver served Ms. Clark in July with five subpoenas for production of tax records and returns pertaining to the Nate Paul Organization entities. She did not comply with the subpoenas or contact your Receiver.)
- Narsimha Raju Sagiraju, aka Raj Kumar, a convicted felon, who was convicted of fraud in Santa Clara County, California in 2016,<sup>47</sup> and who is a recipient of fraudulent transfers from the Paul Organization through various entities including Cupertino Builders and Kadari, Inc.<sup>48</sup>

- Surik M. Torosyan,<sup>49</sup> an associate of Sagiraju who apparently operates Veheal, Inc.,<sup>50</sup> a documented recipient of millions of dollars' worth of financial transfers from the Paul Organization.
- Jacob Armendariz, a convicted felon, who was convicted of theft and fraud in Potter and Deaf Smith Counties in Texas on multiple occasions, and an employee of the Paul Organization.<sup>51</sup> Armendariz operates at least two companies, West Texas Stone Solutions, and Hernandez Remodeling, which were used in efforts to receive fraudulent transfers of assets from the Paul Organization.

This list is not meant to be exhaustive or all inclusive. Nor do I assert that it includes all the individuals who were involved in the operations of the Paul Organization, or that I have identified all the roles or involvement each party had with the Paul Organization. Again, I do not address any possible criminal violations by any person or entity in this report, only civil law violations.

B. Evaluation of the Nate Paul Organization misappropriation and concealment in the underlying Capital Point Partners II, LLP / Princeton Capital note payable agreement as exemplar of misconduct.

Organization operates, as it contains the majority of the documentary evidence available to me that I have been able to corroborate independently.

The scheme began on or before the period of time when Capital Point Partners II, LLP (Capital Point) entered into a Note Purchase Agreement ("NPA") with Paul. On July 31, 2012, Paul signed the NPA on behalf of Great Value Storage, LLC ("GVS") and World Class Capital Group, LLC ("WCCG"), two entities in the Paul Organization, and now subject of the receivership. A man named Kevin Smith signed on behalf of Capital Point.

The NPA is over 80 pages long with the included addendums. The agreement is complex and detailed and is merely generally summarized:

- The NPA called for GVS to sell senior secured promissory notes to CP. The first note was for a face value of $2,000,000.
- A second note, which was signed on September 27, 2012, was for a face value of $500,000.
- GVS agreed to pay interest at 14% per annum on these notes.
- GVS agreed not to make distributions of the proceeds to equity holders, to provide information and documents required by the agreement, to execute, and maintain a "deposit control agreement" at GVS' bank, which was Wells Fargo at that time.

Exhibit B to the NPA lists certain storage facility properties owned by GVS and WCCG at the time. This list includes storage facilities in Texas, Tennessee, and Missouri.

The NPA has the following mandatory repayment covenants in section 1.4 (C) that

Paul agreed to abide by:

• Change in Control. If there is any event that produces a change in control of GVS the NPA calls for the Notes to be prepaid in full.

- Issuance of Equity Securities. On the date of receipt of cash proceeds from the sale of equity securities or equivalents, GVS is to prepay the Notes in full.
- Issuance of Debt. On the date of receipt of any cash proceeds from the incurrence of any other debt than is listed in attached schedule 3.1 (which is none or zero) GVS is to prepay the Notes in full.
- Asset Disposition. No later than the first business day after the receipt of net proceeds from the disposition of the assets of GVS of WCCG the Notes are to be paid in full in the amount of the net asset disposition proceeds.
- Insurance Condemnation.
- Change in General Partner. If WCCG shall cease to be the General Partner, or cease to own directly or indirectly, a majority of the voting equity securities of any person who owns a storage facility, the Notes must be repaid.

Some of the affirmative covenants in section 2 of the NPA to which Paul was required to comply were:

- Compliance with the Contract and Laws.
- Maintain the Properties. Ensure they are insured.
- Inspection. Each note holder can inspect the facilities and financial records of WCCG and GVS, to make copies of the records, to speak with the officers and CPAs of GVC and WCCG regarding the finances and business operations of GVS and WCCG.
- Organizational Existence and Conduct of Business Books and Records. Paul agrees to: (i) maintain the legal existence of WCCG and GVS, (ii) maintain the leases, privileges, franchises, qualifications and rights that are necessary for the operation of GVS and WCCG's business; (iii) continue to qualify to do business in each state or jurisdiction as required; (iv) conduct GVS and WCCG business as it is presently conducted in an orderly and efficient manner with good business practices; (v) maintain copies of accurate books and records regarding the business operations of GVS and WCCG, as well as meetings of shareholders, Boards of Directors, and partners.
- Board of Director Kevin Smith has certain rights. He has observation rights to all Board of Directors meetings for GVS. The company (GVS) agrees that all matters concerning strategy, financing, financial health, performance, financings, budget, fundamental changes to the business, including sales or disposition of all or a substantial portion of any business, changes in the business, or business activities of the company or the facilities or the offering of securities with respect to GVS, shall be decided by the Board and Smith (the Capital Point Representative).

Some of the negative covenants in section 3 of the NPA that Paul is responsible for complying with are:

- Indebtedness. Paul agrees not to incur more than $150,000 in additional indebtedness for GVS and lists the companies' other debts as -0- in schedule 3.1.
- Liens. GVS will not incur or allow liens on the properties.
- No Negative Pledges.
- Modification to the Management Agreements. GVS and WCCG will not terminate, assign, or enter into any amendment or modification of any Management Contract which would have a material adverse effect as determined by the Holder of the notes at the Holder's sole discretion.
- Investments. Certain investments are prohibited.
- Contingent Obligations. Certain contingent Obligations are prohibited.
- Restriction on Fundamental Changes. GVS and WCCG are prohibited from: amending, modifying, or waiving any term of their organizational documents; entering into any transaction merger or consolidation without providing at least 5 days written notice to the holders of the notes; liquidating the company (GVS and WCCG); acquiring by purchase all or part of the business or assets of another entity.
- Disposal of Assets or Subsidiary Equity Securities. GVS will not convey, sell, lease, transfer or otherwise dispose of its property, business, or assets in one transaction or a series of transactions.
- Transactions with Affiliates. GVS will not enter into any transaction including, purchase, lease, sale, exchange of property or the rendering of any management, consulting, investment banking, advisory or other similar services with any affiliate or any director, officer or employee of WCCG for more than $5000.00 in one year.

In the NPA, the first interest payment on the notes issued by GVS and WCCG to Capital Point was due on December 31, 2012. Interest only payments were to be paid quarterly thereafter. The principal sum was due on July 31, 2017.

In section 4.2 and 5. 6 of the NPA, Paul commits that all financial statements produced by GVC and WCCG to induce Capital Point to invest with the Paul Organization have been prepared using Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) and that the financial statements that have been or will be prepared on behalf of GVS and WCCG will fairly and accurately represent the financial condition of both companies. Section 4.2 (A) discusses monthly financial statements that would be prepared according to GAAP. Section 4.2 (E) discusses GVS and WCCG providing copies of all significant reports prepared by the companies' firm of Certified Public Accountants (CPA).

WCCG issued a press release in August 2012 claiming it had acquired a dozen storage properties in Houston and Dallas, Texas. In February 2014 WCCG issued a press release stating it had acquired 6 additional storage properties in Houston and claimed this was the 4th portfolio acquisition for WCCG in the last 18 months. Sheena Paul is listed as the Vice President of WCCG in this press release and is quoted as saying, "We continue to be agile and opportunistic in our storage acquisitions."

My review indicates that at least some of the GVS storage facility properties may have had mortgage financing, possibly from federally insured financial institutions. There are opensource records indicating that: C-III Commercial Mortgage, LLC, of Irving, Texas; Mortgage Princeton Capital Corp. v. Great Value Storage, LLC and World Class Capital Group, LLC, et al., No. 2019-18855 Receiver's Report Page 53 of 100 Research Center, LLC, of Missouri; Smartbank, of Salt Lake City, Utah; Morgan Stanley Mortgage Capital Holdings, LLC, of New York; and Compass Bank, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania may have recorded liens against several of the pertinent self-storage properties. I found no indication that this debt was disclosed to Capital Point or Princeton Capital, in an apparent possible violation of the NPA. I found no positive indication that the Paul Organization disclosed its sales of promissory notes to these companies.

On November 12, 2014, The NPA was amended for a third promissory note, in the amount of $3,100,000 to be sold by GVS and WCCG to Capital Point.

From my review of available information, including depositions of Paul and Lee, I note that Paul caused GVS and WCCG repeatedly to breach the NPA by failing to comply with their covenants and obligations in the NPA. As one example, the NPA obligates Paul to use Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) to create monthly financial statements and provide the same to Capital Point. Paul and Lee each make statements in separate depositions indicating GAAP was never used to prepare financial statements for the Paul Organization or its various entities, including GVS and WCCG, a clear violation of the NPA, in my opinion. In their depositions, Lee, and Paul both acknowledged that everything done in the Paul Organization is done at the direction of Paul, and with Paul's knowledge.

It appears to me that the CPA for Paul and the Paul Organization during the relevant time period was Julia Clark. In July 2022, I served Ms. Clark with five federal subpoenas for relevant tax returns and records. She did not deliver the documents by the date required. She did not contact me. I suspect she was instructed by the Nate Paul Organization not to comply with the subpoena.

Court records indicate that in 2012, 2014, 2015, 2018 Paul, with and through communications from Sheena Paul, Barbara Lee and Jason Rogers, each claiming to be operating on behalf of WCCG and the "World Class Enterprise," represented to Capital Point and its successor in interest in the NPA, Princeton Capital Corp that GVS had an ownership interest in storage facilities and the GVS financial statements provided to Capital Point and Princeton Capital included a balance sheet entry indicating $5,000,000 in "Investment in Real Estate" on the balance sheets provided to Capital Point and Princeton Capital in 2014, 2015, and 2018.

Open-source documentation of Uniform Commercial Code (UCC) filings indicates that in 2011, WCCG pledged its receivables as collateral to Amegy Bank National Association of Houston, Texas, (Amegy) in what appears to be a factoring agreement that expired in 2016. These same records also indicate that WCCG financed its computer equipment, software and peripherals with Webbank of Salt Lake City, Utah (Webbank). These debt arrangements and pledges of assets/receivables do not appear to have been disclosed to Capital Point, or to Princeton Capital, by WCCG, in apparent violation of the NPA. On March 13, 2015, Capital Point sold the Notes discussed here to Princeton Capital pursuant to an Assignment and Acceptance Agreement in exchange for shares of common stock in Princeton Capital.

Princeton Capital Corporation is a publicly traded company registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), SEC CIK #0000845385. Princeton Capital has offices in North Andover Massachusetts and is incorporated in Maryland. Princeton Capital stock trades on the Over the Counter (OTC) market (OTC Pink) under the symbol PIAC.

For the time period of July 1, 2015 – March 31, 2016, GVS defaults under the NPA. GVS fails to make the required quarterly interest payments under the NPA. GVS and WCCG request deferral of the past due interest and payments until December 31, 2018. Princeton Capital agrees and on May 19, 2016, GVS and Princeton Capital enter a second amendment to the NPA extending the maturity date of the notes from July 31, 2017, to December 31, 2018.

During the time period of August 2016 – November 2018, and unbeknownst to Princeton Capital, within months of signing this second amendment to the NPA, Paul initiated a plan to remove all the real estate assets from WCCG ownership by forming a new line of entities owned and controlled by Paul. Following formation of the new entities, Paul commenced the transfer of deeded real estate assets owned by GVS and WCCG to these entities, for little or no value, without informing Princeton Capital in any way. This was a wellplanned, obvious, and intentional series of transfers in blatant violation of the NPA. This series of transfers took a significant amount of planning, time, effort, numerous documents, and multiple financial and real estate transactions to accomplish, and would have required coordination and determined work by the civil conspirators and insiders of the Nate Paul Organization.

There is no evidence that any consideration, other than nominal consideration was given in exchange for the granted properties. The properties were deeded for little or no value. The real property transferors were left insolvent following the title transfers for little or no consideration, unbeknownst to Princeton Capital, and in violation of the NPA.

As these transfers were not disclosed to Princeton Capital at the time they occurred, they remained unknown to Princeton Capital until late 2021 when Paul and his representatives admitted in court documents that GVS and WCCG previously held real estate assets, and/or interests in entities owning the real estate assets but ceased holding such assets following Paul's purported "restructuring" of WCCG and GVS, resulting in divestment of WCCG and GVS of such real estate interests. Again, this is a clear violation of the NPA, in my opinion.

Sheena Paul, Barbara Lee, Jeremy Stoler, Jason Rogers, and others worked in close coordination with Paul to accomplish the real property transfers and to conceal them from Princeton Capital and possibly other creditors of WCCG and GVS, in violation of the NPA, in my opinion.

On November 16, 2018, pursuant to the NPA and amendments, Princeton Capital delivered to GVS a Notice of Acceleration demanding payment in full of the debt. At that time, payment in full would have been $7,122,607.95. This consisted of $6,783,671.33 in unpaid principal and unpaid interest of $338,936.62. The Notice of Acceleration states that unpaid interest accrues at the default rate of 17%, as specified in the NPA, until the debt is paid in full.

From 2018 to 2020, following the implementation of the well-planned divesture of assets and implementation of a new organizational structure created for WCCG and GVS by the business interest transfers and real property transfers, which were then undisclosed to Princeton Capital in violation of the NPA, Paul caused entities in the Paul Organization to enter into new property management agreements with each of the entities managing the GVS portfolio of storage facilities. Paul signed these agreements for both sides of the transactions. In my opinion, all of this was another well planned, coordinated, violation of the NPA, for the benefit of Paul, and that involved multiple transactions over an extended period to accomplish by Paul, civil conspirators and insiders. The resulting substantial change in the business operations of the Paul Organization was intentional and was also intentionally not disclosed to Princeton Capital, in violation of the NPA, with intent to harm Princeton Capital by thwarting Princeton Capital's efforts to collect on the promissory notes, that Paul had already defaulted on, in my opinion.

The apparent goal of these business interest and real property transfers was for WCCG and GVS to transfer within the Paul Organization, for little or no consideration, the rights to receive revenue from the operation of the self-storage facilities. These rights were given to the newly formed entities created by the Paul Organization. GVS and WCCG were left insolvent at the time of these revenue transfers. The motive for this scheme appears to have been to defraud Princeton Capital and thwart Princeton Capital's future efforts to collect funds owed to Princeton Capital by the Paul Organization since the Paul Organization never had any intention of paying the principal owed to Princeton Capital under the NPA and had never actually fully complied with the NPA, in my opinion. While these transfers may have stripped GVS and WCCG of assets, cash and revenue streams, such assets, cash and revenue streams were merely transferred to the newly formed entities created by and for the benefit of the Paul Organization.

In my opinion, the transparently fraudulent nature of the business interest and real property transfer scheme is highlighted by the fact that following the removal of the interests in the storage facilities from the WCCG and GVS ownership hierarchy, WCCG and GVS continued to make payments on behalf of the storage facilities.

I do not have access to all the banking records for the Paul Organization, however, it would seem the Paul Organization apparently did not create and use a separate bank account for each new entity, another instance of disregard of corporate separateness and lack of observance of corporate formalities. Bank account records for the GVS Wells Fargo account ending in 5854 show that between October 2018 and January 2020, WCCG deposited millions of dollars into GVS' account. These and other funds were quickly transferred out of the account to, or for, the benefit of the new entities, with little or no consideration given back to WCCG or GVS. The transfers were made to taxing authorities, vendors and service providers to the storage facilities, to payroll, and staffing companies for the GVS employees operating the storage facilities, to the storage facilities' utility providers, and other entities to satisfy the storage facilities' obligations.

My opinion, based upon the information I have been provided, information that I have acquired independently, and which I, or someone working under my supervision, have reviewed, is that the transfers described above were orchestrated and accomplished by Paul, Sheena Paul, Barbara Lee, Jeremy Stoler, Jason Rogers and others, and concealed from Princeton Capital by these same parties. These transfers left WCCG and GVS insolvent. Based on representations made by Paul under oath, he was aware of that.

The potential civil causes of action based upon these transfers include:

- Fraudulent Transfer Under the Texas Business and Uniform Commerce Code section 24.005. The transfers described above exhibit the badges of actual fraud:
  - The transfers were each to an insider.
  - The transfers were concealed.
  - The transfers were of substantially all the assets of the applicable defendant transferors.
  - o The transferors removed or concealed assets; and
  - The applicable transferors were insolvent or became insolvent shortly after the applicable transfers were made.
- Breach of Fiduciary Duty. Breach of fiduciary duty by Paul because Paul owed Capital Point and Princeton Capital the following duties: (1) care, (2) loyalty, (3) accountability, (4) confidentiality, (5) full disclosure, (6) fairness, and (7) good faith and, which duties Paul breached, resulting in damages to Princeton Capital.
  - The others participating in this scheme conspired with Paul to make these fraudulent transfers.
  - In my opinion, as Paul knowingly breached his fiduciary duty, those assisting him conspired with him to assist him in doing so.

On January 16, 2019, Princeton Capital delivered a payoff letter to GVS demanding payment of $7,348,564.00, which payment Princeton Capital did not receive. Litigation ensued shortly thereafter.

As discussed, in 2021 Paul and Barbie Lee filed affidavits in this Court and the First Court of Appeals revealing for the first time their contention that WCCG and GVS were now insolvent entities and that Paul had orchestrated the transfer of each entities assets to other entities owned by Paul during the 2016 to 2018 time period, in violation of the NPA, in my opinion. The clear intent of this contention would appear to be to thwart Princeton Capital's efforts to collect on the judgement Princeton Capital has just received, in my opinion.

C. Example of Nate Paul Organization fraudulent activity in Austin U.S. Bankruptcy Court by misappropriating Debtor in Possession funds.

Earlier this year, late February 2022, a U.S. Bankruptcy Court in Austin discovered that Paul had misappropriated more than $1 million in several Chapter 11 bankruptcy cases from the Debtor in Possession ("DIP") accounts at Metropolitan Bank. This is a serious matter because in a Chapter 11 bankruptcy proceeding for reorganization of corporations, the corporate officers remain in charge of the company. They are authorized to pay bills and disburse funds, but only with permission of the Bankruptcy Judge, the Bankruptcy Chapter 11 Trustee, or in some instances secured creditors. Transferring funds from a DIP account without approval is a serious violation of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code.<sup>52</sup>

For several months Paul delayed filing mandatory financial reports, including bank account activity. When he finally filed reports months late, the Bankruptcy Court learned why: Paul had misappropriated large amounts of cash from the DIP accounts. The Court promptly removed Paul from control of the companies and replaced him with Trustees. The Court then converted the cases from Chapter 11 (corporate reorganization) to Chapter 7 (liquidation).

The magnitude of the Paul's misappropriation of DIP funds is brazen, right under the gaze of a Federal Judge. Your Receiver obtained bank records. The misappropriated DIPs were traced to see what Paul did with the money.

During the period of November 17, 2021 to March 30, 2022, Natin Paul transferred more than $5.1 million from six of the pending debtor in possession accounts to other Natin Paul affiliated entities or on their behalf.<sup>53</sup>

On March 29 and 30, 2022, after the mandated conversion to Chapter 7, Natin Paul deposited just over $2.9 million back into the various DIP accounts following the closing of the sale of properties in the GVS cases pending in Dallas. A shortfall of about $2 million remains.<sup>54</sup>

D. Example of Nate Paul Organization fraudulent activity in Dallas U.S. Bankruptcy Court by misappropriating Debtor in Possession funds.

As mentioned, Paul's collection of 69 self-storage units in 11 states were held in a collection of corporate shells under the name of Great Value Storage.

On June 17, 2021, the Paul Organization filed for bankruptcy in the Northern District of Texas at Dallas, Texas, cause number 21-31121-MVL on behalf of the following entities within the Paul Organization. Each one held one or more self-storage properties:

GVS Texas Holdings I, LLC GVS Portfolio I, LLC GVS Portfolio I B, LLC GVS Portfolio I C, LLC GVS Texas Holdings II, LLC GVS Ohio Holdings I, LLC GVS Ohio Holdings II, LLC WX Mississippi Storage Portfolio I, LLC Princeton Capital Corp. v. There is a procedure in bankruptcy court for investigating alleged misappropriation of funds by the operators of a company in Chapter 11 bankruptcy. This is called a "Section 549 Investigation." On July 22, 2022, the law firm of Sidley Austin, which represented the 16 GVS companies in Chapter 11 bankruptcy, filed its supplemental Section 549 Investigation report, called "Reorganized Debtors' Report on Investigation of Post-Petition Transactions."<sup>55</sup> which summarized its investigation into misappropriation of funds by the Nate Paul Organization. First, the law firm explained the Nate Paul Organization's obstruction into providing documents and information, a characteristic Receiver observed repeatedly by members of the Nate Paul Organization:<sup>56</sup>

2. The ability to conduct the 549 Investigation was hampered by a lack of reliable records by the Debtors, the fact that the Debtors' records were in the control of an affiliate non-Debtor management company, Great Value Storage, LLC ("Great Value" or the "Property Manager"), and, most significantly, because of a lack of cooperation by parties with relevant information.<sup>21</sup> In addition, inconsistent testimony from various parties hindered the work of the Debtors' professionals.

 Princeton Capital Corp. v. Great Value Storage, LLC and World Class Capital Group, LLC, et al., No. 2019-18855 Receiver's Report <sup>21</sup> The extent of the lack of cooperation is not described fully in this Final Report, as the record before the Court is replete with instances detailing the difficulties encountered by the Debtors' professionals over the course of these Chapter 11 Cases and the 549 Investigation. Meticulously listing every effort to frustrate and hinder the Debtors' information-gathering process would require an appendix so voluminous as to render it entirely useless.

3. Despite these handicaps, the Reorganized Debtors have been able to determine that prior to the entry of the Governance Order:

- i. Debtor funds were used to pay expenses of non-Debtor affiliates on multiple occasions;<sup>22</sup>
- ii. At least $1,051,821.38 of Debtor funds were transferred to suspect vendors or to insiders and affiliates of the Debtors without Court approval or disclosure;<sup>23</sup>
- iii. Among these transfers, at least two payments of $96,000 each that had been authorized to be paid to the Property Manager pursuant to court order were intentionally diverted to other World Class entities in an effort to avoid having those monies deposited into bank accounts controlled by the Property Manager's receiver;<sup>24</sup>

- iv. Cupertino Builders—a construction and maintenance company owned by a friend of Mr. Paul that received 12 post-petition transfers worth $297,045.00— ceased all operations within days of the entry of the Governance Order and never again billed the Debtors for services;<sup>25</sup>
- v. Management initially failed to disclose to the Debtors' professionals or the Court multiple operating bank accounts, which resulted in the filing of a materially misleading Cash Management Motion at the outset of these Chapter 11 Cases;<sup>26</sup> and
- vi. Overwhelmingly due to the difficulty the Debtors and their professionals faced in obtaining timely and complete records from the Property Manager, the Debtors' Schedules and Statements of Financial Affairs and Monthly Operating Reports, as originally filed, were materially incomplete and inaccurate and required significant amendments once control of the Debtors' bank accounts were transferred to Getzler Henrich.<sup>27</sup>

Translated, Nate Paul and his organization:

- Concealed documents and blocked Sidley Austin's investigation;
- Fraudulently transferred money from Debtor in Possession (DIP) accounts to other Nate Paul Organization entities without permission of the Bankruptcy Court or Trustee;
- Fraudulently transferred $1,051,000 out of the DIP accounts to other Nate Paul Organization entities;

- Fraudulently transferred two $96,000 contract payments in an effort to keep Receiver from seizing and collecting those funds. (The final amount was more than $800,000.);
- Fraudulently transferred $297,000 to a friend of Nate Paul;
- Fraudulently concealed cash in other accounts.

These actions in the Dallas GVS bankruptcy case by the Nate Paul Organization are consistent with the overall civil conspiracy, led by Nate Paul, to defraud and hinder creditors your Receiver found.

E. Misappropriation of funds by the Nate Paul Organization transferred to insiders of the organization.

In the same Dallas U.S. Bankruptcy case, I filed an adversary action against the Nate Paul Organization, naming Paul and other members of his conspiracy.<sup>57</sup> This is one of only two lawsuits I have filed in this receivership action. (I non-suited the second one, against a Paul associate.<sup>58</sup>) The Receivership Order authorized such lawsuits:<sup>59</sup> may be situated, and to review and obtain copies of all documents related to same, and 13) file any lawsuit necessary to seize or recover any non-exempt assets from any third parties who have acquired possession or control.

1. Luxury travel and purchases charged to American Express.

During the 16-month period September 1, 2018, to December 31, 2019, Paul and his conspirators transferred $3.9 million from the Wells Fargo account of WCCG to American Express National Bank by means of payments on American Express cards in the name of World Class Capital Group, LLC, but used by Paul and other members of the Paul Organization. Upon information and belief, all or most of these purchases were for luxury travel and personal luxuries that had nothing to do with the business or operations of WCCG. During this 16-month period, Paul charged $3,886,272.90 at an average rate of $242,900 per month. Paul and the conspirators did not maintain records of these purchases or internal documentation explaining the benefit of these expenses to the corporation. These card purchases with company money were means by which the conspirators transferred corporate funds to themselves, in violation of the fiduciary duties to the company and its subsidiaries.

2. Payments to Paul's domestic partner, Summer Burns.

According to the Wells Fargo bank statements, between September 1, 2018, through August 31, 2020, Paul and his conspirators transferred cash from the WCCG Wells Fargo account in the amount of $20,500 to Paul's domestic partner and mother of his children, Summer Burns.

3. Luxury Vehicles.

Paul obtained a 2014 or 2015 Bentley Mulsanne, VIN: SCBBB7ZH5EC019799, purchased by Paul with WCCG funds. The vehicle is or was owned by WCCG. Julia Clark and Julia Clark Associates, P.C. compiled WCCG's property depreciation list for its 2017 corporate tax return and listed the car as a company-owned depreciable asset.

The Bentley belongs or belonged to WCCG and is therefore by definition property of the receivership estate. Paul cannot claim the personal vehicle exemption of Texas Property Code § 42.001 because this car is a company asset, not his own. It is likely Paul sold the Bentley on or about February 13, 2021, to an unrelated third party. It was then registered in the name of a Montana dealership. Upon information and belief, Paul deposited the proceeds of the sale into a personal account or account he solely controlled. He did not deposit the proceeds into an account owned or controlled by WCCG. The sale of the company owned Bentley thereby constitutes a fraudulent transfer.

4. Payments to Sheena Paul.

According to the Wells Fargo bank statements, between September 1, 2018, through August 31, 2020, Paul and his conspirators transferred cash from the WCCG Wells Fargo account in the amount of $43,222.71 to Sheena Paul Burns, paid through an entity called American Realty. The transferred cash belongs or belonged to WCCG and is therefore by definition property of the receivership estate.

5. Payments to Nate and Sheena's father, Love Paul.

According to the bank statements, between September 1, 2018, through August 31, 2020, Paul and his conspirators transferred cash from the WCCG Wells Fargo account in the amount of 9,135.13 to his father, Dr. Love D. Paul, paid through Dr. Paul's Citibank credit card, and $130.55 to his CW credit card, and $2,832.53 for State Farm Insurance.

6. Payments to Nate Paul individually.

According to the bank statements, between September 1, 2018 through August 31, 2020, Paul and his conspirators transferred cash from the WCCG Wells Fargo account in the amount of $30,956.10 to Paul's Bank of America credit card, $2,690.00 and $29,903.48 to the "Natin Paul Management Trust" through Capital Farm Credit FLCA, $65,14.40 to a Visa card, $593,627.93 to personal loan accounts of Paul, $45,000 to Paul's personal checking account (no. 0551), and $22,000 to Ford Motor Credit, likely for Paul's Super Duty Ford F250 truck.

7. Conspirator activity.

Paul, Sheena Paul, Barbara Lee, Jeremy Stoler, and Jason Rogers, all employees of the Companies and related entities, on information and belief, conspired to move the Companies' assets out of the reach of its creditors, including by transferring all the Companies' interests in LLCs and LPs to other entities wholly owned by Natin Paul and by transferring $87 million and $7.4 million out of the WCCG and GVS Accounts.

Paul, Sheena Paul, Barbara Lee, Jeremy Stoler, and Jason Rogers participated in a civil conspiracy to transfer fraudulently the Companies' assets, violate Natin Paul's fiduciary duties, and delay and frustrate its creditors, including Princeton, from collecting the debts owed by the Companies.

8. Questionable transfers to others by Paul.

Certain additional questionable transactions have also come to light because of the bankruptcy proceedings.

Cupertino Builders (Cupertino) and Kadari, LLC (Kadari) have received transfers from the Paul Organization during the bankruptcy proceedings. Cupertino is registered to Narsimha Raju Sagiraju (Sagiraju) aka Raj Kumar with the Texas Secretary of State. Kadari operates H & R Grocery, a gas station with a convenience store, a liquor license, and a check cashing operation in Austin, Texas that has been in business since 1996.

Sagiraju is a convicted felon. Sagiraju was convicted of three counts of securities fraud in Santa Clara County, California. Sagiraju defrauded his business partners and investors, some of whom were high school friends, of more than $400,000.<sup>60</sup> Sagiraju pled guilty to the felony <sup>60</sup> Bay City News, "Ex-Tech Executive to be Sentenced to Jail for Gambling $417K of Friends' Investments," (July 17, 2017). See also Soma Capital Fund I Partners, LLC, et al. v. Narsimharaju Sagiraju et al., Santa Clara County, California Superior Court, cause no. xxxx1321, filed June 5, 2017. Princeton Capital Corp. v. Great Value Storage, LLC and World Class Capital Group, LLC, et al., No. 2019-18855 Receiver's Report Page 72 of 100 fraud charges filed in Santa Clara County and admitted spending the proceeds of his fraud scheme on gambling junkets to Las Vegas, Monte Carlo, and Dubai.

Available information indicates that Sagiraju is an aassociate of Nate Paul, has an email address associated with the Paul Organization, and has received transfers of at least $297,045.00 through Cupertino and Kadari between July 22, 2021, and November 4, 2021.

Cupertino was created on October 19, 2020, according to Texas Secretary of State records. I was unable to find a website for Cupertino Builders, a license, or any indication Cupertino has employees or revenue through the Texas Department of Licensing and Registration or the Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts office.

One document filed in the bankruptcy proceedings states plainly that, regarding the bankruptcy proceeding, Kadari is merely a "pass through shell entity" used to transfer money from the debtors in the bankruptcy proceeding (The Paul Organization) to Cupertino. These transfers were made from accounts controlled by entities of the Paul Organization that filed for bankruptcy, and the transfers occurred after the bankruptcy was filed. There are no invoices or other supporting documentation that justify these transfers, which, in my opinion, is a hallmark of the operations of the Paul Organization.

Jacob Armendariz is another convicted felon who appears closely associated with Paul and is reportedly an employee of the Paul Organization. Entities associated with Armendariz began requesting transfers from the Paul Organization entities in the bankruptcy proceeding because Armendariz filed proofs of claim with the bankruptcy trustee, which claims were initially filed after the transfers to Kadari and Cupertino were cut off. Armendariz was convicted of fraud on multiple occasions in Potter County and Deaf Smith Counties in Texas. Armendariz has been to the Texas Department of Corrections for his crimes. My review of available data indicate that Armendariz is listed as an owner of West Texas Stone Solutions, 5206 Orsini Bluffs, Round Rock, Texas 78665, and has claimed to be the registered manager of Hernandez Remodeling. I was unable to verify either company is licensed to operate or registered in Texas with the Texas Secretary of State.

From review of the invoices filed by Armendariz in the bankruptcy proceeding, West Texas Stone Solutions shares an address with the Hernandez Remodeling entity listed on the above referenced proof of claim, 5206 Orsini Bluffs, Round Rock, Texas 78665. This address is associated with Armendariz' Texas Driver's License, which was issued on July 13, 2021. West Texas Stone Solutions submitted proof of claim forms in the relevant bankruptcy case for $186,543.19. The claim forms were signed by Armendariz, who ultimately abandoned his claims after they met with objections from the debtors' representatives.

Hernandez Remodeling requested payments of $205,044 from the Paul Organization between December 10, 2021, and February 14, 2022. Hernandez Remodeling initially refused to provide any documents about these transfers, then provided incomplete documentation. I was unable to locate any indication that Armendariz or Hernandez Remodeling/West Texas Stone Solutions have any licenses to operate, employees, or revenue through the Texas Department of Licensing and Registration or the Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts offices. Surik Torosyan, who has a listed residential address in common with Sagiraju, 811 East 11th Street, Austin, Texas, 78702, operates a company called Veheal, Inc. (Veheal) Opensource records indicate that Veheal is in the software field, has been in business for 5 years, employs 4 people and generates approximately $17,105 in annual revenues. Torosyan had a civil suit filed against him in Santa Clara County, California on August 11, 2021, for an unpaid American Express bill in the amount of $17,299.

Despite these facts we have determined that Veheal has received $2,012,829.84 in transfers from the Paul Organization between September 30, 2018, and February 21, 2022, according to the bank records available for our review. I would expect that there are no invoices or other documentation retained by the Paul Organization that would justify these financial transfers to Veheal, in my opinion.

This indicates to me that, in my opinion, there is a strong likelihood that Torosyan and his company were not the ultimate recipient of $2 million from the Paul Organization. If Torosyan was the actual recipient of the $2 million from the Paul Organization, in my opinion, it is unlikely he would have difficulty paying a $17,000 Amex bill, for example. In my experience, this situation is likely an indicator that Torosyan may be a strawman for the Paul Organization's fraudulent transfer operation.

9. Fraudulent transfers to World Class Holdings.

My review in the GVS bankruptcy proceeding indicates that World Class Holdings is a top tier entity the Paul Organization listed in its corporate structure in the bankruptcy proceeding, with Paul being the ultimate owner of World Class Holdings and the other debtors in the bankruptcy proceeding. There are numerous, substantial payments from the entities of the Paul Organization that are in bankruptcy proceedings to World Class Holdings, a corporate shell controlled by Paul. These payments are not substantiated by documentation. These transfers amount to $532,358 between July 23, 2021, and November 4, 2021.

One pleading by the Paul Organization in the bankruptcy proceeding indicates that two payments, one of $96,000 on October 21, 2021, and one of $96,000 on November 14, 2021, were diversions of management fees due the GVS property manager likely from storage facilities. The document notes that these diversions appear to have been done specifically to avoid the Receiver's right to collect those payments.<sup>61</sup>

VIII. TEXAS RECEIVERSHIP LAW IS WELL DEVELOPED.

A. Foundational case law supports receivership to enforce court judgements and recover misappropriated assets.

For more than a century under Texas law, the power of a receivership derives from the doctrine of custodia legis. Once a turnover order is signed, all of the judgment debtor's nonexempt property becomes property in custodia legis, or "in the custody of the law."<sup>66</sup> The judgment debtor's property is considered to be in the constructive possession of the court. During the pendency of a receivership, the receiver has exclusive possession and custody of the judgment debtor's property to which the receivership relates.<sup>67</sup> As far back as 1852, the U.S. Supreme Court has held that when a court appoints a receiver to hold property, "the sale under the judgment, pending the equity suit and while the court [through receiver] was in possession of the estate without the leave of court, was illegal and void."<sup>68</sup>

Custodia Legis occurs immediately upon the appointment of the receiver, even prior to his or her qualifying by filing the bond and oath of office.<sup>69</sup> The judgment debtor's property is considered to be in the constructive possession of the court.

During the pendency of a receivership, the receiver has exclusive possession and custody of the judgment debtor's property to which the receivership relates.<sup>70</sup> No one, not even a lien holder with a deed of trust, can sell property held in custodia legis by a duly appointed receiver.<sup>71</sup> Any unauthorized transfer of property in the custody of a receiver is not merely voidable, it is void.<sup>72</sup> Any conveyance of property in the custody of a receiver without approval by the court has no effect upon the receivership and the accomplishment of its purposes.<sup>73</sup> Therefore, any payment of money after the turnover and receivership order was signed is void and can be called back by the receiver and enforced by contempt if necessary.<sup>74</sup>

B. The Texas Legislature authorizes and favors receiverships.

The Texas turnover statute is a procedural device to assist judgment creditors in postjudgment collection. A judgment creditor is entitled to receive aid from a court in order to reach property to obtain satisfaction on a judgment "if the judgment debtor owns property . . . that: is not exempt from attachment, execution, or seizure for the satisfaction of liabilities."<sup>75</sup>

The statute empowers courts to order a judgment debtor to turn over nonexempt property that is in the debtor's possession or subject to the debtor's control, including present or future rights to property.<sup>76</sup> It also allows a court to appoint a receiver "with the authority to take possession of the nonexempt property, sell it and pay the proceeds to the judgment creditor to the extent to satisfy the judgment."<sup>77</sup> The trial court is not required to identify in the order the specific property subject to turnover.<sup>78</sup> In addition, the trial court may enforce the turnover order by contempt proceedings.<sup>79</sup>

Texas Civil Practice & Remedies Code § 64.001 permits receiver appointment "(2) in an action by a creditor to subject any property or fund to his claim" and "(6) in any other case in which a receiver may be appointed under the rules of equity."<sup>80</sup>

C. The Receiver alone controls the corporation's legal claims, affairs, and legal representation.

Although the Texas Supreme Court has not spoken to the issue, there is analogous federal authority by the U.S. Supreme Court that a receiver accedes to control of the legal affairs of the corporate entity.<sup>81</sup> Consequently, Receiver controls the legal affairs of Great Value Storage, LLC and World Class Capital Holdings, LLC.

D. A Receiver possesses judicial immunity against financial damages and discovery.

As Receiver, Mr. Kretzer receives derived judicial immunity, coextensive with a district judge, from all claims and discovery.<sup>82</sup> Consequently, the Nate Paul Appellants are not permitted to seek damages, costs, attorney's fees or even discovery against the Receiver.

It is well established that judges are absolutely immune from liability for judicial acts.<sup>83</sup> When judges delegate their authority or appoint others to perform services for the court, the judicial immunity that attaches to the judge follows the delegation or appointment.<sup>84</sup> "In Texas, judicial immunity applies to officers of the court who are integral parts of the judicial process, such as court clerks, law clerks, bailiffs, constables issuing writs, court-appointed receivers and trustees."<sup>85</sup> This type of absolute immunity is referred to as "derived judicial immunity."<sup>86</sup>

"When a person is entitled to derived judicial immunity, he or she receives the same absolute immunity from liability for acts performed within the scope of his or her jurisdiction as that of a judge."<sup>87</sup>

[O]nce an individual is cloaked with derived judicial immunity because of a particular function being performed for a court, every action taken with regard to that function—whether good or bad, honest or dishonest, well-intentioned or not—is immune from suit.... Once applied to the function, the cloak of immunity covers all acts, both good and bad.... The whole either is protected or it is not.<sup>88</sup>

The policy underlying derived judicial immunity that protects participants in judicial and other adjudicatory proceedings is sound. Not only does the policy guarantee an independent, disinterested decision-making process, these immunities prevent the harassment and intimidation that might otherwise result if disgruntled litigants could vent their anger by suing the person carrying out the charge of the court. Texas has adopted a functional approach in determining whether a party is entitled to absolute immunity.<sup>89</sup> Under the functional approach, courts determine whether the activities of the party seeking immunity are intimately associated with the judicial process.<sup>90</sup>

"Like a court-appointed bankruptcy trustee acting within his authority as trustee, a courtappointed receiver acts as an arm of the court and is immune from liability for actions grounded in his conduct as receiver."<sup>91</sup> In Davis, much like the present case, the party subject to the receivership order (Davis) sued the party moving for appointment of receiver and its attorney, and the receiver (Radoff). Davis argued that Radoff was not protected by derived judicial immunity because (1) the Texas Civil Practice & Remedies Code specifically allows suits against receivers, (2) the receivership order was invalid, and (3) Radoff's actions violated the receivership order. Id. at 306-308. The court rejected issues one and three without much consideration finding that the receivership order was extremely broad and gave Radoff the explicit power to perform the acts that form the basis of Davis' complaints and holding that Tex. Civ. Prac. & Rem. Code § 64.052 "does not enlarge or restrict causes of action that may be asserted against a receiver, nor does it abrogate a receiver's derived judicial immunity for acts taken within the scope of his receivership."<sup>92</sup>

In this case, every act by Mr. Kretzer was by, under, and approved by Court order. Immunity applies completely, including against discovery.

E. The Receiver owes no fiduciary duties to the parties.

As is clearly supported by decades of legal authority, a post-judgment receiver, appointed by the court to enforce the court's judgment order, has no fiduciary duties to anyone, especially not the judgment creditor or debtor.<sup>93</sup> This is why a receiver has derived judicial immunity, because the receiver has no fiduciary duty to anyone. The concepts are two sides of the same coin. Either one has immunity, and therefore no fiduciary duty liability, or one has fiduciary duties, and therefore no immunity.

The only time a receiver gets entangled with fiduciary duties is when the receiver also assumes non-receivership duties such as trustee of a trust for the benefit of beneficiaries, or as the executor of an estate, which likewise has beneficiaries.<sup>94</sup>

Nor does a receiver has any fiduciary duty to judgment debtors or third parties, here, World Class Capital Group, LLC and Great Value Storage, LLC, their subsidiaries, or other individuals or entities controlled by the Nate Paul Organization. Texas Appellate Courts have long held that "[i]t is the primary duty of a receiver to preserve the assets under its control."<sup>95</sup>

Your Receiver has one role and one role only, to enforce this Court's March 2021 judgment order. He is not Princeton's or Paul's agent, trustee, or executor.<sup>96</sup>

IX. YOUR RECEIVER SUCCEEDED. NATE PAUL PAID $11.37 MILLION TO PRINCETON CAPITAL, MORE THAN 100 CENTS ON THE DOLLAR OF THE COURT'S JUDGMENT.

Princeton has now received $11,372,698.89 in cash after the Nate Paul Organization had previously ignored this Court's final judgment and discovery orders for two years, and after Nate Paul and his bookkeeper filed affidavits in this Court declaring that the judgment debtors no longer had anything more than old furniture, and demanding their $100 clerk deposits be counted as their supersedeas bonds. The money was wired to Princeton October 7, 2022 from the reserve account controlled by a Dallas Bankruptcy Court.<sup>97</sup> Here is the October 10, 2022 email by Princeton's bankruptcy counsel to Judge Davis, informing that the transaction had been paid October 7:

Good afternoon. Please advise Judge Davis that the settlement between Princeton Capital Corporation and the Great Value Storage entities was successfully funded on October 7, 2022. If the Court has any questions, please let me know.

Regard,

Judith W. Ross Ross & Smith, PC 700 North Pearl Street, Suite 1610 Dallas, TX 75201

Likewise, here is where Nate Paul's bankruptcy counsel informed Hon. Judge Michelle Larson, U.S. Bankruptcy Court, Dallas Division, and this Court, that the money has been paid:<sup>98</sup>

On September 20, 2022, Judge Larson, in Case No. 21-31121; In re GVS Texas Holdings I, LLC, et al.; In the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas, approved a settlement between Princeton and the GVS bankruptcy debtors by which Princeton will sell and assign the promissory notes and final judgment at issue in this action for $11.37 million to Phoenix Lending, LLC ("Settlement and Note Sale"). > 2. That settlement was funded and closed effective October 7, 2022, with Princeton receiving its settlement funds and assigning its rights under the Notes that underlie this litigation to Phoenix Lending, LLC, who will be shortly substituted for Princeton as plaintiff in this action.

The Court should note the words, "by which Princeton will sell and assign the promissory notes and final judgment at issue [Judge Hall's March 4, 2021 final judgment] in this action for $11.37 million to Phoenix Lending, LLC." Phoenix Lending is the newly formed uncapitalized entity created August 31, 2022 by Nate Paul. By separate motion, your Receiver contends this purported assignment violates Texas law and requires a declaratory judgment so holding.

Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Settlement Agreement

As previously disclosed in Princeton Capital Corporation's (the "Company") prior filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), on March 14, 2019, the Company filed a lawsuit (the "State Litigation") in the 165th District Court of Harris County. Texas (the "Texas District Court") against Great Value Storage, LLC ("GVS"), World Class Capital Group, LLC ("World Class"), and Natin Paul. GVS is one of the Company's portfolio companies. The State Litigation is captioned as Princeton Capital Corporation v. Great Value Storage, et al., Case No. 2019-18855. On March 9, 2021, the Texas District Court ordered that GVS and World Class were liable to the Company for contract damages of $9,759,713.84 and attorneys' fees of $150,887.50 (the "Judgment"). On September 8, 2021, the court granted the appointment of a receiver.

As also previously disclosed in the Company's prior filings with the SEC, certain affiliated parties of GVS, including GVS Texas Holdings I, LLC, have filed a voluntary petition for relief (the "Bankruptcy Cases") under Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas (the "Bankruptcy Court"). On April 27, 2022, the Company commenced an adversary proceeding in the Bankruptcy Court captioned Princeton Capital Corporation v. GVS Texas Holdings I, LLC, et al, Adv. Proceeding No. 22-03043 (the "Adversary Proceeding") alleging causes of action against certain related parties for, among other things, fraudulent transfer and breach of contract.

On September 2, 2022, the Company, Natin Paul (on behalf of himself individually and on behalf of all entities that he either owns or controls), Natin Paul (on behalf of all adversary defendants in the Adversary Proceeding), Natin Paul (on behalf of the reorganized debtors in the Bankruptcy Cases), World Class Holdings I, LLC, and Phoenix Lending, LLC, as the Assignee of the Transaction Documents (including certain Promissory Notes) that were the subject of the State Litigation, entered into a settlement, assignment and acceptance agreement (the "Settlement Agreement") pursuant to which, pending approval by the Bankruptcy Court and certain other conditions precedent, the Assignee will pay to the Company the amount of $11,372,698.89 within three (3) days after the Bankruptcy Court's approval and the completion of certain other conditions precedent set forth in the Settlement Agreement, in exchange for (i) duly endorsed Transaction Documents, (ii) notices of dismissal with prejudice in the Adversary Proceeding, (iii) notices of the assignment of the Promissory Notes and Judgment, and (iv) notices withdrawing certain claims by the Company.

The foregoing description of the Settlement Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by the text of the agreement, a copy of which is expected to be filed as an exhibit to the Company's Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2022.

PRINCETON CAPITAL CORPORATION

By: /s/ Gregory J. Cannella Name: Gregory J. Cannella Title: Chief Financial Officer

Comparing Princeton's SEC filings over the course of this lawsuit and receivership, here is a chart that shows the huge financial value your Receiver has bestowed on Princeton:

Princeton Capital Corp. v. Great Value Storage, LLC and World Class Capital Group, LLC, et al., No. 2019-18855 Receiver's Report Page 88 of 100 Princeton's share price surged 17 percent from 24 cents to 29 cents on October 7, when Princeton received the $11.37 million wire transfer:

0.2800 0.0000 (0.00%)

The hope of precisely this success impelled Princeton to ask this Court last year, and the First Court of Appeals this year, to keep your Receiver in place. Princeton fought tooth and nail for your Receiver—in opposition to Nate Paul's motions to stay the receivership last Fall, again in Princeton's appellate brief, again at oral argument on June 1, 2022, and yet again in its post-argument submission filed in mid-June:

"[]Appellants [Nate Paul] are unhappy that the Receiver is, in fact, acting pursuant to his authority to secure the judgment debtors' assets.... This Court's close attention to Appellants' actions in this regard is important and Princeton looks forward to the opportunity to fully brief the legal and factual merits supporting trial court's entry of the Receivership Order and the necessity for such order, should Appellants ultimately file an appellate brief on this issue."  $^{\prime\prime 100}$

"There is an emergency need for the Receiver to take action to prevent Appellants from contributing to removing assets outside of the reach of the properly-appointed Receiver, and of Princeton Capital Corporation ("Princeton") as the judgment creditor."<sup>101</sup>

"All parties are best protected during this appeal with the turnover Order securely in place and the contested assets under careful oversight of the court-appointed Receiver."<sup>102</sup>

"Respectfully, Princeton has experienced much of the same pattern of behavior from Appellants in this dispute and shares the same concern that Appellants' assets will be lost, removed, or materially injured if not protected by the trial court's Order appointing the Receiver."<sup>103</sup>

"As set out in the Receiver's Opposition to Appellants' Motion to Stay, the Receiver already located non-exempt assets of the judgment debtors that are available to satisfy the judgment, and which Appellants had failed to disclose in response to any discovery requests and the trial court's Order."<sup>104</sup>

"Allowing the Receiver to secure the Appellants' assets during the pendency of the appeal is the only way to ensure that any assets that remain are not improperly transferred out of the companies to avoid the judgment."<sup>105</sup>

"Last, despite the significant obstacles created by the Judgment Debtors, the Receiver has developed a factual record showing that Debtors have misrepresented information about assets and engaged in fraudulent transfers of funds and properties to avoid the liability to Princeton and others. The Receiver's work is sorely needed to shine the light on what has occurred and unwind the complex financial transactions in order to secure Princeton's judgment from the Debtors' fraud."<sup>106</sup>

"[T] he Receiver is taking steps to locate valuable real estate assets that the Debtors' own and that are housed within wholly-owned subsidiary entities."<sup>107</sup>

The reason this graph shoots up rapidly during the last 60 days is because that is when your Receiver successfully blocked all exits for Nate Paul to leave bankruptcy court and state district courts without paying Princeton Capital this Court's judgment. The Court will recall that in January of this year it sua sponte issued an injunction against the Nate Paul Entities (he ignored) and compelled him to deliver financial records to Princeton for Paul's deposition (he likewise ignored). So, after three years of disrespect of this Court, of ignoring this Court's discovery orders, of refusing to pay this Court's judgment, of misappropriating more than $94 million of cash and real estate during the litigation, he finally had no choice but to pay Princeton 100% because your Receiver challenged him at every turn.

X. PAUL FILED TWO HARASSMENT LAWSUITS AGAINST YOUR RECEIVER.

Using corporate shells, Paul filed two harassment lawsuits against your Receiver, seeking injunctions and alleging misconduct.<sup>108</sup> Paul dismissed one of the lawsuits in the face of your Receiver's Rule 91a motion to dismiss. The other was assigned to Judge McFarland, who transferred it at Receiver's request to this Court. Receiver respectfully asks the Court to dismiss it.

XI. SETTLEMENT OF PENDING SUBSIDIARY LITIGATION WITH TWO SECURED CREDITORS.

Your Receiver settled lawsuits between two subsidiaries of World Class Capital Group, LLC and two secured creditors. Settlement was in the best interest of the receivership estate.

A. Receiver's settlement of the WC 4th and Colorado, LP litigation.

Using three Nate Paul controlled entities under World Class Capital Group, LLC, Paul borrowed money and purchased a commercial property located at the intersection of 4th Street and Colorado Street in Austin. Title was held by a subsidiary, WC 4th and Colorado, LP.

The debt on World Class's 4th and Colorado property ("Property") matured on December 31, 2019 (prior to COVID). WC 4th and Colorado, LP ("Borrower") failed to pay its debt so Colorado Third Street, LLC ("Lender") pursued foreclosure of the collateral.

During July 2020, Borrower (i.e., Paul) sought a temporary injunction to avoid foreclosure of the Property. After a full evidentiary hearing, Travis County District Judge Guerra Gamble denied that injunction request.<sup>109</sup>

On the morning of the August 4, 2020, foreclosure sale, Borrower filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy, automatically staying the foreclosure sale.<sup>110</sup> For the ensuing 10 months, Borrower and Lender disputed in bankruptcy.

On June 3, 2021, federal bankruptcy Judge Hon. Tony Davis lifted the automatic stay so that Lender could pursue its foreclosure remedies. Judge Davis lifted the stay after Borrower (i.e.,

Paul) attempted to confirm four different restructuring plans, each time promising that refinancing funds were forthcoming, but they never were. After the stay was lifted by the Bankruptcy Court so that Lender could again pursue foreclosure, Borrower continued obstructionist attempts to avoid foreclosure.

On July 1, 2021, Nate Paul and World Class Capital Group, LLC filed a new lawsuit, without merit, seeking another temporary restraining order, attempting to enjoin the foreclosure sale that had been ripe since January 2020. After a hearing, the Travis County District Court denied the request for TRO.

On July 5, 2021, Borrower (again, Paul) filed its own request for TRO, again seeking to enjoin the foreclosure sale. Travis County District Judge Cantú Hexsel saw through the ruse and denied that request as well.

On July 6, 2021, a non-judicial foreclosure sale finally occurred with respect to the Property. Colorado Third Street, LLC, the Lender, was the only qualified bidder at the foreclosure sale. As the only qualified bidder, Lender offered the high bid with a credit bid of $8,760,000. The sale was completed in less than 20 minutes and the Property was awarded to Lender.

On November 18, 2021, the Receiver filed a notice of appearance and entered into a Settlement Agreement with Colorado Third Street, LLC, the Lender, to settle the litigation. The terms are subject to a bilateral confidentiality clause.

B. Receiver's settlement of the WC 4th and Rio Grande, LP property litigation.

Another subsidiary, WC 4th and Rio Grande, LP ("Borrower"), owned a fee simple interest in commercial real property located in Austin (the "Property"). On July 29, 2014, Borrower (i.e., Paul) executed a Promissory Note (the "Note"), evidencing a $4,250,000 commercial real estate loan (the "Loan") in favor of Inter National Bank and its successor in interest, Vantage Bank Texas (collectively "Original Lender"). If Borrower failed to make payments as they "bec[a]me due and payable," the Note permitted Original Lender "to foreclose any liens and security interests securing payment" and to exercise its rights "under any other Loan Document." The Note also contained an express waiver of Borrower's "right[] to the benefits of ... redemption." The parties memorialized the Loan in a Loan Agreement (the "Loan Agreement"), which included a ten-day cure period for "Monetary Defaults.

The Loan is secured by the Property. The Deed of Trust stated that the "Loan Documents," including the Note, "constitute[d] the legal, valid, and binding obligations" of the Borrower as "Grantor" and Nate Paul as "Guarantor."

In July 2020, Borrower (i.e., Paul) stopped making payments on the Note. This constituted a Monetary Default under the Loan Documents, as Borrower had "fail[ed], refus[ed] or neglect[ed] ... to pay when due any part of the Indebtedness or to comply with and discharge any of the Obligations." It also permitted Original Lender—and subsequent owners and holders of the Note—to "declare the entire unpaid balance of the Indebtedness immediately due and payable, and upon such declaration, the entire, unpaid balance of the Indebtedness shall be immediately due and payable."

Consequently, on July 29, 2020, Original Lender sent a Notice of Default and Intent to Accelerate to Borrower (i.e., Paul), notifying Borrower that it was in default and that it had a contractual right to cure its default and redeem the Property within ten days of receipt of the notice. Borrower failed to cure its default. So on August 10, 2020, Original Lender exercised its contractual remedy of acceleration and sought payment of the total amounts due to Original Lender. Borrower never formally responded to any of this correspondence or denied that it was in default under the Note. Borrower also did not cure its default or redeem the Property within the contractual time period.

Nonetheless, Borrower (i.e., Paul) filed a lawsuit on November 27, 2020 to prevent Lender from foreclosing on the property, and to enjoin the December 1, 2020 foreclosure sale.<sup>111</sup> The Court denied the TRO. Borrower amended its petition, adding a claim for equitable redemption based on the same meritless allegations it has asserted all along. Borrower then moved for summary judgment on that claim as well as its claim for declaratory relief.

On September 2, 2021, the Court heard Plaintiff's Second Amended Motion for Partial Summary Judgment. After considering the motion, response, pleadings, evidence presented, and the arguments of counsel, the Court denied Plaintiff's Second Amended Motion for Partial Summary Judgment on September 10, 2021.

On November 18, 2021, the Receiver filed a notice of appearance and entered into a Settlement Agreement with La Zona Rio LLC, the Lender, to settle the litigation.

Paul filed another identical lawsuit January 12, 2022 against the secured Lender.<sup>112</sup> Your Receiver non-suited the lawsuit. Travis County District Judge Catherine Mauzy twice ruled that your Receiver properly exercised his authority. Paul has now appealed, pending before the Eight Court of Appeals.<sup>113</sup>

C. Receiver applied appropriate business judgment.

Receiver applied sound business judgment to resolve litigation affecting property held by the receivership estate. Settlement of the pending litigation involving these two subsidiaries was appropriate:

- Settlement terminated questionable litigation with little or no likelihood of success;
- Settlement eliminated continuing costs of litigation for the receivership estate as well as for Borrower's attorneys' fees, and costs of trial or appeal;
- Settlement satisfied debt and eliminated continuing accrual of interest and liability for Lender's attorneys' fees;
- Settlement released liability for claims asserted by Lender for breach of contract and demands for indemnification;
- Settlement elimination of Lender claims of fraudulent conveyances by Borrower for transfers to World Class Capital Group, LLC, and its affiliates, claims that could potentially diminish the value of the receivership estate;
- Settlement provided control over the amount, certainty, and timing of payment from Lender of settlement proceeds to the receivership estate;
- Settlement eliminated necessity for summary judgment, trial and an appeals process that can take years.

For these reasons, therefore, Receiver properly settled the pending litigation involving subsidiaries.

XII. ALL FUNDS HAVE BEEN PROPERLY ACCOUNTED THROUGH A DEDICATED IOLTA AT CADENCE BANK.

To account for all funds, your Receiver opened a dedicated IOLTA for the receivership at Cadence Bank. All receipts and expenses were deposited into and disbursed from this account.

Receipts came from two sources: (1) litigation settlement agreements with two commercial secured creditors, and (2) claw back of fraudulently transferred funds.

Expenses largely consisted of legal fees to law firms for 13 months of litigation:

- Culhane Meadows, PLLC. Three lawyers from this firm represented your Receiver in the Austin and Dallas bankruptcy cases and adversary action.<sup>114</sup>
- Dana E. Lipp Law Firm, PLLC. Ms. Lipp, also a CPA, represents your Receiver in state court litigation.
- Kretzer & Volberding, P.C. Receiver hired his law firm to represent him. Charges are only by Mr. Volberding, also a CPA, and his legal assistant. Mr. Volberding appeared in all the state and federal litigation and wrote and filed most of the pleadings. Mr. Kretzer did not bill any time.<sup>115</sup>
- Two small law firms conducted supporting legal research.

The balance of expenses consisted of court reporter charges by Veritex, LLC to depose

Ms. Sheena Paul, process service of subpoenas by Special Delivery Service, Inc., filing fees, consulting fees, bank fees for document production and exhibits.

<sup>115</sup> A receiver, like a trustee, may hire the receiver's own law firm for representation. Cf. 11 U.S.C. § 327(d); Bankr. R. 2014; "Overall, 'retention of the trustee's own firm has been a very effective method of providing quality representation of the bankruptcy estates...." In re Kusler, 224 B.R. 180, 193 (Bankr. N.D. Okla.1998). "As is true for any client, a trustee has wide latitude in selecting the legal counsel he wishes to employ...." In re Gem Tire & Service Co., 117 B.R. 874, 874 (Bankr. S.D. ## XIII. RECEIVER'S SUPPORTING EXHIBITS.

Separately, your Receiver has filed supporting exhibits, incorporated herein by reference. These include the exhibits that will be filed contemporaneously with this report. The exhibits also include the Court's judicial notice of its file pursuant to Rule of Evidence 202, and the business records affidavits and statements filed throughout the case. Your Receiver respectfully requests admission of these exhibits.

XIV. CONCLUSION.

Seth Kretzer (your "Receiver"), Receiver for Great Value Storage LLC and World Class Capital Group LLC (the "Judgment Debtors"), respectfully approval of this report documenting Nate Paul Organization's non-compliance with this Court's September 8, 2021 receivership order and discussing the results of the receivership.

XV. RECOMMENDATIONS.

Your Receiver recommends that the Court authorize him to hold the proofs of claim and adversary action pending in the Dallas and Austin Bankruptcy Courts. This is necessary to provide a second means of paying the Receiver's fees if Paul seeks to obstruct payment with additional lawsuits and appeals. The Court is requested to sign an order:

- 1. Approving your Receiver's Report;
- 2. Admitting your Receiver's supporting exhibits;
- 3. Granting your Receiver's September 16, 2022 motion for declaratory judgment relief;
- 4. Declaring the purported assignment of judgment and note payable agreement from Princeton Capital to the newly created entity solely controlled by Paul as violative of Texas law and policy, and therefore invalid;
- 5. Approving payment of $2,843,174.70 as Receiver's fee, the designated 25% fee, per the Court's September 8, 2021 receivership order;
- 6. Requesting immediate payment of the receivership fees from the reserve fund held by the Dallas Bankruptcy Court, plus any additional expenses incurred to respond to appeals and lawsuits by Nate Paul Entities;
- 7. Denying Nate Paul Entities' attempts at discovery;
- 8. Overruling Nate Paul Entities' objections;
- 9. Reporting to the First Court of Appeals that the Court has complied with its September 21, 2022 order to evaluate the purported settlement agreement.

Your Receiver has filed a proposed order to this effect.

Respectfully submitted this 30 day of October 2022,

Seth Kretzer

DECLARATION OF NATIN PAUL

My name is Natin ("Nate") Paul, and I am over the age of 18 years old and competent to make this declaration., My business address is 814 Lavaca Street, Austin, Texas 78701. I declare under penalty of perjury that the facts stated in this document are true and correct.

I am the sole manager for World Class Capital Group, LLC ("WCCG"). In that role, I have personal knowledge of the matters set forth herein.

WCCG was originally formed in May 2007 primarily to manage certain commercial real estate investments. Starting in 2016, WCCG was restructured for the company to solely provide real-estate or administrative services to certain entities on a go-forward basis. As a result, WCCG no longer held any membership interests in any entities, and transitioned solely to be a service provider to real-estate-owning entities. WCCG currently has no ownership interest in any other entity, and it owns no real property.

WCCG's assets comprise entirely of: (i) a single bank account at Security State Bank (the "WCCG Bank Account"); the account, and any funds therein (last known balance was $24,136) are currently inaccessible to WCCG due to a judgment hold by Gibson Dunn discussed below; and (ii) $103,191.20 in furniture, fixtures, and equipment ("FF&E") on a depreciated basis. A true and correct copy of a current screenshot of the WCCG Bank Account is attached hereto as Exhibit 1. A true and correct copy of WCCG's FF&E schedule as of October 31, 2021, showing the cost and depreciated basis of each asset is attached hereto as Exhibit 2. FF&E consists of old, unused equipment and furniture bought several years ago. The fair market value of WCCG's FFE is negligible and less than its depreciated basis, but for conservative estimates the full depreciated basis is listed on the WCCG statement of net worth. In total, WCCG has assets in the amount of $127,327.

WCCG's liabilities are substantial. WCCG is judgment co-debtor of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher, LLP, joint and severally, pursuant to a July 28, 2020 judgment in Index No. 650318/2020 in the Supreme Court of the State of New York (the "New York Judgment"). A true and correct copy of the New York Judgment is attached hereto as Exhibit 3. The amount of the judgment is $924,584.37, plus post-judgment interest at 9% ($227.98 per day), totaling $1,039,486.14 as of December 14, 2021. The New York Judgment brings WCCG's net worth down to a negative $912,159.14 (when taking into account post judgement interest).

WCCG also owes an additional $86,390.98 in accounts payable. A true and correct copy of WCCG's accounts payable schedule as of October 31, 2021 is attached hereto as Exhibit 4. The accounts payable schedule includes the New York Judgment and a judgment debt held by Civil & Environmental Consultants, Inc. A true and correct copy of an abstract of judgment of the Civil & Environmental Consultants, Inc. is attached hereto as Exhibit 5. True and correct copies of additional supporting invoices for the amounts on the accounts payable schedule are attached hereto as Exhibits 6 through 16. The outstanding accounts payable owed by WCCG brings the company's net worth down to a negative $998,550.12.

WCCG also owes an unpaid balance on a loan in the amount of $250,000. The lender of this loan to WCCG is its President, Mr. Natin Paul. This unpaid balance further reduces WCCG's net worth to a negative $1,248,550.12.

The document attached as Exhibit 17 is an accurate, true and correct copy of WCCG's Statement of Assets and Liabilities as of October 31, 2021. Exhibit 17 accurately identifies the assets and liabilities of WCCG as of October 31, 2021, using generally accepted accounting principles on an accrual basis by subtracting accrued liabilities from assets to establish WCCG's net worth. In sum, as of December 14, 2021, WCCG has a negative net worth of $1,248,550.12.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed in Travis County, Texas, on the  $14^{\rm th}$  day of December 2021.

November 15, 2021

BY EFILING The Hon. Peter Kelly First Court of Appeals 301 Fannin Street Houston, Texas 77002-2066

Re: Case No. 01-21-00284; Great Value Storage, LLC and World Class Capital Group, LLC v. Princeton Capital Corporation; In the Fist Court of Appeals.

Dear Justice Kelly:

On October 26, 2021, you signed an order temporarily granting "appellant's motion to stay the trial court's order appointing a receiver." The order abated the appeal and remanded this matter to the trial court for a determination of whether appellee's rights would be adequately protected by supersedeas or another order under Rule 24.

Net Worth Declaration

Today, as required by the order, Great Value Storage, LLC ("GVS") filed the attached Rule 24.2(c)(1) declaration by Barbara Lee (Exhibit 1) regarding its net worth with the attached schedules and documentation. Because GVS has a negative net worth, GVS will file a nominal $100 supersedeas bond tomorrow. Hunter Buildings & Mfg., L.P. v. MBI Glob., L.L.C., 514 S.W.3d 233, 238-239 (Tex. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 2013, no pet.). Pursuant to Rule 24.2(c)(1), this is prima facie evidence of GVS's net worth for establishing the required bond. The burden is now on Princeton Capital Corporation to contest GVS's claimed net worth. Tex. R. App. P. 24.2(c)(2). November 15, 2021 Page 2 of 3

GVS Bankruptcy Proceeding

The Court is aware that the Receiver appeared in the bankruptcy proceeding involving several storage facilities for which GVS is the property manager. See No. 21-31121; In re: GVS Texas Holdings I, LLC, et al.; In the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas.

After the bankruptcy court rebuffed the receiver, Princeton on October 19, 2021 moved for a Rule 2004 examination of the debtors. Princeton sought the examination because "Princeton's rights and interests may be drastically affected by the actions taken in these bankruptcy cases." The bankruptcy court denied the motion.

Largely as a result of concerns about the GVS receivership in the underlying lawsuit, Robert Albergotti, the sole director of the debtors in the related bankruptcy, has indicated an intent to terminate GVS' management contracts. Princeton correctly claims that this will deprive the GVS of its source of revenue and is a result of the receivership proceedings. As explained in the Motion to Stay Appointment of Receiver, Princeton is not entitled to a receiver because it did not present any evidence of the trial court of GVS's assets that could be sold to satisfy the judgment.

Receiver's Continued Actions

After receiving the October 26 order, GVS notified the Receiver of the stay order and demanded that he notify GVS of any actions taken as receiver, particularly regarding bank accounts identified in his pleadings and governmental agencies. Exhibit 3. As of today, the Receiver has not responded. His law office is still listed as the office of GVS. Exhibit 4.

Clarification of the October 26 Order

The October 26 order only mentions appellant GVS. It does not mention appellant World Class Capital Group, LLC ("WCCG"). As explained in our brief, WCCG is not liable on the Note Purchase Agreement on which Princeton sues. Is WCCG similarly required to present evidence regarding a supersedeas bond or other form of security to the trial court? If so, WCCG can comply within 10 days of an order clarifying this duty. November 15, 2021 Page 3 of 3

Lastly, the October 26 order states that it abates the appeal. Does this order abate both the appeal of the final judgment and the interlocutory appeal of the order appointing a receiver? It seems obvious that it does, but appellants want to be certain before passing any briefing deadlines or updating the appellate record.

Thank you in advance for clarifying the order to the extent necessary. We again ask the Court to continue the Receiver Order until the disposition of this appeal under Tex. R. App. 29.3.

Very truly yours,

Brent C. Perry
